BIG JEWEL ROBBERY AT COPLEY PLAZA

The Weather.

Fair and much colder, tonight: Wednesday fair, moderate west and northwest winds, becoming variable.
Sun rises 7:08; sets 4:44.
Moon sets 8:41 a. m.
High tide 10:00 a. m.; 10:30 p. m.
Temperatures: Boston 48, New York 40, Chicago 10, Denver 26, Los Angeles 48.

BOSTON AMERICAN

10 O'CLOCK EDITION

VOL. 9—No. 303. BOSTON, TUESDAY, JANUARY 21, 1913. Registered in U. S. Patent Office. PRICE ONE CENT.

FOSS CALLS FOR PAPERS IN C. F. KING PARDON

THIEVES GET $1614 AT PLAZA

Two "breaks" in apartments at the Copley Plaza Hotel, involving thefts of jewelry and cash aggregating $1,614, were today reported to the Boston police. Employes are being interrogated. In each case fairs were being used early last evening while guests were dining.

The apartments of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Atkinson of Atlanta were ransacked and jewelry reported to be worth $1,500 was stolen. The police say Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson report the loss of a diamond ring, gold vanity knot, a watch and chain, a gold cigarette case and smaller trinkets.

The police bulletin also states that a guest by the name of Harry E. Converse, a rubber merchant, lost a $100 watch and $14 in money during the same hours last evening.

Rumor had it also that Elizabeth Brice, an actress, lost $2,500.

The management of the hotel gave out this statement:

"Certain theatrical people have been anxious to make it known that Miss Brice, the actress, lost $2,500 worth of jewels or something like that, but there doesn't appear to be anything in the report.

"So far as the Harry E. Converse complaint is concerned, we will say there is no such guest registered here.

"It is true that Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Atkinson are stopping here, and that property was stolen from their rooms, but we understand the value of the loss was $1,500, what they lost is not valued at more than $15.

BURROUGHS GAINS ON FIFTH BALLOT FOR N. H. SENATOR

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 21.—The New Hampshire Legislature took its fifth ballot at noon today for United States Senator, and failed to make a choice. The feature of the ballot was the big gain made by Burroughs, Republican. Four hundred and sixteen votes were cast; 209 necessary for a choice. Hollis, Democrat, headed the list with 197 votes, with Quimby, Republican, next. He had 88 votes.

Other candidates with the vote cast for them were: Sherman E. Burroughs, Republican, 55; E. W. Pillsbury, Republican, 22; Robert P. Bass, Progressive, 21; John H. Bartlett, Republican, 2; Edward N. Pearson, Republican, 11; Thomas Chadbourn, Republican, 8; George H. Hughes, Democrat, 2; Charles G. Sheeld 2; and the following one each: David A. Taggart, Gordon Woodbury, Clarence E. Carr, Alfred P. Howard, Samuel W. Emery, John W. Kelley, and Rolalit H. Spaulding.

MARLBORO PAIR HASTEN WEDDING

MARLBORO, Jan. 21.—Embarrassed by the prospects of a wedding demonstration on the date set—today—Miss Mary A. Brannigan, bookkeeper in a shoe factory here, and Joseph H. Carey, clerk in a drug store, went to the parochial residence of the Immaculate Conception Church yesterday and were married by the Rev. T. B. Lowney. Then they escaped by automobile to Hudson, whence they went to New York, and their friends never knew what had happened until they prepared to attend the ceremony today. Mrs. Carey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brannigan.

SENDS WARSHIP TO PROTECT AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Secretary of State Knox today decided to send at least one American warship to Vera Cruz to protect Americans and their property here.

BEGIN IT TODAY
"SUNSHINE AND SHADOWS"
A Thrilling Story of Life in a Great City
By HOWELL POOLE
"Better than 'The Temptations of a Working Girl'"
ON PAGE 11

THIS IS BY THE MAN WHO WROTE "SNOW, BEAUTIFUL SNOW!"

(The sunny weather is producing signs of Spring everywhere.)

You must wake and call me early;
Call me early, mother dear,
Tomorrow'll be the happiest time
Of all the glad New Year.
It's January, oh, mother mine,
When all the world is gay;
And I'm to be Queen of the May, mother;
I'm to be Queen of the May.

You must wake and call me early,
Call me early, mother mine,
For the mercury is soaring,
And the air is just like wine,
And the little birds are singing,
And the corn is on the ear,
For it's January, my mother,
The warmest of all the year!

AT LAST! COLD WAVE IS REALLY COMING TONIGHT

Official forecast—Fair and much colder tonight, Wednesday, fair; moderate, and northwest winds, becoming variable.

The advance guard of the cold wave has arrived. The temperature dropped slowly today and the weather man, after many false alarms, declared that this time the wave was sure coming and that it would sweep Boston tonight.

A dispatch from Chicago this noon said that the cold weather had arrived safely there and had started on eastward with a punch and a rush.

According to the dispatch, Chicago was gripped by the coldest weather of the Winter. The drop in the temperature followed in the wake of a blizard that tied up traffic all over the city, caused the death of one man and injuries to four others. Hundreds of pedestrians were bruised by falls on icy sidewalks. Horses dropped in all parts of the city. Charitable institutions in Chicago were besieged with applicants for aid. Many of them were in need of food. Others begged for bed covering that their children might not freeze. The blizzard is reported by the weather men as rushing Eastward. Whether it will reach Boston, for which it is now headed, remains to be seen.

Trying to produce a genuine cold spell, the thermograph at the Weather Bureau "busted" just as success was about to crown his efforts.

The thermograph is the instrument on which the local temperatures are officially recorded. If the thermograph is out of commission there is no temperature for no official weather man would think of guessing at a temperature. He might do a bit of guessing on a Lreeast, but never on a temperature.

A preliminary examination of the defunct thermograph indicates that this faithful servant naturally died of worry and a broken heart.

The temperatures this Winter (?) have proved more than it could bear. The AMERICAN called the local weather station on the telephone at 8:30 today to see if anything new in the way of weather was on the card.

"What's the temperature?" was asked.

"If you please," said a voice nervously, "will you call up later. We can't give any temperatures yet—not any official ones. Our thermograph is broken. It went out of order at midnight. If you'll please call up later, say at nine of nine-thirty, after Mr. Smith, the Local Forecaster, gets in, he may be able to make some arrangement. But we can't give you any temperatures since midnight."

PROBE OF FACTORIES IS ASKED

A resolve providing for the appointment of a special committee to make a study of child labor conditions in this State with a view to seeing if the 54-hour law for women and children is being violated was today introduced in the House of Representatives by Representative Benjamin F. Sullivan.

"This measure," said Representative Sullivan, "is aimed to abolish the outrageous conditions which the Boston AMERICAN has shown to exist."

The stories referred to by Mr. Sullivan, and which have been published in the AMERICAN, show how children are employed in various kinds of factory work in Greater Boston at their homes, in some cases little ones barely able to talk working steadily to assist their mothers earn enough on which to live.

WALL TUMBLES IN DORCHESTER

Ten feet square of the side wall of a partially constructed new building tumbled into an excavation for another building adjoining it, at the corner of Bowdoin and Olney streets, Dorchester, today, following the settling off of a dynamite blast by workmen in the excavation. As all of the workmen on the building under way had left the cellar had been warned of danger they were safe from the falling bricks.

Part of the first floor of the damaged structure sagged when the wall collapsed. Frederick J. Rockwell is building the structure whose wall fell for the Hawkes Ice Cream Company. It was said that the damage would not reach more than $100.

TURKS TO HEED POWERS; PEACE NOW IN SIGHT

LONDON, Jan. 21.—From all indications peace in the Balkans is virtually assured.

A telegram from Constantinople this afternoon stated that the Porte would probably make a final decision by Thursday, accepting the advice of the Powers.

Under these circumstances, it was said that the national assembly would not be convened in Constantinople.

Word from Vienna said that Austria was still modifying her reserves, although the peace party there was in the ascendancy.

STORM BATTERED, PALLANZA DOCKS

Eleven days overdue and showing marks of a hurricane encountered during the voyage, the Hamburg-American line freighter Pallanza arrived here today. The Pallanza was a month in making the trip. During part of the voyage she was blown so far off her course that it was necessary for her to stop at Fayal, Azores, to get coal. The steering gear of the Pallanza was demolished, several lifeboats wrenched from their chocks and a part of the bridge bulwarks wrecked.

KING PETER OF SERVIA IS TAKEN ILL ON JOURNEY

LONDON, Jan. 21.—A special dispatch from Zemlin today said that King Peter of Servia was seriously ill. The King, journeying a short distance from Belgrade, fainted and was rushed back to Belgrade to the care of court physicians. Nervous exhaustion, resulting from the strain of the war, is said to be the cause.

NEW GRAND JURY ON MELLEN DEAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—A special Federal Grand Jury was sworn in today before Judge Hand in the Federal District Court, because of the plea in abatement put in by counsel for Presidents Mellen and Chamberlin in the alleged New Haven-Grand Trunk deal.

Five Singing Mice, First in Captivity, in Harvard Chorus

Harvard College now has the first singing mice in captivity, so far as known.

The rodent songsters are in the care of Charles Coburn, Harvard's psychological expert, who has recently gained additional fame by his studies of mice from a psychological standpoint.

There are five of these gifted mice. They are females and they come from New York. Whether they are the prima donna type, a la Tetrazzini, or whether they are merely of the Broadway chorus girl type, remains to be seen.

A New York man found these mice in his tool chest. He was guided thence by the sound of their piping. The canary-like tone of their voices prompted him to notify the Harvard psychological department, which referred the matter to Mr. Coburn. The latter made a trip to New York just to get the mice.

Mr. Coburn will try to breed more singing mice by these first ones. It is now argued that rodent grand opera may not be an impossibility.

Miss Curtis Chosen by Votes of the Men, Statistician Proves

It was the men, after all, who elected Miss Frances G. Curtis to the Boston School Board.

This gallant concussion is shown today in figures compiled by Dr. Edward M. Hartwell, the city statistician. Dr. Hartwell has analyzed the school board vote thus:

Total school board vote	49,589
Miss Frances G. Curtis	27,241
Isaac Harris	22,112
All others	36
Miss Curtis' majority over Harris	5,129
Number of women voting	4,929
Number of votes Miss Curtis had to spare without the women's vote	199

The above analysis allows that all the women voted for Miss Curtis, which is most improbable. But the greater the number of women who voted for Harris, the more it is shown that it was the masculine voters who elected Miss Curtis.

She Bought His Produce, Now He's Her Third Husband

The wedding of Mrs. Mary A. Cross-Heath, seventy, of Winthrop, three a bride, and Thomas Addison, sixty-seven, of Boston, three years his wife's junior, has brought to light a romance of middle life of unusual character.

Some eight months ago Mr. Addison, who is a produce peddler, knocked at Mrs. Cross-Heath's door. It happened that she responded to the tap on the door. It was a case of love at first sight.

Every day came the usual tap and every time Mrs. Cross-Heath responded. On many occasions, she admitted, she purchased foodstuffs in order to delay Mr. Addison. Permission to call was secured by Mr. Addison and a week or more ago Mrs. Cross-Heath broke the news of her engagement to her surprised daughter. After a short honeymoon the couple will reside in Boston.

FARMER IS HELD IN $1,000 IN DE LUXE BOOK CASE

Glenn F. Farmer, the New Yorker alleged by government investigators to be the brains of the $15,000,000 de luxe edition swindle, in which many New England men and women of wealth were trapped, was arraigned in the Superior Criminal Court today and held for trial under bonds of $1000. He pleaded not guilty.

The principal complainant against Farmer, who was brought here from New York after a three weeks' fight against extradition, is Mr. Mary L. Rogers of No. 96 Beacon street.

Farmer is charged with larceny in sixteen counts aggregating $67,975 from Mrs. Rogers, and with fraudulently securing her signature to a contract.

Farmer, it is said, lived in great style on Riverside Driver overlooking the Hudson, and at the time of his arrest was in business with his father on Fifth avenue.

TUDOR TEA
The guarantee will ever pocket of Tudor Tea is your money back if you want it. Buy it today.

OPEN WAR FOR PURE FOOD BILL

The pure food fight, in what promises to be the greatest pure food Legislature Massachusetts has ever seen, opened today at the State House. Hearings were given on two bills introduced by Mayor Fitzgerald of Boston, one to regulate the sale of cheese and to provide a cheese standard; and the other to fix standards for renovated butter, butter, and oleomargarine.

Joseph J. Corbett, corporation counsel of Boston, led the fight for the bills. Representatives of Boston and Massachusetts retailers opposed them. The hearing was before the Committee on Agriculture Senator Ward, chairman.

Corporation Counsel Corbett said in opening the discussion of the bill to fix a standard and regulate the sale of cheese:

Object of Bill.

We desire to make it a criminal offense to sell cheese containing less than fifty per cent. butter fat without telling the customer the facts.

This law is in the interest of the consumer and of the honest retailer. Cheese made from whole milk will be well above this fifty per cent. standard. Cheese below this standard may be sold, if it is labelled "Skim Milk Cheese." We believe this law if necessary, will help retailers who are cheating their customers by selling skim milk cheese as good cheese and at fraudulent prices.

James O. Jordan, chief inspector of the city of Boston, followed. He said:

There is much of this skim milk cheese fraudulently sold today. The consumer has no recourse whatever. Massachusetts is lagging behind her sister States and behind the Federal government. This law would simply put into effect in Massachusetts the Federal standard on cheese.

Burden, Say Retailers.

Then the retailers had their chance. Henry W. Mansfield, secretary of the Massachusetts Retail Grocery and Provision Dealers' Association, said:

The small retailer is harassed already by a burden of food laws. The average man, if this law passes, would have his own chemist and must test all his cheese, to make himself safe within the law. The retailer has to undergo too many hardships already.

Senator Ward asked:

"How is the consumer to know whether he is getting skim milk cheese or whole milk cheese?"

Mr. Mansfield hesitated, then answered: "He can tell by the price. If he pays twenty-four or five cents, he's getting whole milk cheese. If he pays seventeen cents or so, he's getting skim milk cheese."

Admits Cheating by Some.

E. J. Spinney of Dorchester, chairman of the Legislative Committee of the Boston Retail Grocers' Association, said that the food laws are becoming a burden upon the retailer. He admitted that some stores are selling skimmilk cheese, and that regulation was needed, but did not wish to see the burden of caring for the purity of the cheese laid upon the retailer.

Alton E. Briggs, executive secretary of the Boston Fruit and Produce Exchange, did not wish to be classified as a "consumerist," he said. But he opposed the bill, declaring it would force the retailers to go into chemistry to test their cheese.

He furnished the committee and the dairyers with a chance to laugh, when in answer from a question from Senator Ward he admitted that he had not read the bill through and did not know that a retailer was completely protected if he simply sold skim milk cheese under Unit name, and did not attempt to market it at fraudulently high prices.

After a brief hearing on the butter standard bill, Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock was set for a further hearing.

JAMES L. MARTIN STRICKEN ON WALK

James Lawrence Martin, treasurer of the Widows Savings Bank and also treasurer of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, was stricken with apoplexy while walking on Short street, Melrose, today. Mr. Martin was on his way from his home to the railroad station. He was taken to the Melrose Hospital, where his condition is said to be serious.

Fr. John's Medicine Cures Bronchitis
And all throat and lung troubles.

E. S. ROLAND, WHO WANTS TO MARRY A BOSTON GIRL

Edward S. Roland, a cigarmaker of Lancaster, Pa., wants a wife. He has written to Henry Abrahams, secretary of the Cigarmakers' Union in Boston, about it. The lonesome bachelor enclosed his photograph and a letter to Mayor Fitzgerald with the hope that the Mayor would help him. Mr. Abrahams gave the Mayor the letter and picture. In the letter Roland said:

Mayor, Dear Sir—Enclosed find a few lines. In asking you to advertise my photograph will say that I am a bachelor, aged twenty-four, height 5 feet 6 inches, weight 160 pounds, light blue eyes, have good habits, nice form and fair complexion. As I am tired of living alone I am waiting a life companion; some one to make life happy for me, and I think I can love the right one of suited.

I am a cigar maker by trade and would like to hear from some nice, refined bachelor girls between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-five who have big experience on all grades of cigar making and who know how to make a home happy. Theatre-goers need not answer. Will marry if suited. Send photo in first letter. Will answer all letters containing a postage stamp.

Mr. Roland gave his street address in Lancaster, and if he is in the possession of

SOCIAL SERVICE URGED BY BISHOP

"Show your love in the service of humanity by going to see the prisoners and visiting the sick," urged Bishop Robert Codman of Maine today at St. Paul's Cathedral. "You can't be a Christian without going to make others Christian," he said.

PLEA TO FREE KING TAKEN UP

Governor Foss took up the Cardeulo F. King pardon petition today and gave it long and serious consideration.

He may refer the petition to the pardon committee of the Executive Council tomorrow. The committee meets at 11 o'clock, two hours before the time for the regular council meeting.

Incidentally, this will be the first meeting of the pardon committee with Lieutenant Governor David I. Walsh presiding.

King is in the State Hospital at Bridgewater, suffering from a severe case of rupture.

He is serving a fourteen-year sentence for larceny and embezzlement and had worked out about two years of that when removed to Bridgewater for hospital treatment.

Petition Filed Year Ago.

The pardon petition from King was filed nearly one year ago, but has remained in a pigeonhole in the office of Executive Clerk Hamlin. With it have been placed accumulating petitions from persons who think King should be released.

Ninety-eight pardons were granted last year, but King's petition was not taken up.

Since the last inaugural the Governor's office has been fairly bombarded with additional petitions in behalf of King. Every day brings new ones. They outnumber the Davis petitions ten to one. They represent the strongest business and financial influences in Boston.

Old Customers Sign.

Many former customers of the imprisoned stock seller and promoter are among the signers.

From the first, Mrs. King has worked incessantly for the release of her husband. The two sons have added their efforts to that of the mother, securing names to the petition.

Today the Governor had the original petition and all the additional petitions brought from the outer office and put on his desk. He plunged into a review of the case.

SAY RUSAW PICTURES ARE OF DAKOTA DA

Photographs which are said to be the bones of Dakota Dan, the claimant to the Russell will case, were identified today by Mrs. Mary Rusaw of Brashier, N. T., sister-in-law of James Delbert Rusaw, as being photographs of Rusaw. Several of the photos had writing on the backs, and Mrs. Rusaw stated that in her opinion the writing was that of Jim Rusaw.

MERCURY DROPS 30 DEGREES AT ROCHESTER.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 21.—A fall of thirty degrees in temperature is what Rochester has experienced in the last twelve hours. From fifty-four degrees yesterday afternoon the temperature dropped to 24 today.

HELD FOR JAMAICA PLAIN BREAK.

In the West Roxbury Court today Charles Papanti, 17, of No. 355 Massachusetts avenue, was held for the Grand Jury in $500, charged with breaking and entering the drug store of Truman Reid, No. 3010 Washington street, Jamaica Plain.

BUBONIC PLAGUE KILLS HUNDREDS AT ADRIANOPLE.

SOFIA, Jan. 21.—The bubonic plague has broken out in the garrison at Adrianople, and hundreds are dying. The plague has been raging for eight days.

NORDICA WALKS TWO MILES IN MUD TO SING

LOCKPORT, Jan. 21.—Mme. Nordica waded two miles through mud over Niagara county roads to fulfill her engagement to sing here. A train wreck on the New York Central at Gasport, east of here, stalled Mme. Nordica's special car,

JAIL FOR MAN WHO BROKE INTO JAIL

MANCHESTER Ct., Jan. 21.—
[illegible] today began a sentence of six months in jail after pleading guilty to breaking into the county jail here. Chief of Police [illegible] placed him under arrest after [illegible] nine miles.

6 FIREMEN HURT IN $50,000 FIRE IN WOONSOCKET

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Jan. 21.—Fire which started at 5 a. m. in Lynch's Theatre, a moving picture house, overcame and injured Chief Augustin J. Cote and five firemen and did $50,000 damage to the Exchange Building and its contents in Main street.

The firemen had a hard struggle to prevent the flames from spreading through the business section. The Exchange building is in the business part of Main street, Lynch's Theatre is on the first floor. It is a house seating about 1,000. The fire spread rapidly from this place to Eureka Hall, leased by Woonsocket Lodge of Odd Fellows, and to Falk Brothers' clothing store.

General Alarm Sounded.

A general alarm had the entire Woonsocket department in service. Captain Camille Turcotte and Hoseman Frederick Whitcomb and Moses Labrie were overcome. They were dragged to safety and Dr. Walter C. Rocheleau, the fire department surgeon, attended them.

Chief Cote, Captain Peter Porter and Hoseman Moses Perras were severely cut by glass shield bombarded them when an explosion occurred inside the building. They also had to receive surgical attention.

National Bank in Building.

Besides the establishments mentioned, the building was also occupied by the National Union Bank, the Brunswick bowling alley and a station of the Woonsocket Electric Machine and Power Company. These sustained water damage.

The building was owned by the Woonsocket Realty Company, of which Mayor R. P. Daigneault is a member. It was damaged to the extent of $32,000 while there was a loss of $18000 on contents.

CUT IN FRESH EGGS AT PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 21.—The Housekeepers' League of this city, which recently brought about a reduction in the price of storage eggs, began another crusade to reduce the high cost of living when it placed on sale today "strictly fresh eggs" for twenty-seven cents a dozen. The eggs are being sold from stations scattered through out the city.

ECZEMA CURED IN 10 TO 30 DAYS
The Paris Medicine Co., 2324 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., manufacturers of Laxative Bromo Quinine, have a new and wonderful discovery, GROVER'S SANARE CUTS, which they guarantee to cure any case of ECZEMA, no matter of how long standing, in 10 to 30 days, and will refund money if it fails. GROVER'S SANARE CUTS is perfectly clean and does not stain. Get your druggist here's it, send us 50c. in postage stamps and it will be sent by mail.

General Jones Tells Suffragist "Hikers" to Wear Big Shoes

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—General Rosalie Gardner Jones, commander-in-chief of the Suffragette pilgrim, has issued the programme of the "Hike to Washington," which is at present disturbing the rest of her mother, Mrs. Oliver Livingston Jones. General Rosalie, with the assistance of Colonel Ida Craft, received several applicants at the headquarters of the Woman Suffrage party, furnished the list of essentials for the twenty-one-day trip and made it clear it was entirely a Dutch treat.

The essentials are included in the following statement given out by General Rosalie:

Large shoes with rubber heels (soft leather shoes, not too heavy, are the most comfortable).
Woolen stockings.
Absorbent cotton.
Adhesive plaster.
Roll of gauze.
Tube of vaseline.

Further information about dress will be given if required.

Costume for Pilgrims consisting of Pilgrim cloak, hood, knapsack and staff can be had completely for $2.

The success of the Pilgrimage depends upon each other, and the co-operation of Suffragists from as many States as possible is desired, as this is a national affair.

By order of
GENERAL ROSALIE GARDNER JONES,
Commander-in-Chief.
Colonel Ida A. Craft, Scribe for the Pilgrims.

MAYOR DROPS HIS PLAN FOR CITY MARKET

A municipal market in each Boston district to lower the high cost of living is the vote of the Boston Stewards Association passed at a recent meeting and forwarded to Mayor Fitzgerald today.

The Mayor said that there was practically no hope of the city establishing such markets, and that as Boston was so closely interwoven with the Metropolitan district, actions y the Legislature would seem to be necessary. Municipal markets, however, would do nfought to the last ditch by the market gardeners. Last Summer and Spring when the Mayor offered the use of certain public squares in Boston to market men for the sale of their products, the offer was declined he says, on the ground that they did not want to antagonize the middlemen.

The argument was made that because middlemen were so necessary in all lines of business it would be unfair to them to advance a movement of this kind," the Mayor said.

GRAND RAPIDS TO OPEN COAL YARD

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Jan. 21.—A plan to reduce the high cost of living and combat local coal dealers has been started by the Common Council with a decision to establish a municipal coal yard.

They Cure Colds in One Day.
Red Cross ✠ Cough Drops. 5c per box.

AROOSTOOK R. R. STRIKE COSTS $50,000 A DAY

BANGOR, Me., Jan. 21.—Maine Central engineers are worried by the carlessness of strikebreaking engineers on the Bangor & Aroostook road, where the two lines cross each other at three different points, and have protested to the Maine Central officers, according to a statement today by P. J. McNamara, assistant vice-president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginers.

The engineers of the Maine Central, according to Mr. McNamara, have found the non-union engineers now sitting in Bangor & Aroostook cabs heedless of the crossing rules, signals and other precautions observed for mutual protection at these junction points.

The engineers of the Maine Central practically demand that the Maine Central directorate take official notice, Mr. Namara says, of the risk of collision at the three crossings.

Strikers Are Firm.

Mr. McNamara's statement was:

The strikers are standing as firmly now as at the beginning of the strike, with unbroken ranks and with ample support of the National Brotherhood treasury. We have prepared to continue the strike indefinitely.

The strike-breakers imported by the railroad company are, many of them, incompetent men who have been discharged for cause from other roads. They're unfamiliar with the locations here and are a poor substitute for the regular men.

We have heard many complaints from Maine Central engineers that strike-breaking engineers on the Bangor & Aroostook disregard signals at crossings of the two roads, and that constitutes a danger to the Maine Central trains.

These complaints have been forwarded to the Maine Central office in Portland, where they are now being considered.

The striking engineers say that a railroad company which cannot afford a small increase of pay to its engineers ought not to pay its president $25,000 a year.

Governor William T. Haines today instructed the State Board of Arbitration and Conciliation to conduct an investigation in an effort to bring about a settlement between the railroad and its striking firemen and engineers.

Full Roster Next Week.

Twenty-five more strike-breaking engineers arrived today and were immediately hurried to the railroad shops at Mile Junction. There they are to be joined by Superintendent of Motive Power Hugh Montgomery, to show whether they can handle an engine.

The Bangor & Aroostook offices declared this new lot of strike-breakers brought its engineering force now up to seventy-five per cent. of the regular force and that it will have a full roster by next week.

The company says it will start freight trains by Saturday. Passenger trains were operated with an armed guard in each cab.

Three strikers have been arrested in Houlton on charges of trespassing on railroad property while trying to induce strike-breakers to quit.

Costs $52,000 a Day.

The strike is costing $52,000 a day so far, with the average daily loss increasing for every day that freight remains unmoved. The daily loss so far is figured thus:

Aroostook farmers' loss in potato receipts	$30,000
Lumbermen's receipts	5,000
Aroostook county tradesmen	2,500
Railroad freight receipts	5,000
Bangor wholesale merchants	5,000
Strikers' wages	500
Mrs. Ills in Aroostook county	2,500
Seaport terminal stevedores idle	1,000
Railroad, for deputies, detectives, etc.	500
	$52,000

If the strike lasts a month, without freight being moved, the total loss to railroad, employes, farmers, merchants and men in other lines of work will be over $2,000,000, according to men familiar with commercial conditions in Aroostook county. The probable loss in a month of railroad strike and non-freighting is as follows:

Potato crop	$1,000,000
Lumbermen's receipts	150,000
Great Northern Paper employes	75,000
Strikers' wages	15,000
Other railroad employes (idle)	60,000
Stevedores	30,000
Lumber mill employes	25,000
Aroostook Company, retail merchants	25,000
Wholesale merchants (Bangor, etc.)	150,000
Railroad loss in freight	70,000
Millinocket merchants	60,000
Bangor, Portland and other interests	200,000
Total cost of month strike	$2,030,000

ASKS CURLEY TO KEEP STATION OPEN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Congressman Curley has received from Captain James J. Farrell of the City Point Life-Saving Station a letter asking that the period of service of the station be extended from six to eight months. At present the station is in operation from May to October, inclusive. Captain Farrell wants it to open in March because there are a number of pleasure yachts wintered there that need protection in March and April. Mr. Curley will take the matter up with the Treasury Department.

MAKE POLAR BEAR BOWDOIN'S MASCOT

BRUNSWICK, Me., Jan. 21.—Bowdoin College has adopted the Polar bear as its official mascot in honor of Peary and Hubbard.

31 ST SEMI-WEEKLY SALE
Fancy Fowl . 18c
Short Chops. 15c
Sirloin Steak . . 20c
T. D. BAKER CO.
PROVISIONERS
721-723 Washington Sts.

ELIZABETH, FAIR ROUMANIAN WHO MAY WED PRINCE

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Princess Elizabeth of Roumania has been selected as the bride of the youthful Prince of Wales—according to the latest rumor in European court circles.

Princess Elizabeth was born September 29, 1894, and is a beautiful miss of between eighteen and nineteen, who only recently made her debut. She is the second child and eldest daughter of the Crown Prince and Princess of Roumania.

Her father, the Crown Prince Ferdinand, was created Prince of Roumania in 1889 on the renunciation of his rights to the throne by his brother, Prince Wilhelm, who had owed his position as heir to the renunciation of his rights, in turn, by his father, the King of Roumania's elder brother, Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern Sigmaringen.

MOUNT COLIMA AGAIN ERUPTS; LOSS A MILLION

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 21.—The volcano of Mount Colima, in the State of Jalisco, is again in violent eruption. Word received from Guadalajara today stated that the volcano began to erupt suddenly yesterday, killing hundreds of cattle and horses grazing at the foot of the mountain.

It is feared that inhabitants of Ciudad Guzman, two miles north of Mt. Colima, were killed. Relief trains sent to the scene were halted by masses of lava and boulders hurled upon the track.

Ashes are falling at Guadalajara, over 100 miles distant from the volcano. Sand and ashes cover the country in the immediate neighborhood of the volcano to a depth of three or four feet. Poisonous fumes accompany the eruption and the gases even can be smelled for many miles. The loss from the eruption thus far is estimated at $1,000,000.

BOYNTON AGAIN URGES NEW RAILWAY

E. Moody Boynton, the aged inventor of the famous bicycle railway, resumed his fight to secure State backing for his Boston, Fall River & Quincy Bicycle Railway before the legislative Committee on Railroads today. The bill, he argued today, provides for the purchase by the State of fifty-year 4 per cent. bonds in an amount necessary to secure the construction of the Boston, Quincy & Fall River Bicycle Railway.

The White Dental Parlors
521 Washington St.
(Opp. R. H. White)
$5.00 AND UPWARDS
DO YOU REALIZE IT IS SERIOUS TO NEGLECT YOUR TEETH for health and looks? Don't wait. Our business is to save them without pain at reasonable prices. Call and get a free consultation. Only experienced dentists. Every modern appliance to extract, fill and do our work painlessly. Painless extracting about it. A guarantee for over 20 years. With us you pay for your work only once. We guarantee and make good. We do everything in a day. Se done in dentistry. Telephone connections. Open 9 to 6; Sundays 10 to 4.
If request we will mail FREE our illustrated book. No home should be with out it.
Tel. Oxford 4485-W.

NOTICE
The White Dental Parlors have recently requested their office address Washington st. over R. H. Stanley Douglas, (R. H. White Co.)

MISS GOULD TO WED TOMORROW IN ROSE BOWER

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 21.—A florist from New York today put on the finishing touches at Lyndhurst, the country home of Miss Helen Miller Gould, who will be married there tomorrow afternoon to Finley J. Shepard of St. Louis. Smilax and American beauty roses were the keynote of the scheme. Interspersed among the huge banks of these plants, however, were rare and costly flora from the home conservatories, orchids, killarney roses, potted plants and evergreens.

A bower of palms has been built in the drawing room where the marriage ceremony will take place. Miss Gould and Mr. Shepard will stand beneath this bower when the ceremony is performed.

The ceiling of the drawing room has been festooned with sprays of asparagus, while the floor space and walls are hidden by clusters of smilax and American beauty roses.

The sun-parlor, dining room and library have been festooned with wild smilax intertwined with great clusters of white and red roses.

Many Handsome Wedding Gifts.

The wedding gifts have been placed in the art gallery on a long table. The gifts include a silver loving cup from the enlisted men and officers of the Atlantic reserve fleet, a loving cup from the soldiers of Fort Monroe, a loving cup from the enlisted men of the Twenty-ninth Infantry, Governor's Island, N. Y., a silver centre piece from the employes of Lyndhurst estate, a gold loving cup from the enlisted men of the navy and marine corps, and a silver case from the enlisted men of Fort Banks, Boston Harbor.

Miss Gould's wedding gown will be of ivory white satin. The veil she will use was brought from Paris by her sister, the Duchess de Talleyrand.

Rehearse Ceremony Today.

This was a busy day for the prospective bride and groom. It included an automobile trip from New York, rehearsal of the marriage ceremony and the securing of a license at Greenburg. The rehearsal took place on the arrival of the principals from New York. The Rev. Daniel Russell, pastor of Irvington Presbyterian Church, who will officiate tomorrow, presided. Miss Gould is to have two attendants. They are her nieces, the Misses Helen and Dorothy Gould.

A dinner party will be given at Lyndhurst this evening for all the houseguests.

It is understood that Mr. Shepard will remain at Lyndhurst along with the other guests over night in order to be relieved of the necessity of making the trip from New York tomorrow.

Detectives Guard Gifts.

All of the wedding gifts will be on display tomorrow, protected by private detectives. In addition to those already mentioned, they will include a rope of pearls from Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould; a set of tapestries from Edwin Gould, a rare art treasure recently discovered in Paris from Howard Gould, and a corsage ornament of diamonds and pearls from Frank Gould.

Not more than seventy-five guests will attend the wedding, including nearly all the members of the Gould and Shepard families with the exception of Mr. Shepard's mother, who is a paralytic.

$125,000 FIRE IN NEW LONDON, O.

NEW LONDON, O., Jan. 21.—Fire which threatened for a time to wipe out the town of New London today burned two business blocks and partially destroyed two others, with a loss estimated at $125,000.

BOSTON Daily AMERICAN
$40,000 CONTEST
GOOD FOR 5 VOTES
VALUELESS AFTER TUESDAY, FEB. 4.
Name
Street and No.
City or Town Dist.
Send votes in one bundle. Keep 5-vote coupons separate from 25-vote coupons. Write plainly on outside wrapper candidate's name, address and district number, and total number of votes said to be contained in package. Write or stamp only 2 or 4 coupons in each bundle. If possible, candidates should use rubber stamp with name, address and district number.

AMUNDSEN IN TOWN; ORDERS BOSTON BEANS

Captain Roald Amundsen, who discovered the South Pole, came to Boston for the first time in his life today, was met at the South station by several hundred enthusiastic sons and daughters of his country and proceeded to the Essex Hotel, where he paid a tribute to Boston by ordering a large portion of Boston baked pea beans. He also ate other things, bringing with him an appetite that seemed to have been permanently sharpened by the Antarctic atmosphere.

Among the throng that greeted the explorer were Rev. Christian A. Moldstad, pastor of the Norwegian Church at No. 28 Hartlett street, and the Rev. Joseph Johnson of the Norwegian Church in East Boston, the former having charge of Mr. Amundsen's lecture in this city.

Governor Foss received the explorer at the State House, and Mayor Fitzgerald extended to him the welcome of the city in a brief greeting at City Hall.

"The English-speaking races now have possession of both ends of the earth," said Governor Foss in greeting the noted traveler. "You placed the flag of Great Britain at the South Pole, and Peary planted the Stars and Stripes at the North Pole. I wonder how long it will be before the English-speaking races hold sway over all the territory lying between these two extremes?"

Captain Amundsen, in reply, casually reminded the Governor that the sun never sets on the British flag, and was gently informed in return that this also was true of the Stars and Stripes, under present-day conditions.

Following his official welcome by the Governor and the Mayor, Captain Amundsen was entertained at the City Club, where 400 men ate cook Harvard lunch, con with him, and later shook his hand. After luncheon he was driven out to the Harvard Union, where the Harvard Crimson Club entertained him for the remainder of the afternoon.

SULLIVAN URGES HIS DAMAGE BILL

W. H. Sullivan f olbston urged his "damage" bill before the legislative Committee on Judiciary today, saying it is offered in the interest of the poor plaintiff who now has to wait two or three years for a new rial of his action in case a verdict directed by the trial court is overruled by the Supreme Court. The Boston Bar Association is opposed to the bill. The bill, among other things, provides that when a verdict is directed fr thee defendant the action shall be submitted to the jury for assessment of damages.

NEW OFFER AS CONTEST NEARS ITS CONCLUSION

On the last lap!

Candidates in the AMERICAN'S $40,000 contest are now in the final subscription getting grind of the big race.

With such tremendously valuable prizes as $10,000, five $1,000 prizes, five $600 prizes, and so on down the long list of fifteen hundred and one awards, it needs nothing on the part of the Contest Editor to make candidates realize the absolute vital necessity of piling in the subscriptions.

The weekly vote list is stirring candidates up. They realize that in order to maintain their position from week to week it is fatal to hold back subscriptions or delay in getting them.

Next Sunday a new vote list will be printed. The winner of the automobile prize will also be announced at that time.

The Contest Editor announces today a new Special Offer.

Here it is:

A special vote bonus will be given on each subscription turned in between Thursday, January 16, and Saturday, February 1 at 10 p. m., as follows:

Sub. term	Regular value.	Bonus vote.	Total.
6 months	1,500 votes	1,500	3,000
12 months	3,000 votes	3,000	6,000
20 months	5,000 votes	5,500	11,000

Contestants will notice that this increased vote value is less than the preceding ones.

It is, therefore, advisable to make the most of this extra credit before this offer expires.

Rush in your subscriptions, candidates. You are nearing the $40,000 goal.

This Quickly Cleanses Both Hair and Scalp

"A harmless and entirely satisfactory shampoo can be enjoyed at little expense," says Mrs. Mae Martyn in the Los Angeles Bee. "If you get an original package of canthrox from your druggist and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This is enough mixture for a thorough cleansing of both hair and scalp.

"The canthrox mixture makes a wealth of rich, white lather that dissolves every atom of dust, dirt, druff and excess oil. Rinsing leaves the hair and scalp immaculately clean, and after a canthrox shampoo the hair dries quickly and evenly, taking on such a rich gloss and softness, so that doing it up is a genuine pleasure. Occasional shampooing with canthrox keeps the scalp clean and pliant and induces a heavy growth of beautiful, lustrous hair."
—Advertisement.

Filene's Automatic Bargain Basement
Is It Possible to Get an $18.50 Dress for $7.50?
—Those who do not know the Automatic system will probably say "No."
—Those who know our automatic plan will probably say "YES."
BUT the way for YOU to answer the question is to see them and compare them yourself with $18.50 dresses. Then you will see how we MUST MAKE FIRST PRICES LOW to avoid losses through automatic price reductions.
Here is the lot referred to and ready Wednesday at 8:30 A. M.
40 Party Dresses
Will Probably Sell Before 11 A. M.
WORTH $18.50,
$7.50
Chiffon over messaline, lace yoke and embroidery trimming on waist, cuffs and overskirt. Rosebuds and messaline sash. Pink, lavender, blue and corn yellow. Sizes for misses and women.
$7.50
Girls' Wash Dresses
Galates and heavy cotton check materials. Several styles, sizes 6 to 14. $1 grade, 50c
50c
HUNDREDS OF OTHER BARGAIN LOTS FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

The Parisian
16-18 WINTER ST
WE MUST VACATE
OUR LEASE EXPIRES IN A FEW WEEKS
Thousands of people have visited our store during the last three weeks in response to our announcements, though there were other big sales advertised and the general impression was that our prices are much lower than those quoted by other stores.
They simply MUST be lower, for we MUST vacate in a few weeks and MUST dispose of the entire stock of ladies' and misses'
SUITS, COATS, DRESSES AND WAISTS
NO MATTER HOW HEAVY THE LOSSES MAY BE.
The prices below are merely examples of the general reductions in all departments.
SUITS
$39.50 Suits Reduced to $22.50 | $27.50 Suits Reduced to $12.50
$35.00 Suits Reduced to $18.50 | $18.50 Suits Reduced to $8.50
COATS
$29.50 Coats Reduced to $18.50 | $19.50 Coats Reduced to $12.50
$27.50 Coats Reduced to $16.50 | $18.50 Coats Reduced to $10.00
$24.50 Coats Reduced to $15.00 | $15.00 Coats Reduced to $8.50
$12.50 Coats Reduced to $5.00
$7.50 Dresses Reduced to $3.95 | $1.00 Waists Reduced to 39c
16-18 WINTER STREET

SHAW BOY WINS JUDGE GRANT IN FAMILY DISPUTE

A bright little eleven-year-old boy—son of William E. Shaw, a deaf mute inventor of Lynn—convinced Judge Robert Grant, in a private conversation in Suffolk Probate Court today, that he ought to be allowed to remain with his grandparents, notwithstanding the father pleaded for the return of the child to him under an agreement by the grandparents to give him the boy whenever he applied for him.

After his little heart to heart talk with the boy, Judge Grant, who had just previously said that, having given the father custody of the child six years ago, and seeing no reason to change the ruling then made, ordered that there be a hearing February 24 as to the father's fitness to bring up the youngster.

Deaf Mutes Agitated.

The courtroom was crowded with deaf mutes during the proceedings and they had a very agitated, though silent, discussion of the case. The story communicated to them by the interpreter was that Shaw, who had obtained sole custody of the lad in the same court on April 1, 1907, had turned the lad over to his grandparents, James C. and Lucy P. Church of No. 204 Hemenway street, on April 30, 1912. They made a written agreement with him to return the boy whenever he should apply for him in writing.

Church, the grandfather, said that he had not refused to give up the boy, but when Shaw made his application to the court, Church petitioned for the removal of the father as guardian. He declared that the boy did not want to return to his father and the grandfather said that the surroundings which he would have were not what they should be.

"I can do nothing," said the court. "I have the father custody of the boy, and there is nothing here upon which I can change that ruling."

Word from Grandmother.

"He's a nervous little boy and subject to tantrums," said the grandmother, a sweet-faced elderly woman, edging up to the bench. "He has been locked in a room alone at his father's house and there have been threats to kill him. Your honor, I beg of you to talk with the child so you can hear what he has to say himself."

Judge Grant hesitated, then took the little boy by the hand and led him to his private office. Attorney A. H. Shrigley, for the father, asked permission to be present at the talk, but the court refused.

After an absence of fifteen minutes, the judge turned the boy over to the grandparents, pending the hearing.

WOMAN TELLS OF HARVARD'S PSYCHIC FUND

The story of how the $10,000 endowment for psychical research at Harvard was made possible was told for the first time today by Mrs. David P. Kimball, seventy-five, of No. 48 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, who, with her sister, Mrs. Bertram Webb of Paris, was one of the most active in raising the funds. The endowment is the first of its kind in any American college or university.

Mrs. Kimball's Story.

Mrs. Kimball said:

I remember, a lady came to my house some time ago, sent by my sister, who lives in Paris, and takes great interest in the movement. This woman told me that they needed $10,000 to make the department at the college possible.

I told her to get all the subscriptions she could; and when she could not get any more, to come to me and I would fill in the difference between what she collected and the ten thousand.

It is too solemn, too sacred, too grand a thing to talk about. It is so beautiful. The world is full of spiritual manifestation; the people do not seem to understand. There is an eternal life; all the world is the house of God, here on earth as well as above. I became interested in Spiritualism forty-five years ago.

I not only believe in it, but I am certain of it. It is a sacred movement, and a beautiful one.

Why did I contribute the money? Way, that is all worth living on earth for—what we can do for others, the joys and pleasures of giving; and what a great comfort it is that we are getting to the ideal realization of a movement toward the understanding of the relationships between ourselves here and our departed friends.

Interested in It 45 Years.

I only hope they will find a good man to be able to teach the thought, some such man as Dr. Hodgson was, who would make it the work and study of his life, to the end of propagating the science. I have been interested in spiritualism for more than forty-five years; I never studied the thing, never went to any seances, but I could not begin to tell you how much pleasure and how much comfort I receive from it all the time.

We are more soul than body. I am far more serious though, although I do not object to the more frivolous thoughts about jewelry, balls and parties. I am interested in anything that teaches to prepare for life hereafter, but I would not like to be taken for an antiquated, imaginative idealist.

I do not remember how much I contributed; it must have been about a year ago, but what I gave was enough to make up the $10,000 required.

MRS. HUDSON, IN TEARS, ADMITS SON WAS TWICE ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT

PARENTS OF HUDSON GIRL CLASH OVER DAUGHTER

Mrs. Maria Hudson, mother of Raymond J. Hudson, admitted between sobs in Judge Dehuque's divorce court today that her son, who is fighting a bitter battle for the custody of his ten-year-old daughter, was twice arrested for assault in Providence. On one occasion he served ten days in jail and on another paid a $10 fine.

Mrs. Hudson, who is a motherly-looking old lady, wept as she told the story of her son's career. He enlisted in Troop B, Fifth United States Cavalry, under an assumed name and was at two posts, one in Missouri and the other in Arizona, preparatory to going to the Philippines, before the mother and his grandparent, Mrs. Lucy Miner, who also seeks custody of the child, got him out of the army. They induced the late "Boss" Brayton of Rhode Island to intercede with Senator Nelson A. Aldrich for him.

Did the Housework.

In his fight to regain possession of ten year-old Lucy Hudson—a three-cornered family contest that has been fought in three other courts in three States—the father of the little girl, today declared before Judge Dubuque that he had been compelled to do the most of the housework when he lived with his first wife, the mother of the girl.

He said this on cross-examination and the courtroom crowd grinned as he told the details.

"What did you do that she did not do about the house?" was asked.

"Well," he replied, "she never hung out the clothes, she never shook the rugs, she never built the fire in the morning, she never went for rolls and milk, she never washed the dishes, she never took care of the baby, she never washed the floors or never dusted the furniture."

Just Chastised Baby.

"Did you do those things?"

"Yes."

"Did you ever spank the baby?"

"I never spanked her; I slapped her once when we were in Rutland, Vt."

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Hudson.

"Did your wife chastise the baby?"

"Yes, on December 3, 1904, she slapped the baby's legs so hard that water blisters were raised. She also hit the baby's arm."

METHODS OF GIRL FORGER ARE REVEALED

A story of a mysterious $4,000 bank account which Mrs. Abbie L. Moulton, the convicted young woman forger, declared she had, was investigated today by the police in tracing the strange doings of the girl from Maine who fooled the wise young men of a big city right and left.

While the police did not take much stock in the story, they thought it possible that the young woman might have accumulated some money if her operations with checks were extensive at all.

Mrs. Moulton told of the bank account in a conversation with a young drug clerk whom she knew. She told this clerk that a man who had just called her by 'phone had demanded $400 of her, threatening to expose her as a bigamist unless she gave him the money. The drug clerk talked to this man, whom he had never seen, and told him to go ahead with his exposure that he would get no money.

Transferred "Account."

"Let him do anything he pleases," said the clerk. "He can't damage you."

"Perhaps," she replied. "But, just the same, I think I'll put my bank account where he can't get it. I have $4,000 with the Beacon Trust Company. He knows about that. I'll take it right over to the State Street Trust Company."

While there may have been a bank account, the police were inclined to believe that the story was told as an entree to the drug clerk's confidence.

At the Beacon Trust Company on Milk street, it was learned this noon that Mrs. Moulton never had an account there either under her maiden or marriage names. An official of the Beacon Trust Company said:

Forger Was "Fibbing."

If Mrs. Moulton says she ever had $4,000 deposited here, she must be either fibbing or dreaming. This report appears to fully with other assertions attributed to her. She never had an account of any sort here, but Terry did.

All Terry had, however, was a balance of something like $12 at the time these questionable checks began to arrive. Terry appears to be an industrious young fellow. He is employed as draughtsman at the Walworth Manufacturing Company, at City Point, South Boston, and lives at No. 708 Dudley street, Roxbury.

He told the police simply a friend of the young woman; that they came from the same town and that he had tried to help her when she began to impose upon him.

I advised him to draw out his balance and end his account, which he did. We returned the checks to him. By the way, the signature on the alleged spurious checks were very clever imitations of his signature. The checks presented three in number, aggregated about $85. One was presented over our counter.

Friends from Maine tried hard today to raise $500 bail to release Mrs. Moulton, whose revelations have marked her as a genius in the art of raising money on spurious checks.

More was told today of the methods by which she secured checks, forged signatures and then cashed them, or tried to. They show ingenuity, cunning and daring.

NEW HAVEN ASKS THAT MEN HAVE HAPPY HOMES

Husbands be happy, or at least amicable with your wives. That is, if you cannot be happy with them be as happy as you can.

Wives be gentle and kind to your husbands. Do not quarrel with them. Spend economically, wisely, the money they earn and give to you.

Bachelors, get married and marry women of placid disposition and frugal habits.

Such, in effect, are the unwritten orders just issued by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad of which Charles S. Mellen is president. It is whispered among the railroad employes that the orders followed an accident caused by the carelessness of an engineer who had a terrible row with his wife just before he took out his train.

The road's officials are strongly of the opinion that an engineer who has just banged his front door behind him, angrily asking himself "Why did I ever marry her?" is not in a proper frame of mind to drive a train carrying hundreds of passengers or tens of thousands of dollars worth of goods.

The man whom the officials want as an engineer is he who keeps hanging from every gasophore the embroidered legend. "There is no place like home."

Green Lights and Dovecots.

The road managers, including Mr. Mellen, probably are certain that an operator in a signal tower who has had presented to him a butcher's bill for $30 which he thought was paid is just as apt to show a green light as a red one. The managers want for a man in a signal tower one whose good wife has said to him that very morning: "Dearie, I have done very well this month—I have saved $4 of the money you gave me to keep and have every single bill paid."

It is quite certain that the railroad's agents are inquiring into the home life of its employes. Some of the employes resent this inquiry—call it spying and say: "So long as I do my duty by the company it is none of the company's business if my wife throws a plate at my head."

But the more thoughtful employes understand that the new unwritten laws will tend to make their lives more joyous and to prevent accidents on the road. Of course the company cannot control employes' wives, but it can reach them.

The gloomy, sour-pickled husband of a wasteful shrew will not be promoted in the company's service. Over his head will rise also whose wife is his true helpmate, a real life partner, the man who therefore is content, clear-headed and healthy.

Bachelors Ignored.

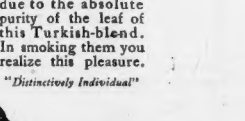
As for the bachelors, plainly the officials of the New Haven have no sympathy with bachelors. They seem to regard bachelors as solitary beings who, having only themselves to think about, do not care whether the company's work is properly done or not.

"For if the bachelors have only themselves to worry about, why should they worry about losing their positions?" ask the road's managers.

STRIKE CRIPPLES HAVANA'S DOCKS

HAVANA, Jan. 21.—Business here was seriously crippled today by a general strike of freight hands by dock workers. Several hundred freight handlers and stevedores went out. The strikers threatened to begin rioting and armed police were kept on guard in the shipping district.

Twenty pleasant remembrances!



The great popularity of Fatima Cigarettes is due to the absolute purity of the leaf of this Turkish-blend. In smoking them you realize this pleasure.

"Distinctively Individual"

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

20 for 15¢

Resinol clears bad complexions

THE regular use of Resinol Soap, with an occasional light application of Resinol Ointment, stimulates the skin, permits natural, healthy action, and rids the complexion of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness, quickly, easily and at little cost. Read this convincing letter from a trained nurse—she knows what Resinol can do.

New York, October 17, 1912.

"I was troubled with acne (or pimples) for three years. My face was broken out with pimples, and would at times get like raw meat. I tried all sorts of salves and soaps. I received samples of Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, and they helped me very much. After using them I bought the regular size of each, and my face is now perfectly clear and smooth. My friends are asking me what I used, and I shall be glad to recommend Resinol."

(Signed) E. Virginia Peterson, Trained Nurse,
507 West One Hundred and Seventieth Street.

Trial free

For over 17 years Resinol Ointment (50c and $1) and Resinol Soap (25c) have been a favorite doctor's prescription and household remedy for eczemas, rashes, pimples, sores, burns, chappings and chafings, as well as for piles. They stop itching instantly. Sold by every druggist. For free samples write to dept. 20-S, Resinol Chem. Co., Baltimore, Md. Resinol Shaving Stick, (25c) cannot irritate the tenderest face.

Our Great 62nd BIRTHDAY SALE Continues All Day

WEDNESDAY

1357 Bargain Lots Are Offered

At Prices That Will Never Be Equaled Even by Ourselves Except During One of These Birthday Sales

Wednesday's values will equal in every way those of the opening day, as any lots sold will be replaced by others equally as good from regular stock

We ask the indulgence of our patrons regarding deliveries at this time, as there will undoubtedly be some unavoidable delays, and request them to take small parcels whenever possible.

Jordan Marsh Company

At Gilchrist's

Always big savings — but never more remarkable economies than in this sale of 7800 Pairs of

Stockings

Averaging Less Than

Half Price

Stock taking was over—the manufacturer knew where he stood—and being a broad-minded merchant, did not allow a matter of a few hundred pairs to stand in the way of clearing the decks. We snapped up the entire stock at the lowest prices yet.

Women's 39c to $1.50 Stockings 25c

4800 pairs in the lot—imported and domestic stockings — and worth from 39c to $1.50. Only one number of 39c black cashmeres, the rest run from 50c to $1.50. Both Winter and Summer weights.

There are stockings for evening wear—fine gauge imported cottons—fine gauge weight silk lisles in black, tan and white—plain black cashmeres—plain imported lisles in evening shades and silk mixed cashmere—black and white shepherd checks, Scotch plaids—imported black cotweb lisles with black silk clocks—black imported lace and hand silk embroidered—and many more styles.

All sizes in the lot—more size of 9. At 25c

Women's $1 to $1.50 Silk Stockings at .. 69c

Slightly irregular in weave—not quite up to the standard of this manufacturer. Plain black, tan, white and evening shades, all sizes from 8½ to 10. At 69¢

Men's 15c Black Cotton Socks for .. 10c

Medium weight, extra fine quality, spliced heels and toes, all sizes 9½ to 11½. At.....10¢

Men's 25c and 35c Black Socks for 15c

The imported Kind. Extra fine thin gauge weight; also a medium weight with black cro foot, sizes 9½ to 11. At....15.

3000 Pairs Children's 25c "Veribest" Stockings at 12½c

For Girls—Fine ribbed, double knees, and strengthened heels and toes.

For Boys—Heavy wide ribbed, with extra reinforced feet.

All sizes, 5½ to 10. Don't wait if you want a good choice. Usual price cut ½ and the entire stock is sure to go quickly at ..12½¢

The Robert Burns Celebration

by THE CALEDONIAN CLUB takes place Friday evening, January 24th, at the Grand Hall, Mechanics Building. Tickets for sale at our information booth—first floor. Adults 75c and children 25c.

Legal Stamps—An Added Economy.

GILCHRIST CO

Washington and Winter Sts.

CASSIDY EXPLAINS HOW HE EXPOSED CRIMINALS WHO PUT POISON IN FOOD

Harry P. Cassidy, the AMERICAN'S pure food expert, last night addressed, by invitation, a meeting of the International Stewards' Association, at the Boston City Club. Mr. Cassidy was elected an honorary member of the association at the national convention in Niagara Falls, August 20, 1906. He said in part:

Mr. Chairman and Members of this Association—I am not altogether a stranger to you, even though you may be to most of the gentlemen here.

August 20, 1906, I was elected an honorary member of your national association at the annual convention held that year in Niagara Falls. I have attended many meetings of the Philadelphia body, and I believe your association was the first organization to fight for pure food.

Dr. Leppo, surgeon general of your association, said in the Niagara Falls convention:

"Let this association call the government of the United States in stopping the slaughter of the innocents, by lifting high a strong arm, and wield its mighty influence in upholding the Pure Food Law, and in this way benefit people to demand pure and clean food."

That, I think expresses the spirit of your organization, as perfectly as I had occasion to watch your work, and your pledges have been fulfilled. You have made efforts to have laws governing the labelling of packages as to weight passed by the various Legislatures. Your association has backed Dr. Wiley in his fight against the doped food interests. I feel at home among you. The fight that I carried on for nine years in Pennsylvania is your fight.

Rotten Eggs in Cakes.

The experiences I am going to relate will doubtless appear to you decidedly amusing and revolting, but every one of them is the story of an actual prosecution or conviction in Philadelphia. Pleas have been paid and pleas of guilty entered. These anecdotes are true in every respect.

I have with me this evening a number of samples of impure food products. I have a pound cake here made with rotten eggs and rancid butter. This particular cake was made by members of one of the women's organizations in Philadelphia, to demonstrate fully what it was possible to make a cake with rotten eggs. (Mr. Cassidy showed the sample of which he spoke and also exhibited other samples mentioned.)

This sample cake removed all suspicion of the truthfulness of my charge that pound cake could be made from rotten eggs and stale.

I have some candy here that was manufactured by a man in Philadelphia—he later paid a fine. I caught him putting paraffin into the candy. I saw him do it. Here's the finished product, and here's some of the paraffin from his stock.

Here are "chocolates," whose only claim to the name is in their artificial color. The base of this candy is a starchy product, a by-product of the packing house. It is sold to children throughout the country.

Fought Candy Frauds.

I fought a long fight with the National Confectioners' Association of the United States. I arrested Pennsylvania jobbers for selling candy made by members of the association. Twelve members of the association went into the United States Circuit Court and petitioned the court for an injunction to restrain me from making the arrests, basing their claim on the fact that I was a big New England manufacturer. They lost the fight to make the injunction permanent.

I then began a case against the jobbers through the State courts, and the candy men lost out in all the courts of the State. They made a final appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, and lost out there. This final court refused to entertain the petition.

This fight lasted two years, and ended only a few months ago. The candy men were selling to children throughout the United States candy made of glue, bleached with sulphites.

One of the best jobbing houses your straw hat in Summer.

Other candy manufacturers paid a fine for using shellac on their candies. A more villainous set of scoundrels never lived. Yet, in their communities they pose as respectable gentlemen and churchgoers. That's a habit of the tribe.

I found fish packers engaged in putting up fish artificially colored. The reason for this cheat was the saving of fifteen pounds to the hundred in the smoking process, by which the competitors of these rascals could be undersold and driven out of business.

I went to the fish packing house, and when the manager asked what I wanted, I said:

"Let me see your art department?"

He was astonished. "What do you mean?" he gasped.

"Why, take me up to where you paint the fish," I insisted.

He assured me this was not done in their place. I gave publicity the next morning to my investigations, and in order to terminate the case without going through the courts, they paid six fines before a magistrate.

In the course of my food work, I have often been asked to outline my ideas on the food question, covering the whole field. This is a hard task—but here is a creed I have followed in my work, and it is a creed that, if adopted by our big manufacturers, would set a pace for the rest of the food concerns, and give us real pure food

Most Important Problem of Day.

I believe the people's food is the most important problem before the people today.

I believe upon the purity of our food depends the future of the race.

I believe that no person would knowingly eat doped, dirt-tainted, medicated and decomposed food such as is sold in Boston daily.

I believe the present food laws deal too easily with the manufacturer and do not sufficiently protect the people.

I believe the food doper is a criminal, and should be punished as such.

I believe that only a campaign of education is needed—a campaign by which the people will learn what they are eating—to force the manufacturers to drop the use of all drugs and medications.

I believe food counterfeiting is a more serious offence than money counterfeiting, and I believe the food counterfeiter should go to prison instead of paying a light fine.

I believe as in the future the food doper will be ranked lower in the social scale than incendiaries, robbers and poisoners.

I believe it is to the manufacturer's interest to sell pure food, and that he will shortly realize this.

I believe that if we "let in the light," the doped food article must run. They can't stand publicity, and that is what I propose to give them.

Dr. Charles Fleischer, another speaker, praised the AMERICAN and Mr. Cassidy for the work they were doing in the cause of pure food. He favored establishing open municipal markets and declared that many middlemen were parasitical.

Dr. Fleischer traced the history of corporation from its beginning in Rochdale, England, in 1844, and said that if it were a instance in this country it would do more than anything else to lessen the high price of the necessaries of life.

"REFINED FOODS" WILL STARVE BABIES, SAYS ALFRED W. M'CANN

"Many of the commonest foods sold in Boston, under fancy labels, will not support the life of rabbits, monkeys, mice, guinea pigs or chickens," said Alfred W. McCann of New York, at a meeting of the Boston School of Social Science, Tremont Temple, last night.

"The bread, biscuits, soda crackers and denatured breakfast foods and cereal products found in every pantry will produce anemia in three months when fed exclusively to animals," he said, "and the public schools of Boston can prove this assertion in a few months.

Let the little girls of ten or twelve years of age feed chickens in cages on one side of the yard or basement of the school, with the "refined" foods of our modern diet and watch them die. In cages on the other side let them feed the chickens with natural, unrefined foods, whole wheat, whole oatmeal, whole cornmeal, natural brown rice, etc., and the chickens will thrive.

The watchmaker would not think of constructing a timepiece without the necessary materials, but our unthinking Americans believe that mother Nature can build the sound, normal, perfectly developed body of a child with debased food from which most of the building materials have been artificially removed for the sake of idle æsthetic effects.

The man who feeds prize pups or else raises prize horses or prize poultry recognized the significance of the simple laws of nutrition and applies them because he has money invested in his live stock.

"Our food fathers and mothers, raising little human animals feed them with vitality and health and high resistance to disease, but for low resistance and extermination.

"There are 15,000,000 physically defective school children in the United States," declared the speaker. "But I am doubtful if there are that many defective sheep or hogs in the world.

"Child-raising and hog-raising are separate industries. Money apparently can do more than love, where ignorance of the laws of nature or indifference to those laws stands by.

"In the meantime our children are paying the price."

FEDERAL BUREAU OF MARKETS SOUGHT IN APPROPRIATION BILL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—As a result of the additional work in connection with the enforcement of the Pure Food and Forestry laws and the development of the department's educational operations, the annual Department of Agriculture Appropriation bill carries a total of $17,303,275, an increase of nearly a million dollars over last year.

Among sums provided are $200,000 for meat inspection, $75,000 for farm management educational work, and $30,000 to be used in determining the feasibility of establishing a Bureau of Markets. Petitions for a market bureau have come from all sections of the country.

TO INVESTIGATE LIQUOR IN CANDY

Following out the work of investigation carried on by Harry P. Cassidy of the Boston AMERICAN, the Boston Central Union of the W. C. T. U. has voted that a committee investigate the assertion that real liquor of very cheap quality is being put into candies and frozen puddings.

IS YOUR CHILD'S TONGUE COATED?

If Cross, Feverish, Bilious, Stomach Sour, Give "Syrup of Figs" to Clean Its Little Clogged-Up Bowels.

Mother! Don't scold your cross, peevish child! Look at the tongue. See if it is white, yellow and coated. If your child is listless, drooping, irritable, sleeping well, is restless, doesn't eat heartily or is cross, irritable, out of sorts with everybody, stomach sour, feverish, breath bad; has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, or is full of cold, it means the little one's stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are filled with poisons and foul, constipated waste matter and need a good, gentle cleansing at once.

Give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little, clogged bowels without pain, soreness, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being compounded entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful. Besides they dearly love its delicious taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only laxative, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious laxative genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

WHO EVER HEARD OF A FRESH EGG WAKING THE DEAD?

Perry Brigham, of Ulysses, Pa., believed to be dead, sat up in his coffin when a plate of ham and eggs were brought into the room and ate a big breakfast.)

Poor Mr. Meggs lay stark and stiff,
His family with tears did sniff;
High living cost had racked him sore,
He couldn't stand it any more.
For food was scarce and wages low.
And that is bad enough, you know;
Then while all stiff and stark he lay
They brought some eggs in on a tray
To feed the ever-weeping folk
On poached and fried and scrambled yolk;
But as they passed the solemn bier,
The corpse sat up and cocked an ear.
"I can't die yet!" cried Joyful Meggs,
"For here are truly fresh-laid eggs!"
He ate his fill, then, with a sigh,
And peaceful smile he then DID die!

WILSON WILL STAY GOVERNOR UNTIL MARCH 3

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 21.—In order to be in a position to fight for his reform measures in the New Jersey Legislature up to the last minute, Governor Wilson, the President-elect, will remain Governor of this State until March 3. He said today he was anxious for the interim between his change from Governor to President to be as brief as possible.

Jeffersonian simplicity will mark Mr. Wilson's trip from Princeton to Washington. He has rejected offers of private cars and will travel in a Pullman just as any other private citizen would do.

In a talk with the newspaper correspondents the President-elect said if Princeton residents desired to go to Washington and take part in the inaugural parade they would have to make their own arrangements. At Washington Mr. Wilson will be the guest of his cousin, John Wilson, at the Shoreham Hotel.

The Governor learned this afternoon for the first time that the members of the New Jersey Legislature are planning to accompany him to Washington. He expressed both surprise and pleasure at this honor.

Explains Corporation Acts

"I must remain at my desk here until the last moment, for there is much important business here to demand my attention," said the President-elect. "I want to give the State of New Jersey all the time I can."

Governor Wilson's attention was called to a clause in his corporation bills introduced last night giving some supervision over corporations to the public utilities commission of New Jersey. He was asked if this was not a feature of Colonel Roosevelt's Progressive platform to which he, (Wilson) objected during the campaign.

"This is quite different," said Mr. Wilson. "Our bills merely give the public utilities commission jurisdiction in the matters of mergers. Colonel Roosevelt plans was to place corporations under the control of a single commission."

For Reception at Capitol.

President-elect Wilson today declared that if arrangements are made for a popular reception at the Capitol building as a substitute for the inaugural ball, Mrs. Wilson and the Misses Wilson would attend. The Governor said the impression that the members of the family would not be present probably had arisen from a letter by Miss Norma Wilson to Miss Estelle Bolton Dietrich, chairman of the inauguration chairman.

"Perhaps I did not make it clear in my letter," said Miss Wilson today, "but meant simply that the ladies should not be expected to stand in line and shake hands."

The Governor said that while he himself did not fear the strain of the handshaking ordeal, he thought his family would be excused if they did not participate.

The Governor took occasion to deny published reports that he and Mrs. Wilson had favored the abandonment of the inaugural ball because of the possibility that the dancers might indulge in the "turkey trot" and similar dances. He said he had opposed the idea of an inaugural ball chiefly because of the indirect expense to the government.

"The reasons for my opposition," he said, "are set forth in my letter to Miss Estelle, recommending that the ball be eliminated. I am glad to have been instrumental through which that inaugural was abandoned."

Three-Year-Old Boy Dies After Drinking of Wine by Mistake

LEEDS, Jan. 21.—Ernest Greenwood, a three-year-old boy, tasted of a cup of gin and a pint of wine yesterday and died today. The child is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Greenwood, and was an unusually bright child.

Mrs. Greenwood was busy when the little boy tugged at her skirts and asked for his bottle of milk.

"It's in on the dresser," she said. "Get it yourself, Ernest."

On the dresser was a cup of gin and also a pint bottle of port wine. The child drank the gin, and followed it with the contents of the bottle of wine. Mrs. Greenwood heard a fall and cries, and rushed in to find the little boy on the floor in great pain. A doctor was summoned and the boy taken to the hospital. The alcohol acted as a poison on the child's stomach and he died within twenty-four hours.

OHIO CLUB REJECTS UNION PROPOSITION

A new phase of the Harvard Union controversy came today when J. F. Stanbaugh, president of the Ohio Club, declared flatly that the Ohio Club will turn down the union's plan that all territorial clubs shall join in making the union a common meeting place. Stanbaugh's objection is because the union demands that no new members of the territorial clubs shall be elected who are not first members of the union. The Ohio Club decided after a long meeting, that many would cannot afford union dues in addition.

MALTESE LAD WAKES UP ON BOSTON SHIP

Giovannian Canille, nineteen, of Malta, reached Boston today on the British ship Burmese Prince, as a continuation of his celebration of Christmas at home. He says he'll never observe the day in just the same way again.

Giovannian is the son of a wine dealer. He got into his father's cellar on Christmas and later found himself in the street singing giddy songs in imperfect speech and doing a solo turkey trot. His uncle, while coaling the Burmese Prince, caught sight of the exuberant young man and chucked him into a stateroom to have a good, long sleep.

He did. When he woke up he was sailing toward Boston on the blue Mediterranean. He made a tearful appeal to Captain McDougall to stop the ship, but it was of no avail. When the vessel reached Boston the boy was sternly told:

"You can't leave the ship—you must return."

"Fine—what you say?—business," he replied. "I want to go home—what you say? —right away quick!"

FRENCH PREMIER NAMES MEMBERS OF NEW CABINET

PARIS, Jan. 21.—Aristide Briand, who succeeded M. Poincare as premier, today completed the formation of his cabinet and submitted the following portfolio to President Fallieres for his approval: Premier and Minister of the Interior, Aristide Briande; Justice, Jean Berthon; Foreign Affaires, Charles C. A. Jonnart; War, Eugene Etienne; Marine, Pierre Baudin; Finance, Louis Klotz; Public Instruction, Jules Steeg; Public Works, Jean Dupuy; Agriculture, Jean Morel; Commerce, Bernard David; Colonies, Cloriel Guisthau; Labor, Rene Berthard.

"The Malicious Microbe"

Never discriminates between man, woman or child, old or young, rich or poor.

Ever ready to attack, it is a deadly menace to health, and even life itself.

The most dangerous of microbes which enter the system through the mouth can be rendered practically harmless by the constant use of "ODOL" as a mouthwash.

Pleasant to the taste and delightfully refreshing. "ODOL" will also harden the gums and keep the teeth in a healthy condition.

There is nothing "Just as Good" as "ODOL"

Price 50 Cents

At all Druggists' and Department Stores

GEO. BORGFELDT & CO.
NEW YORK CHICAGO SAN FRANCISCO

Calendars Free

Handsome 1913 Colored Art Panels

This little piggy went to market.
This little piggy stayed home.
This little piggy got bread and butter.
This little piggy got none.
This little piggy cried—
wee wee, I want some.

1913

No Advertising—Assorted Subjects

ACTUAL SIZE 20x10 INCHES

HOW TO GET ONE

Sign this Subscription Blank agreeing to read the Boston Sunday AMERICAN for three months (no advance payment required) and bring or send same with the Coupon printed on page four of the Comic Section of next Sunday's AMERICAN, to the American Promotion Department, 5 Winthrop Square.

SUBSCRIPTION BLANK Art Panel Calendar Offer

BOSTON AMERICAN

In consideration of receiving, FREE OF CHARGE, one 1913 Art Panel Calendar (Do not include—no advertising) I agree to accept from your carrier the Boston SUNDAY American for a period of three (3) months from date of first delivery, paying for same to your carrier on Sunday of the regular delivery rate.

This Blank will not be honored unless accompanied by Coupon Printed on the first page of the Comic Section of next Sunday's AMERICAN.

Signed .....

Address .....

City or Town .....

COME AND SEE THEM AT THE AMERICAN PROMOTION DEPT.
5 WINTHROP SQUARE
(Just Around the Corner From AMERICAN'S Main Office)

BOSTON LADY HAS STARTED NEW FASHION

A statement that should be particularly interesting to women was made the other day by Miss Jessie A. Wolseley, after she had taken a course of the new tonic, Tona Vita.

Miss Wolseley, who lives at 34 Temple street, Boston, stated:

"For some time I have been bothered with what I should call an 'all-run-down' condition. I tired much more easily than I used to, and did not have the energy to do the things that formerly were a pleasure to me. My nerves troubled me greatly. If I heard an unexpected noise behind me I would jump as though I had been shot. Since I have been taking Tona Vita I have experienced great relief from my troubles. It has toned me up as only a long stay in the country or a sea trip would have done. It is extremely pleasant to take and it works relief very quickly. I am only too glad to be able to endorse it as an excellent tonic."

"Many nerves and that 'run-down' feeling are only the preliminary symptoms of nervous debility," said John Hamlin, the AMERICAN and Mr. Cassidy for the work they were doing in the cause of pure food. He favored establishing open municipal markets and declared that many middlemen were parasitical.

Dr. Fleischer traced the history of corporation from its beginning in Rochdale, England, in 1844, and said that if there is a instance in this country it would do more than anything else to lessen the high price of the necessaries of life.

"I believe it is to the manufacturer's interest to sell pure food, and that he will shortly realize this.

"I believe that if we 'let in the light,' the doped food articles must run. They can't stand publicity, and that is what I propose to give them.

Dr. Charles Fleischer, another speaker, praised

LATER TRAINS CAMPAIGN WON BY AMERICAN

The Massachusetts Board of Railroad Commissioners today made public their report on the petition of the Boston AMERICAN, through Russell H. Whitman, and others for a later suburban train service at night from Boston.

The application of the petitioners is granted and a time table of the extra trains has been issued. The report of the board follows:

Petition of Russell H. Whitman and others for later passenger train service from Boston.

A public hearing was given on this petition on December 9, 1912, followed at a later date by a conference with the board between representatives of the petitioners and the railroad companies.

Make Recommendations.

After further consideration of the matter the board recommends that for a special period of three months, beginning February 3, 1913, later passenger train service be established on the Boston & Maine and the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroads as shown by the following schedule:

BOSTON & MAINE RAILROAD.
Portland Division.

Leave Boston	12:01 a. m.
Leave Malden	12:11 a. m.
Leave Oak Grove	12:15 a. m.
Leave Wyoming	12:15 a. m.
Leave Melrose	12:17 a. m.
Leave Melrose Highlands	12:20 a. m.
Leave Greenwood	12:23 a. m.
Leave Wakefield Junction	12:26 a. m.
Leave Wakefield	12:28 a. m.
Leave Reading	12:33 a. m.
*Leave North Wilmington	12:39 a. m.
*Leave Ballardvale	12:47 a. m.
Leave Andover	12:52 a. m.
Leave South Lawrence	1:00 a. m.
Leave North Andover	1:04 a. m.
*Leave Ward Hill	1:10 a.m.
Leave Bradford	1:14 a. m.
Arrive Haverhill	1:16 a. m.

Southern Division.

Leave—
Boston	12:01 a. m.
Prospect Hill	12:06 a. m.
Winter Hill	12:08 a. m.
Somerville Junction	12:10 a. m.
North Somerville	12:13 a. m.
Tufts College	12:15 a. m.
Medford Hillside	12:17 a. m.
West Medford	12:20 a. m.
Wedgemere	12:23 a. m.
Winchester	12:27 a. m.
Lowell Street	12:30 a. m.
Woburn Highlands	12:33 a. m.
Woburn	12:35 a. m.
Central Square	12:38 a. m.
North Woburn	12:42 a. m.
Wilmington	12:48 a. m.
*Silver Lake	12:51 a. m.
*East Billerica	12:56 a. m.
*North Billerica	1:02 a. m.
*South Lowell	1:04 a. m.
*Bleachery	1:08 a. m.
Arrive—
Lowell	1:10 a. m.

*Stop to leave passengers on notice to conductors.

NEW YORK, NEW HAVEN & HARTFORD RAILROAD.
Boston and Old Colony divisions.

Leave—
Boston	12:05 a. m.
Wollaston	12:10 a. m.
Quincy	12:23 a. m.
Braintree	12:29 a.m.
South Braintree	12:33 a.m.
Holbrook	12:41 a. m.
Avon	12:45 a. m.
Montello	12:49 a. m.
Brockton	12:55 a. m.
Arrive—
Campello	1.00 a. m.

To Make Further Requests.

At the expiration of the above named period, the board will make such further or other recommendation in the premises as seems warranted, and in the meantime requests that a count of the number of passengers patronizing these trains be taken by the companies and a detailed report thereof made to this office at the end of each month.

By the Board,
(Signed) CHARLES E. MANN,
Clerk.

A true copy. Attest:
CHARLES E. MANN,
Clerk.

NEWSBOYS WILL GREET BIG CROWD AT DANCE TONIGHT

Vaudeville performers, singers and big men of the world of finance and politics will be on hand tonight in Copley Hall to assist in making the second annual ball of the Happy Twenty of the Boston Newsboys' Club a success.

The "Bunty Pulls the Strings" company will be on hand, as will several performers from B. F. Keith's and the National Theatre. Miss Clara Smith, the soloist, is to sing, and Dick Sears is to show some new pictures.

Mayor Fitzgerald is expected to sing "Sweet Adeline," and members of the governor's staff and J. J. Storrow will be present.

Walter Knight has some surprises for the boys at the big ball tonight.

DONOVAN INQUIRY ENDED; JUDGE TO REPORT IN WEEK

The inquest into the death of Mrs. Mildred Donovan of Revere, who was found lying on the roadside near Holy Cross Cemetery in Malden late in the afternoon New Year's Day, was concluded this noon before Judge E. Leroy Sweetser in the Malden District Court. Considerable surprise resulted when the coroner dismissed all but five of the seventeen witnesses summoned. Judge Sweetser said that he would take the case under advisement and would file his report in the office of the clerk of courts at East Cambridge within a week.

Mrs. Churchill May Win Husband Back to Unionist Party

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Very gentle yet persuasive influence is being used to draw Winston Churchill back to the Unionist party. The silken thread that is leading the First Lord of the Admiralty away from Liberalism is held by his charming wife whom he married in 1908, to whom he is devoted.

All her family are Tories. She is a daughter of the late Sir Henry Montagu Hozier, K. C. B., and of Lady Henriette Blanche, daughter of the Earl of Airlie.

Such go-ahead and astute Tories as F. E. Smith, Sir Edward Carson and Lord Winterton seem to have discovered Mrs. Churchill's almost imperceptible influence over her husband, and hope she will win him back to the Unionists.

At any rate these Tories say they would like to see the man whose mother was a Jerome, of New York, remain permanently at the Admiralty, no matter which government is in power. It is admitted even by his strongest political opponents that Mr. Churchill is the best head the Admiralty has had in many years.

FRENCH ABBE A SUICIDE FOR WOMAN'S LOVE

PARIS, Jan. 21.—A great sensation has been caused at Agen, near Toulouse, by the death of the Abbe Chassaing, curé of the Parish of St. Hilaire, who was found in the apartment of Mme. Alice Crespy, one of his parishioners, with a bullet in his forehead. He had been transferred to Montesarre.

The news of the abbe's death was first conveyed to the police by Mme. Crespy, who declared that the priest had shot himself. It is now alleged by the police that the fatal shot was fired from some distance at the Abbe.

Prince Says Carmen Sylva Is the World's Greatest Woman

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Guenther, Prince von Schoenburg Waldenburg, has arrived at the Ritz, on his way West.

Although German by birth, an officer in the German Emperor's Life Guards, Prince Schoenburg practically lives in Rumania, where he owns a large estate. He is somewhat reticent in talking about himself and some of his many interesting experiences, but, while standing near the table in his sitting room, he picked up a magnificently bound volume.

"Here," said the Prince, "is the work of what I consider the greatest woman, the greatest genius in the world—Carmen Sylva. I have known her for several years and known her well and one of the great pleasures of my life have been the hours I have spent in conversation with her."

Opening the book, the Prince showed me its dedication and inscription, reading:

"To Prince Guenther—It is not so difficult to die for a friend, as to find one worth dying for."

"CARMEN SYLVA."

'LOOK OUT' NOT THREAT TO GIRL, JUDGE DECIDES

HAVERHILL, Jan. 21.—The difference between warning girls and warning men operatives in a strike was brought out in Haverhill District Court today when Michael Paskuskowicki, a striking lister in the shoe shop trouble, was charged in four counts with intimidating girl operatives.

Testimony was introduced to show he told the girls to "look out" if they kept on working during the strike.

The difference set up that this was not a threat, but a friendly warning. Paskuskowich was found guilty of intimidation on all four counts because he spoke to the girls, but one count was filed and the other three were continued for sentence.

Mrs. Crane in Chair, Speaker Hits Ragtime at Taft's Reception

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—White House tastes in music were criticised and the popularity of the "Turkey trot," the "Chicken flip" and other unconventional dances were condemned at a meeting over which Mrs. W. Murray Crane, wife of the Senator from Massachusetts, presided, and today capital society is suffering from the shock.

The arraignment of "ragtime" in the White House and the dances in question at society's events was made at a meeting of the Monday Evening Club, a Y. M. C. A. organization. Louis Ottenberg, a lawyer and a leader in the club, was the critic of the President. He said:

I have heard that one of the reasons why President-elect Wilson requested the abandonment of the inaugural ball was because of the New Year's program played at the White House by the Marine Band. I looked up the program and found that out of 28 numbers the majority were ragtime.

BOSTON MEN AT TARIFF HEARING URGE INCREASE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The House Ways and Means Committee today continued its hearings of the agricultural schedule of the tariff.

Harry Hartley of Boston, representing the National Association of Wool Manufacturers, asked that the duty on wool grease, from the wool scouring process, should be increased from one-fourth to one-half a cent a pound. Franklin Hobbs of Boston also wanted the duty on wool grease increased.

John F. Donovan of New York asked the committee to put sar and straw on the free list.

G. Hansen of New York, an importer of Ceylon, wanted specific duties on that product instead of advalorem duties.

Filene's

Just to show New England women what the Filene Coat Shops can do when they set out to hold a Real Sale of Coats, Tomorrow we shall sell

1275 New Winter Coats for Women, Misses and Girls

All fresh from the tailors' hands within a week's time, and in EXACTLY the styles and materials that this season's business has proved to be MOST in demand, at $4 to $16.75 Less then their Worth

Judged by Any Fair Standards

NO ODD LOTS. ALL SIZES in each group when the sale starts tomorrow. Descriptions below are numbered to correspond with the pictures in the margin.

Women's $15 to $19.75 Coats, plain tailored, semi-fitted coats in gray and brown mixtures or novelty semi-fitted coats with new panel back, velvet collar, blue, brown and oxford $8.75
SEE SKETCHES No. 5 and 6

Women's $22.50 Black Astrakhan Coats in three-piece semi-fitted style, plush collar, cuffs and buttons, yarn dyed, guaranteed satin lined throughout $12.45
SEE SKETCH No. 13

Women's $18.50 Plaid Back Mixture Coats, plain tailored, full length, semi-fitted style, brown and gray materials $12.45
SEE SKETCH No. 11

Women's $22.50 Plaid Back Mixture Top Coats, new side cut model, lined to waist with Skinner's satin. Velvet collar, back trimmed with buttons $12.45
SEE SKETCH No. 20

Women's $18.50 Mixture Coats, semi-fitted, empire model, new high waist line and self button trimming. In gray and brown, satin lined to waist $12.45

Women's $25 and $29.50 Black Astrakhan Street Coats, with convertible velvet collar, braid ornament fasteners and yarn dyed satin lining $14.75
SEE SKETCH No. 7

Women's $25 and $29.50 Evening Wraps of imported broadcloth in pastel shades, warmly interlined and lined with peau de cygne $14.75

Women's $25 Plaid Back Mixture Coats of men's overcoatings in navy, brown and gray, made up in semi-fitted French back style with convertible collar. Yoke and sleeves Skinner satin lined, pearl button trimmings. (Sizes up to 48) $14.75
SEE SKETCH No. 2

Girls' $10 to $12.50 Coats in a model that is always fashionable, serviceable and practical. Full length, box style with convertible collar. Three-piece belts. Coats made to our specifications. Included plaid back, diagonal, mixtures, heavy wool mixtures, cheviots, zibelines, chinchillas and novelty cloths $5.95
SEE SKETCH No. 17

Misses' $18.50 and $22.50 Coats in gray, navy, brown; heavy, soft, two-faced plaid back materials. English raglan model with wind shield cuffs. Slant pockets, four button front with fifth button to convert collar. Semi-fitted back, pearl fisheye buttons $9.75
SEE SKETCH No. 4

Misses' $18.50 Coats, all wool chinchillas in navy, brown, cinnamon, oxford, gray. Thick, but soft chinchillas, warm and durable. Broadcloth facings to bottom of coat, broadcloth yoke and cuffs. Full length $9.75
SEE SKETCH No. 18

Misses' $18.50 Coats in the very popular mannish box coat model, wide double breasted with deep revers and three-button front. Velvet collar and notch front. Navy, oxford, brown all wool chinchillas $9.75
SEE SKETCH No. 1

Misses' $18.50 to $22.50 Coats, chinchillas, velours, mixtures, split seam sleeve, raglan shoulder; French semi-back, strapped cuff. Single breasted deep collar and notch rever. Guaranteed satin lined. Also in a set-in style $9.75
SEE SKETCH No. 8

Misses' $18.50 to $22.50 Double Breasted Coats with color combination collar, full length, tailored coats, in popular gray diagonals and gray and brown chinchillas (men's overcoatings), two piece back, lapped pockets $9.75
SEE SKETCH No. 18

Misses' $25 Coats, chinchillas in navy, oxford, tan and brown. Full length, broadcloth facing and satin sleeve lining. Neat sailor collar effect with soft roll. Gibson plait, novelty half belts, button and velvet in back $12.75
SEE SKETCH No. 12

Misses' $25 Coats in heavy spongy coatings so much in demand this season. Full length with sleeve and waist satin lined. Convertible collar with deep revers, fancy cuffs and semi-fitted back. Eleven different patterns in medium and light mixtures, tan and brown and navy and brown boucles $12.75
SEE SKETCH No. 15

Misses' $25 and $29.50 Coats in thirteen patterns of foreign and domestic materials, navy, black, brown, tan, gray, oxford cheviots and zibelines, diagonals and novelty weaves. Two or three button combinations and popular new swing collar. Guaranteed satin lining throughout. Back has straps and buttons $12.75
SEE SKETCH No. 9

Misses' $29.50 Coats, corduroy collar and cuffs and stitched oval strap at back. Full length, semi-fitting. Satin sleeve linings and yoke. Novelty buttons and white and novelty materials $12.75
SEE SKETCH No. 14

Misses' $12.50 Raincoats, of cravenetted gabardine; and double texture cashmeres in olive, tan and navy. Raglan sleeves, satin faced yoke and collar, or high neck with straight set-in sleeves. Good coats to slip on over the winter coat for snow or rain $7.50
SEE SKETCH No. 3

Ready Wednesday Morning
Mail and Telephone Orders Filled
Women's Coats—5th Floor
Misses' and Girls' Coats—4th Floor

Also Many Excellent Coats From Regular Stock, Marked Down

Wm. Filene's Sons Company

THE GINTER CO.

60c Teas 25c

Great Stock-Up Sale of Our Famous "GOLDEN ROSE" TEAS

Delicious Spring Bud Selections. Your choice of Formosa Oolong, English Breakfast, Green and Black Mixed or Orange Pekoe Ceylon. Put up in 3 or 1 lb. packages. Special 25c cut, lb.

Orange Pekoe Ceylon, lb. 29c

40c COFFEE 29c

"GOLDEN ROSE," Mocha, Java Type

Butter 35c lb

Choicest Quality. Received Daily

Eggs Strictly Fancy 24c

Big Price Cut, Quality Guaranteed

Flour "Golden Rose" Finest Steel Bbl. 5.99

Evap. Milk PEERLESS LARGE CAN 8c

Old Dutch Cleanser Can 8c

Sugar Granulated Finest Lb. 5c

Cream of Wheat 12c

Soap Kirkman's Borax 5 Bars 21c

Catsup Snider's Pure Tomato Pt. Bot. 18c

Cocoa Golden Rose, Lb. Purest Soluble Can 27c

69c Liquor Sale

Selected Brands 5½ Years, at Other Stores 1.00

Old "Mentor" Qt. 69c

A Very Fine Old Whisky, Positively Pure and Specially Aged. Worth $1.00

Malt "Ginseng" Malt Whisky Pure Medicinal Qt. 69c

Rum Old Revenue Spring Gluten Quality Qt. 69c

Gin Old Tom and Dry Choice Mellowed Types Qt. 69c

Wines Gulf Cream Sherry or Spanish Port Bot. 69c

OTHER PRICE CUTS

Hunter Rye Genuine Honor 4 Full Qts. 79c

Old Crow Bourbon, Bot. 89c

Scotch Usher's O. V. S. 89c

Booth's Old Tom Gin 85c

Wines Pure Delicious Port, Sherry, Etc. Bot. 23c

Port Imported Tar-ragona, 1.50 Value Bot. 47c

Free Quick Delivery ★ Price List Free

Ginter Co

163 Summer ★ Union, Cor. Elm

495 Washington ★ 16 Canal

Specialty Shop, Agents. 122 Tremont

ANGELA MORGAN TELLS PITIFUL STORY OF SARA KORTZ, MODERN DRUDGE

By ANGELA MORGAN.

How would you like to be a human machine, turning out so many coats per hour, sewing under electric light that rufins the eyesight, breathing in foul air with every breath, drudging, drudging on and on from 8 in the morning until 6 at night?

How would you like it if, after your steady, grinding toil, you didn't get enough money to pay for bread and shoes?

How could you stand it if, with all your hopes and all your work and all your sacrificing to support mothers and sisters and little brothers, you had to toil them and turn a deaf ear to their entreaties for money?

What would you do if you had to see them growing weak from lack of food, and could not lift a hand to help them, because you didn't have enough even for yourself?

Can girls who toil like this, deprived of the good, clean air and nourishing food and healthy surroundings that alone can produce strong bodies—can girls like this hope to become the mothers of a healthy race?

Asked by Thousands.

These are the questions Sara Kortz is asking today. She is a finisher of ladies' garments and has worked under bitter conditions. Thousands of her sister workers are asking the same questions. With her they are protesting against the injustice of their lot.

I saw Sara at the headquarters of the Cloak and Shirtmakers' Union, where with other girls she was asking for work that would give her a decent living.

Sara's eyesight is not good, for she has been compelled to work under electric light in rooms where sunlight could not reach. She wears glasses to help her vision, and in spite of the fact that getting another job may mean only further injury to her eyesight, she must nevertheless look for work. Unless conditions change, she will have to work in other shops where dark rooms make artificial light a necessity.

"What are we going to do?" she cried, in broken English. "If a girl's work must take all her strength and spoil her eyesight how can she keep a strong body for the future?"

Has Dream of Future.

Sara has her own fond dream of the future—the dream every good girl cherishes. Some day she will have a husband and home and children of her own. But what kind of children will she have if she cannot keep her own body strong and well?

Must she give to those children bad eyesight, a weak back, poor nerves, impoverished blood?

Sara told just how it feels to be a human machine. She told how hope and love and the yearning for beauty are all throttled when a girl must sit sewing hour after hour, when her back aches and her fingers are so tired it seems to her she can go on no longer.

Sara is a Russian Jewess, with a mother and sister to support. She was born in Gortz, Russia, and came to this country with the golden hope that made her believe she could find good fortune here.

She has met only bitter disappointment

Her Own Story.

Here is her own story as she told it to me.

I came to America hoping to help my people. Instead of helping them, I am forced to send to them for aid, and they can't send much because they are having such a hard time. I worked three seasons in a Boston shop, finishing ladies' garments. I made about $5.50 a week. If you average up the slack season and the busy season. That would not clothe and feed me.

When I came here I was all full of hope. The blood in my veins seemed to sing. Everything seemed so busy. The people were all hurrying through the streets with happy faces, the stores were so bright, the women so warmly dressed—it looked like a glad country where every one would have enough to eat and to wear.

The Black Cloud.

Every day I thought I would sing at my work with joy. But now I saw how the money would not meet the bills. I had to pay $4 for board and had to get clothes for myself. What could I do? Pretty soon I saw when the slack season came that I must go in debt if I expected to keep a roof over my head and have food to eat. Then I knew that I could not send any money home.

I will never forget the day when I knew that. It came like a big cloud that made everything black in my mind. All the sun was gone. I did not feel any more like singing. My heart was heavy—my arms were like lead.

I had to go on strike, for I knew I could not live at all unless things changed. It is not because I don't want to work—I do want to work, but I must earn enough to support myself, and I must have a shop to work in that will not be a poison and a harm to me.

What shall I do, some day, when I have children of my own, if I am all worn out and overworked and my eyes are ruined? We have to think of that. Every girl must think of it if she is a good girl. We must take care of our health, or that is the use to live at all? It is not right to be weakly and it have food to make the good red blood.

I must be more than a machine if I want to teach my children something better. I must have the right to air and sun and a good home.

Even with all my dragging I have not earned fresh air. I have not earned good food. I have not earned decent clothes. I am not able to help my people in their appeal to me for help. What will become of me?"

Special Notice.

No More Torture from Rheumatism

Partola Removes the Cause.

This delicious candy laxative blood purifier removes the poisons that come from bad digestion and constipation by purifying the blood and keeping the bowels open and the stomach sweet. Go to your druggist today and get a box—25c, 50c or $1—or a trial size for 10c. PARTOLA Co., 1658 St Ave., N. Y.

MRS. FLORENCE L. WHITMAN URGES SCHOOL REFORMS

ASKS PHYSICAL TRAINING FOR ALL IN SCHOOL

Mrs. Florence Lee Whitman, who is making a strenuous campaign for election to the Cambridge School Committee, today declared that if elected, she would work for a rule giving physical training to the child at the kindergarten age. She also favors an improvement in the lunches served the High School pupils and believes women teachers should receive the same pay as men teachers when they perform services of equal value. Mrs. Whitman, who is a member of the Cantabrigia Club and several other organizations, outlines her program as follows:

I believe all parents should send their children to the public schools and then make it their business to see that the public schools are better than any other educational institution.

There is need for at least one woman on the Cambridge School Board. Who should know better than a teacher and a mother the physical and mental needs of the children? And who should know better the emotions and needs of a large group of teachers, most of them women?

For the last three years I have worked for a girls' trade school and now through the splendid interest of Michael F. Fitzgerald, superintendent of schools, and members of the School Board, the school has become a reality.

There are more improvements I hope to se installed in the schools. There are the school lunches in the High Schools which, both as regards equipment and quality of food, are far inferior to those served in Boston, Philadelphia and New York.

Girls should be taught to cook and sew even before they get into the High School, for many may never go beyond the grammar grades.

As for physical training I think there should be a large comprehensive scheme for the all round development of every school child. I think this far more important than specialized athletics for the few High School scholars who can train for the track or prepare for football and baseball. If we can have both, well and good, but if but one, then I should say that a trained instructor such as we once had in Ernst Herman, who should develop a broad scheme of physical truning would be far the more vital of the two.

Another measure I advocate is equal pay for equal work to women who give the same quality of service as the men. I believe also that the Cambridge teachers should receive just as good salaries as the teachers in Brookline and Boston, where they now go, enticed by larger pay.

New "Cold Light" May Revolutionize Electric Lighting

PARIS, Jan. 21.—M. Dussaud, the French discoverer of "cold light," gives some details of his process which, it is thought, may revolutionize electric lighting.

Starting on the principle that rest is as essential to matter as to animal organism, he has constructed an electric lamp, in which the light is concentrated on a single point by filaments working successfully; then the light is projected through a lens magnifying a thousand fold. Thus he has succeeded in concentrating a 2,000-candle power on one point and in passing thirty-two volts into an eight-volt lamp, which with the ordinary light would burst.

Experiments with this lamp have established that the new light is absolutely without danger, as no heat in given off and it requires 100 times less current than the ordinary lamp. It can be worked by a tiny battery.

SUFFRAGISTS READY TO DIE FOR CAUSE

LONDON, Jan. 21.—"There will be war with a vengeance, and I for one, am prepared to die for the cause," said a prominent suffragette leader at the suffragette headquarters today. The prevailing opinion held there was that Sir Edward Grey's amendment to the Franchise bill giving women the vote will be defeated.

THREE LOWELL GREEKS DIE IN TURKISH WAR

LOWELL, Jan. 21.—In a letter received by Daniel A. Sakalarles of Lowell from Captain Constandinedes of the Greek Holy Regiment, the loss of three Lowell Greeks and the fact that twenty men of the same regiment were seriously wounded in an engagement with the Turks before Janina became known.

More than 2,000 Greeks left Lowell on October 10 to join the Greek Holy Regiment. The dead men are Lieutenant John Perdikis, Apostolos Pappavasilion and Vasilous Couluris.

The letter vividly describes the engagement with the Turks. The Greek regiment was composed of men from New York, Lowell and Haverhill. The tactics of the Turks included the use of mines, deep pits filled with barbed wire and long pointed wire stuck up in the ground. Of the regiment, 248 men were killed and 69 were wounded.

WORE LINEN SUIT THE YEAR AROUND

SHELBURNE FALLS, Jan. 21.—Alonzo Lamson, aged eighty-seven, died in his home after a short illness. He had always attracted the attention of strangers because of the linen suit which he wore Summer and Winter.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision for over 30 years. Allow no one to deceive you in this. Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments, and endanger the health of Children—Experience against Experiment.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher

WONDERFUL

3 Days' Conqueror

Drink Habit

I averaged drinking about 20 glasses of whisky daily. Also considerable beer, gin and ale.

Mothers, Wives, Sisters

While drifting from bad to worse until slave of King Alcohol do, I unexpectedly found a true cure, it was called Orexine. It saved my life. My health was quickly restored, I became and am a temperate man, enjoying every benefit of freedom from the accursed alcohol. I speedily and naturally lost all desire for drink. I took less and less. I began to prefer tea, coffee and other non-alcoholic liquids; the craving for liquor left me entirely. I gained in flesh, my nerves became strong, restored from utter exhaustion which I now know was due to my intemperate drinking. I was cured in only three days. By fortunate circumstances, I learned the true method by overcoming liquor habit with or without the drinker's knowledge. My remedy is indorsed by physicians and is Orginne of Imperial Co. I will send it to you entirely free.

Drinkers Secretly Saved

My treatment is sonely and successfully to banish whisky at home or without the drinker's knowledge. I tell about it in my little book, which I send FREE to every person (or relative of friend) who takes alcohol in any form to excess. My one purpose in life is to save the drunkard; each victim has my sympathy. What I promise is absolutely guaranteed or its small cost will be refunded. My remedy is for either steady or periodical drinkers. Think of those complete and lasting homes you can make happy. Don't wait. Write me today. Don't accept any other Orexine. DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS, even if the drinker seems to be able to control himself, you can never tell when he will meet with accident or be stricken with delirium tremens, collapse, prostration, heart failure, pneumonia, softening of brain or other serious disease. $10,000 Bond given to protect purchasers.

ABSOLUTELY FREE

I will send you my book, in plain wrapper, promptly, postpaid. It tells of my own career and the wonderful remedy and gives valuable advice. No other book like it. I especially appeal to those who have wasted money on treatments, institutes or remedies which had no satisfactory effect. My Book costs you nothing and you will always be glad you wrote. Better write today, for tomorrow may be too late. Address plainly

EDWARD J. WOODS,

534 Sixth Ave., 854 L, New York, N. Y.

BE ACCURATE.

Save time and money by using our

Parcel Post Scale

No figuring, gives rates by sight.

$3.00 Each

Parcel Post Map and Guide

60c (for the two)

HILL, SMITH & CO.,

OFFICE SUPPLY SPECIALISTS

3 Milk St. Main 1690

TIME FOR

STORM WINDOWS

E. A. Carlisle & Pope Co.

52 to 60 Beverly St.

You don't have to wait until you feel you can afford a $100 or $200 Victrola

—any Victrola you choose as the instrument for your home will play every record in the Victor catalog, and will give you almost as perfect music as the Victrola XVI, the instrument by which the value of all musical instruments is measured.

Any Victor dealer in any city in the world will gladly play any music you wish to hear.

Victor Talking Machine Co., Camden, N. J.

Victor-Victrola XI, $100
Mahogany or oak

Other styles $15 to $200
Victors $10 to $100

Oliver Ditson Company

150 Tremont Street (Near West), Boston, Mass.

Stop, Look and then Listen to the

New Models of Victor-Victrolas, the tone Machines of Quality, on Sale Today

New Model 10th . . .	$75.00
New Model 11th . . .	100.00
New Model 14th . . .	150.00
New Model 16th . . .	200.00

Send for Catalogue New January Victor Records

. . Account Solicited . .

When In Doubt Buy Of OSGOOD

New England's Greatest Furniture Store

144-156 WASHINGTON ST. BOSTON

Just a Few Steps from the Scollay and Bowdoin Square Stations

THIS WONDERFUL Talking Machine ON OSGOOD'S Liberal Terms

Largest Stock of Victor Machines and Victor Records in New England. $1.00 Down and $1.00 a Week Will Put a Victor Outfit In Your Home.

The Place to Buy Victors

The Place to Buy Victors

When In Doubt Buy Of OSGOOD

New England's Greatest Furniture Store

144-156 WASHINGTON ST. BOSTON

Just a Few Steps From the Scollay and Bowdoin Square Stations

Phone, write or call at any of our stores in New England and get

STEINERT RECORD SERVICE

—for Victor and Victrola owners thruout New England. Unsurpassed facilities.

TWO STORES IN BOSTON

35 Arch Street, Between Franklin and Milk Streets

162 Boylston Street, Steinert Hall

M. STEINERT & SONS CO.

EASTERN TALKING MACHINE CO.

Retail and Wholesale Distributors of the Victor

For Eighteen Years an Exclusive Talking Machine House.

Mail Orders a Specialty

117 Tremont St. next to Tremont Theatre Boston

NEW LETTERS DISCUSS VEXED QURY OF GIRLS LIVING ON $8 A WEEK

The vexed problem of whether or not girl can live on a weekly wage of $8 o has served to attract attention and letters c time to flood the AMERICAN. Some o the writers seem to think that a girl c live very comfortably on that sum, wh others aver that it can only be done at great sacrifice of comfort and enjoyment. Some of the letters follow:

How One Girl Managed.

Editor AMERICAN:

Living on $8 per week can be done in Boston—but it is just living, that is all. I pay $2.50 for room rent and had to hunt for hours to find a clean, heated room larger than a hall bedroom, where I could have privileges of light cooking and laundry. Certain things, only, are allowed; making tea, coffee, warmed up soup, boiled eggs and toast are the limit of indulgence. I have a two-burner gas-alcohol stove of lamp and use thirty cents' worth of denatured alcohol per week. Have a small iron and do all my own laundry work except one white tailored waist per week at fifteen cents. The rest of the time I wear dark ones.

My dinners at twenty-five cents cost me $1.75. My breakfasts and lunches I limit, usually to $1.50. It isn't enough, but I study food values in a magazine and try to follow them to get the most nourishment out of little. This leaves $1.80 for clothes, writing and sewing supplies, soap, tooth-powder, cold cream—an absolute necessity for my hands in Winter—shoes and their repair, umbrella and rubbers.

Like numberless others, I watch the sales closely. I can't save—but I will pay my debts. With this dollar deducted for many weeks, I have tried to make eighty cents do for the rest, of course. I cannot wear $2 shoes; I have to pay $3.50 to work in comfort; for if my feet hurt I am sick all over. Six pairs of guaranteed hose (three for ninety-five cents at sale time) last me a year.

I simply abhor mending, so I exchange my hat sense for another girl's cleft patches. I have one best black skirt, made to order at a store for $5, and a black chiffon over blue silk waist at $2.85 marked from $5, and a good pair of white gloves for "dress-up."

Yes. If one is young and strong she can live fairly well on $8 per week, but the older girls whose best years have passed find it a hard proposition.

AN OLD GIRL.

Boston.

Lucky to Get $8.

Editor AMERICAN:

I think that any woman who gets $8 a week ought to consider herself very lucky. There are many who work very hard for much less. One young woman who boarded with my mother had but $5 a week to live on. She paid my mother $3.50 a week for which she got two hot meals and a lunch every day. She slept in a large bedroom, which she shared with me, did her own washing and ironing, used sixty cents a week for carfare, ten cents for a moving picture show and thirty cents for a hair net, hair pins and a little confectionery now and then. The remaining fifty cents she saved every week for her clothes.

Dorchester. MISS. K. S.

Must Live at Home.

Editor AMERICAN:

A girl can live on $8 a week very well, providing she is at her own home or with friends where she has the privilege of doing her own laundry and getting her meals and room reasonably, otherwise she could only be existing. Here is the manner I could make out: Room, $2; meals, $3.50; laundry, sixty cents; carfare, seventy-two cents; clothes, $1.

Chelsea. MISS B. M.

Ask For Legal Stamps

Your Money Back If You Want It

WOLF'S

MY CLOTHIER

Hanover and Portland Streets

Special Sales For Wednesday

You'll never appreciate at its fullest value the service this store is giving in the way of helping you save money until you come and find out for yourself at these Special Sales for Wednesday.

It's not a case of telling—it's a case of showing you.

Manufacturer's Samples of Children's Underwear

19c

Odds and ends of children's shirts, drawers and union suits in values that run up to 75c per garment.

Men's 50c Black Shirts

27c

Working shirts of sateen and twill materials in an absolutely fast black. Not more than two shirts to a customer.

Men's $1.00 Fancy Wash Vests

49c

Closing them out before stock taking—and every one is a genuine $1.00 value. Fancy wash fabrics in black and white effects.

Boys' $3.00 $4.00 and $5.00 Reefers

1.29

For boys 2½ to 10 years. Medium weight fabrics in red, medium colored mixtures and Shepherd plaids. Not all sizes in the lot.

Women's and Misses' $5.00 Dresses

2.90

Black, wine or navy blue serge in sizes 14, 16, 18, up to 38. There are several styles with round neck and long or three-quarter sleeves.

WEDS SECRETLY LIKE FATHER AT MEDFORD

Following the example of his father, who secretly married a stenographer last July, Warren H. Barnes, son of Charles H. Barnes, cashier of the Medford Trust Company, was quietly married Saturday to Miss Helen M. Lucia of No. 104 Salem street. The marriage has just become known.

UNIFORM FOR LOBBYISTS.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 21.—A uniform for lobbyists—brown suit, red hat and green tie—is provided for in a bill introduced in the Legislature.

DENTISTRY!

NO EXCUSE FOR BAD TEETH

Is Possible in These Days.

Modern methods in Dentistry have completely transformed the terrors of the past into delightful anticipation of gratifying results.

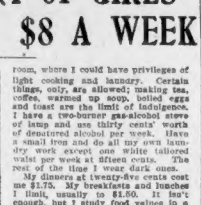
Operations which formerly meant intense agony are now performed here without the slightest discomfort.

I make use of every modern appliance that is valuable, and gained with my Practice of Thirty-Three Years Behind me everything in dentistry.

Fillings of all kinds. Bridge work, cappings and crowns, partial and full sets.

Each patient receives my Personal Services, therefore I guarantee absolute satisfaction. Get my estimate on your work. It's worth while.

Positively Painless Extraction



SET TEETH $5

Examinations and Professional Advice Free.

$5 Interchangeable Bridgeon $5 Gold and Porcelain Crowns.

Gold Fillings $1 up. Other Fillings 50c up.

DR. HENRY R. KEACH

226 Tremont Street OPP. MAJESTIC THEATRE

Hrs. 9 to 8; Sundays 10 to 2. Tel. Ox. 3285-2.

Esther Cleveland to Be Belle at the Inaugural Festivities

MISS ESTHER CLEVELAND.

Photograph Copyright by Clinedinst, Washington.

Miss Cleveland and her mother will occupy unique, almost romantic, positions in the society and official life of the capital when Woodrow Wilson is sworn in as President. Her mother, widow of an ex-President, soon to marry again, thereby losing the presidential name, is in Washington for the first time since she left the White House, and will be a guest of the Tafts and the Wilsons there, which is an unusual event for a former President's widow. So will Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, the only other widow of an ex-President. Mr. Wilson has two beautiful daughters. Miss Cleveland, who greatly resembles her father, as the picture shows, will vie for honors with the Misses Wilson in the inaugural social fete.

WANTS CAPITAL PUNISHMENT IN R. I.

PROVIDENCE, Jan. 21.—Restoration of capital punishment in Rhode Island was urged by Attorney-General Herbert A. Rice in an address before St. Andrew Chapter of All Saints Church. "Our criminal laws are too lenient," the Attorney-General declared. "We should not only have capital punishment restored, but we should have speedy punishment as well. Life imprisonment for murderers means simply a getting busy of friends for a pardon."

ERIE, PA., IS SWEPT BY $250,000 FIRE

ERIE, Pa., Jan. 21.—Fire that damaged the business section of this city over $250,000 started shortly after 3 a. m. today. The fire originated in the basement of Lawrie Brothers' furniture store, destroying the place at a loss of over $200,000. It spread to the adjacent building of the Mohigan Grocery Company, damaging that building and stock to the extent of $50,000.

Musterole Better Than Mustard Plaster

MUSTEROLE is oil of mustard combined with other simples used in home medicine.

It is a clean, white ointment that you rub on—and the pain is gone!

No plaster—no mess—no blister!

It does all the work of the good old-fashioned mustard plaster, but does it better.

Millions of jars of MUSTEROLE are sold annually.

Doctors and nurses recommend it to patients; it is constantly used in many of the large hospitals.

MUSTEROLE is what Twentieth Century science has made of the remedy that your mother and grandmother depended on. It gives instant relief from Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsilitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents Pneumonia).

MUSTEROLE WILL NOT BLISTER

At your druggist's—in 25c and 50c jars and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

Accept no substitute. If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the MUSTEROLE Company, Cleveland, Ohio, and we will mail you a jar, postage prepaid.

Tells how MUSTEROLE relieves:

FRED GENTNER, 8 Plum, Ohio, says: "For two years I suffered with rheumatism. The doctors treated me for different kinds of rheumatism, but did me no good. I read of Musterole and began to use it at once. In a short time I regained the use of my limbs. I am

GORDON ORDER CALLED "JOKE" BY THE MAYOR

The House Committee on Rules is scheduled to take up today what Mayor Fitzgerald says is simply a "joke."

It is the order of Representative Gordon of Boston for an investigation into the allegation that "certain members of the House were guilty of corrupt conduct."

Representative Gordon says his order is the result of statements made editorially in the Republic, the Mayor's weekly paper. Gordan says:

I offered this order because of the statement made editorially in Mayor Fitzgerald's paper that Democratic members of the Legislature had visited the Weeks and McCall headquarters intimating that they were looking for something. That editorial declared that the Mayor could give names if he wished to. My order, if adopted, would give him an opportunity to substantiate his charges and to give the names.

Representative Gordon is a member of the Donovan-Kelliher organization of Ward 9, which has its own opinion of the Fitzgerald-Lomasney machine.

The investigation order begins:

Whereas, statements have been made and published to the effect that some members of the House of Representatives were guilty of corrupt conduct in the matter of a recent election of a United States Senator.

The order was referred to the Committee on Rules. Legislators call attention to the fact that an investigating order, based on general charges alone, has never been reported favorably by this committee.

When the Mayor was told about Gordon's order, he said:

I haven't seen the papers and I don't know what they are talking about. Colonel Field spoke to me about it. It is a joke. I don't know of anything in the Republic that had to do with the election of a Senator.

WHITTELSEY HOUSE NEW TAFT HOME

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 21.—The Joseph T. Whittelsey house on Prospect Hill is likely to be the future home of President Taft and his family when they take up life in New Haven, where the President is to occupy a professor's chair. Whittelsey house, picked out by Mrs. Taft while the Tafts were house hunting here, adjoins the home of President Taft's closest personal friend in New Haven, William W. Farnam.

HER DINNER COMES BY PARCEL POST

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 21.—Miss H. Pearl Richards of the Landour, employed in the office of the Merrill Abstract Company, received a dinner by parcel post sent from Mexico, Mo. It included a pig roast, home grown potatoes, head cheese, pumpkin and mince pie, eggs and doughnuts.

RETIREMENT OF PAUR STIRS HIS FRIENDS HERE

Boston music lovers who read today a cable from Germany that Emil Paur, for five years at the head of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and suddenly resigned as court conductor at the Royal Opera at Berlin, wondered what it was all about.

This interest was intensified by the fact that Dr. Karl Muck, of whom Kaiser William is very fond, was loaned to Boston, where he is now and was succeeded by the deposed or resigned Paur. From the other side, the cables say, there is talk of Dr. Muck returning to Berlin, as it is well known there that when he left he was told:

"Remember, your old place is always waiting for you."

Various stories are afloat in Berlin as to why Paur quit. This much is known: The Kaiser has been dissatisfied with the work of Paur.

One story is that the Kaiser did not like Paur's recent performance of "Carmen," at which Marguerite Sylva achieved great success. It is gossiped in Berlin that the Kaiser made a very sharp criticism of this performance.

Shortly before "The Flying Dutchman" was to be performed recently under Paur's baton the Kaiser asked that another leader conduct.

Paur resigned. He says that he has no plans for the future, but that he is not in good health and that he will take a much-needed rest.

START SECOND DAY IN CITY CLUB FUND RACE WITH $32,750

With more than $32,750 of the $200,000 needed to erect the new home for the Boston City Club at the corner of Somerset street and Ashburton place, the ten teams raising the money began their second day's work today in the ten-days' campaign. The teams, each made up of ten members, are selling debenture bonds of $50 each.

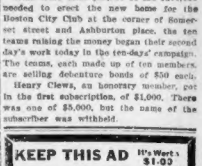
Henry Clews, an honorary member, got in the first subscription, of $1,000. There was one of $5,000, but the name of the subscriber was withheld.

KEEP THIS AD It's Worth $1.00

Any new patient presenting this ad will receive $1 worth of work to demonstrate that you may have your teeth filled, crowned or extracted without the least pain. This places you under no obligation to have more than the dollar's worth of work.

3.00 Best Bridge Work Per Tooth 3.00

Pure 22K Gold Crowns. Work Guaranteed 10 Years



A scientifically constructed rubber plate. Gives lasting comfort and satisfaction, anchored firmly by 8 suctions. Doesn't drop, flap or come. Hygienic. So natural in appearance that it cannot be detected. CAN NOT BE HAD ELSEWHERE. Shown and demonstrated FREE. Come here in the morning and have us extract your old teeth FREE and go home at night with a new set that fits your mouth perfectly. Lady Attendant.

Gold Fillings $1.00 up. Silver Fillings 50c

5.00 Full Set of Teeth 5.00

Best red rubber this mold

Gold Teeth Free on Plates

DR. HEWSON

685 Washington St., Boston

Hrs. 9.30 to 5. Sat. till 9. Sun. 9 to 1. Tel. Ox. 1311-M.

SAVES ELDERLY PEOPLE FROM KIDNEY AND BLADDER MISERIES

Sleep Disturbing Bladder Weaknesses, Backache, Stiff Joints Rheumatic Pains Disappear After Few Doses Are Taken

While people along in years are naturally more subject to weak kidneys, they can avoid the tortures of backache, and rheumatism, and be saved the annoyance of getting up at night with disagreeable bladder disorders, for the new discovery, Croxone, quickly relieves the most severe and obstinate cases.

Croxone cures these conditions because it removes the cause. It is the most wonderful remedy ever devised for ridding the system of uric acid. It is entirely different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else ever used for the purpose. Croxone makes the kidneys filter the blood and sift out all the poisonous acids and waste matter that cause these troubles.

It soaks right in and cleans out the stopped-up, inactive kidneys like water does a sponge, dissolves, and drives out every particle of uric acid and other poisonous impurities that lodge in the joints and muscles and cause rheumatism. It neutralizes the urine so it no longer irritates the bladder, overcomes unnecessary breaking of sleep and restores the kidneys and bladder to health and strength.

It matters not how long you have suffered, how old you are, or what else you have used. The very principle of Croxone is such that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves you the first time you use it, and all your misery and suffering soon disappear. You can secure an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails in a single case.

You Are SAFE When You Buy at Riker-Jaynes

How Man's Efficiency Has Been Increased

By the "J. B. L. Cascade"

Over 200,000 people have found that this new method of internal bathing keeps them always up to "Concert Pitch."

That by using it once a week their Lower Intestine is kept thoroughly clean, pure and sweet, as Nature intended it to be.

That biliousness, with its attendant nervousness, "blueness" and depression, no longer pulls down their efficiency, but they constantly feel bright, confident and capable; also that the more serious ills of constipation (appendicitis, for instance) cannot progress where the "J. B. L." Cascade is used.

It is aptly termed "Nature's Own Cure for Constipation," for its operation is just as safe and natural as washing your hands.

Until recently the "J. B. L." Cascade has been obtainable only by sending to its inventor, Charles A. Tyrrell, M. D., of New York City.

The demand for it now, however, has become so universal, through the recommendations of those who are using it, that it has been decided to place it in the hands of leading druggists throughout the country.

All our stores in New England now have the "J. B. L. Cascade," and we will be glad to show and explain it to you in detail.

We are also distributing a very interesting Booklet on Internal Bathing, called, "Why Man of Today Is Only 50 Per Cent. Efficient," which can be obtained on request, without cost. Ask us for it today and inform yourself about this safe and sane method of curing Constipation without drugs.

23 Stores in New England—Shop at the Nearest.

RIKER-JAYNES DRUG STORES

You Are SAFE When You Buy at Riker-Jaynes

JOHNSON AND WELLS UNLIKELY TO BOX AT PARIS CLUB

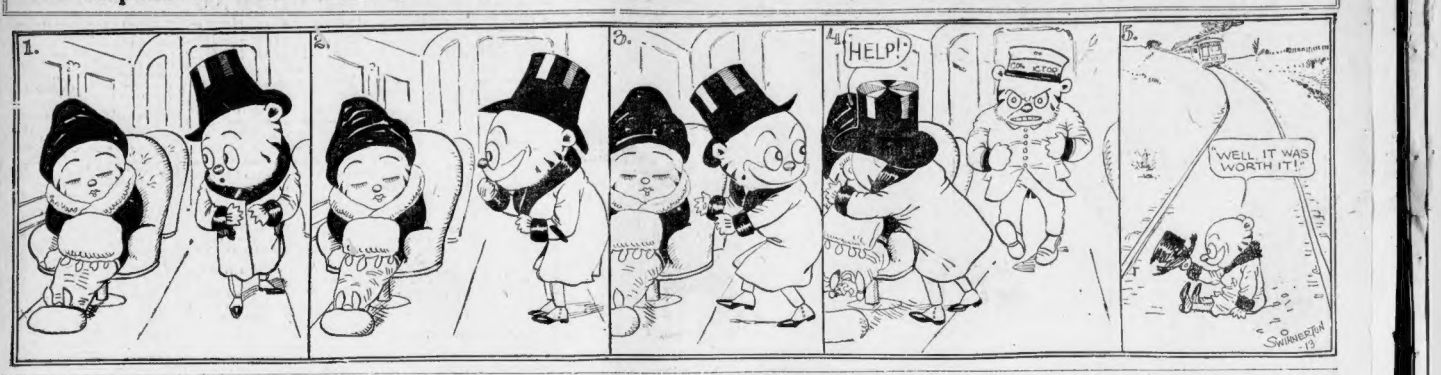
BOSTON AMERICAN SPORTING NEWS

PRIVATE SCHOOL ATHLETES SUPREME AT CAMBRIDGE

We Repeat—It Was Worth It

Copyright, 1913, by the Star Company.

By J. Swinnerton



RILEY'S COLUMN

FIFTY-FOUR days hereafter—on the sixteenth of March, to be more exact—the first world's series of the two scheduled to be played this year will open at Hot Springs, Ark., when the Red Sox, touted by one Mr. McAleer as the 1913 champions of the American League, will meet the Pittsburgh Pirates, heralded by one Mr. Dreyfuss as the 1913 pennant winners of the National League. By staging this conflict in March, the owners of the rival claimant teams will dispose of an argument which might not be worth talking about six months later, when either or both teams may have no title that would call for a world's series and when other champions may battle for the big money.

BY means of this conflict, Jimmy McAleer and Barney Dreyfuss will acquire much early advertising and some advance "velvet" for their pennant aspirants, and will fit their teams for the season's struggle in a very practical way. The intention is to play every alternate day, weather permitting, barring the hazards of the business and including assurance that Mother will always be "there."

* * *

ALL the "sports" who hold forth at Hot Springs are eligible to contribute to the support of this worthy cause, thereby making the Spring training trips of the rival teams a source of profit instead of expense. Upon hearing which, Chifney Mathewson's baseball union is expected to renew its demand for a pecuniary interest in the training trips. The boys who draw no salaries until the opening of the league season will prefer to do their cuts when they bear of the clink of the coin at these games.

* * *

THUS plan will give the Red Sox players about ten days at Hot Springs to "tune up" before getting down to actual business on the diamond.

* * *

FAKING is just as baffling a followers of the fine art as is its cash brother, exclaims the Pittsburg Leader Journal of January 3, illustrating the McCarty-Palmer fight, published a couple months ago. Lather McCarty is training. The Lather McCarty was none other than our distinguished fellow citizen, Martin O'Toole, the quoit ball king, of South Framingham, Mass.

* * *

INSIDE information from the vaudeville circuit has it that Johnny McGraw is peeved because Frank Chance is reported to have a better contract than he. Wherefore, the news columns may soon carry demands by McGraw for more than the $18,000 a year he is now supposed to receive. If a man's salary should be determined by his comical oddity as the star player, McGraw ought to have all he asks. It is said that, speaking upon the little Napoleon of baseball indeed, John T. Brush, by the way, $250,000, made $425,000 last year under John McGraw's control, and while Brush was hopelessly handicapped, personally. Capitalizing this amount on a 6 per cent. basis, the plant, good will, franchise and outfitters would be worth more than $7,000,000. This, of course,

A man with a capacity for finesse and plenty of time on his hands has "doped" out the composite standing of the American and National leagues for the past eight years. Here is the result:

AMERICAN LEAGUE.	W.	L.	Pct.
Philadelphia	705	491	.589
Chicago	672	544	.553
Detroit	667	580	.544
Cleveland	649	574	.530
New York	612	595	.507
Boston	613	617	.498
St. Louis	500	714	.412
Washington	455	767	.367

NATIONAL LEAGUE.	W.	L.	Pct.
Chicago	807	418	.659
New York	769	456	.628
Pittsburgh	748	480	.608
Philadelphia	603	613	.496
Cincinnati	592	632	.484
St. Louis	478	741	.396
Brooklyn	471	745	.387
Boston	418	799	.343

FRANCE now produces a pugilist named Mousieur Hogan, while Jeannette is an American as brown as a chocolate drop, to boot. Further convincing us that there is still a void in nomenclature.

* * *

AS predicted in this column two months ago, Eddie McGoorty proposes to "come back" in New York.

This time he very cautiously provides himself with an alibi by announcing that he is not in the best of form. After shadowing at McGoorty's gymnasium with Mike Gibbons, New York may be expected to swallow McGoorty's "go" with Freddie Hicks tomorrow night at the Fairmont Club, "hook, line and sinker." Proving not only that there is one born every minute, but that they're all incurable.

JOHNSON-WELLS BOUT IN PARIS IS IMPROBABLE

By JACK CONWAY.

BOMBARDIER WELLS, the English heavyweight champion, is a very much advertised young man these days. He is reported to be matched to meet both Luther McCarty and Jack Johnson. It is said that the Briton will clinch with the king of the "white hopes" in New York during the first part of March while he will swap punches with the dusky Terpsichorean negro in Gay Paree the latter part of June.

These notices make very good reading for people who would be unable to distinguish a boxing glove from a tennis net, but that is about all. Wells may possibly meet McCarty either in New York or on the Coast, but there is but little chance of his exchanging punches with Johnson.

In the first place, Johnson will probably never be permitted to show his prowess within the squared circle again. There are some people who believe that the authorities in France will stand for almost anything, but they are mistaken. A few people take the trouble to look into the matter, they will discover that there is such an institution as a Boxing Commission in France and also that the French people refused to permit a Johnson-Wells fight several years ago, when the champion was touring the Old World. At that time Johnson was 100 per cent. more popular than he is today.

* * *

THE second reason why a Johnson-Wells bout is next to an impossibility is because the Englishman is not eager to meet the man who made Jeffries look so bad at Reno. He undoubtedly realizes that Johnson, even in his present poor condition, would be able to win in decisive fashion.

Before Wells meets Johnson, however, he must vanquish one Luther McCarty, and, judging by the way that the big cowboy polished off Al Kaufman, Carl Morris, Jim Flynn and Al Palzer he has nothing to fear from the Englishman.

* * *

BILLY NIXON, the Cambridge lightweight, will complete his training today for his twelve-round bout with Gilbert Gallant of Chelsea, which is scheduled to take place at Manchester, N. H., tomorrow night. Nixon is reported as being in fine condition for the fray. He has been working with Bill McKinnon and Young Jasper at one of the local gymnasiums. The Cambridge boy's workout with McKinnon were with the idea of preparing him for the rushing battle which Gallant is sure to put up.

* * *

JOHNNIE MCGANN'S protege is confident that he will win from Gallant. In fact he not only believes that he will decisively defeat the Chelsea lad, but he also advances the information that he will win by a knockout. The record books show that Gallant has never been sent to the canvas for the count in his life and I hardly think that he will be knocked out tomorrow night. I have an idea that Gallant will be fresh and strong and fighting like a regular demon when the bell sounds for the close of the final round.

* * *

EDDIE MCGOORTY and Freddie Hicks will meet in New York tomorrow night. McGoorty performs well when pitted against a boxer who will swap punches with him, but Hicks is the nakedest kind of a second rater. He substituted for Leo Houck and fought (?) Dave Smith, the Australian middleweight and heavyweight champion at the Pilgrim Club last Fall and received a sound beating. Hicks spent the greater part of his time "stalling" and "covering up." It will also be remembered that McGoorty knocked out Smith, the man who beat Hicks so decisively, in one round in New York.

* * *

A SPECIAL bout in the 105-pound class between Johnny O'Brien of Roxbury, winner in the tournament at Brockton, and Jack Dooley of Cambridge, winner in the North Cambridge tournament, has been arranged for the Cambridge A. A. amateur show which will be held Thursday night. The other special will be between George Pritchard of Forest Hills A. A. and Val Greene of Cambridge.

The entries in the open classes, 115, 125 and 135 pounds, promise between fifteen and twenty bouts. The boxers entered are requested to weigh in at Institute Hall, Cambridge, at 6 p. m. Thursday night.

OXFORD 3600
WILL BRING YOU A
NEW GRAY TAXICAB
TOURING CAR OR LIMOUSINE

SIDELIGHTS ON SPORTS

By A. H. C. MITCHELL

R. W. LARDNER, who used to write baseball for this newspaper, is now in Chicago. In a recent article he declared that the White Sox are the speediest bunch of ball players in either league. He says the Giants come next and the Pirates are not far behind. Of the Red Sox he says:

"Speaking of Boston and fast running, it was only a few years ago that the Red Sox were called the Speed Boys. For title still sticks to them, but there doesn't appear to be much reason for it. McConnell and Lord, who were rabbits, are no longer claimed by the city of culture, and Wagner and Slight have probably slowed up with the flight of time. Harry Hooper is still a limited, and Speaker eats up the distance. Gardner is the other fast one among the regular world's champs. If young Henriksen could win a daily job, 'Speed Boys' might be a more appropriate title, for this youth doesn't have to get on the side track for anybody."

Lardner makes no mention of Carrigan and Nunamaker, it is noticed.

MRS. HELENE BRITTON, owner of the St. Louis Nationals, must hunt around for new scouts. The two trustees that were wont to rake the country with a fine tooth comb in a search for cubists Ty Cobbe, Joe Woods and Tris Spenkers, at the expense of Mrs. Britton, have quit their jobs. The scouts were Dick Kinsella and Bill Armour. Dick has gone to work for Mrs. John T. Brush while Bill has signed a contract to scout for Mrs. Havener, owner of the Milwaukee Club. It would seem as if Dick and Bill were partial to lady-owned ball clubs.

But before changing bosses Dick wrote a letter which in its way is something of a gem. He handed his resignation immediately after Roger Bresnahan had been deposed. Dick paid a visit to Mrs. Britton at Robison Field two days after the amputation of Roger's conch. Mrs. Britton wanted Kinsella to go to Milwaukee, where the minor league clubs were in convention, and sell a few recruits.

WHEN it came time to decide what players should be sold, Kinsella gave Mrs. Britton his opinion. However, he was over-ruled by other attaches of the club, who suggested that Mrs. Britton keep certain players Kinsella thought should go. Then Dick decided to quit. He went home and wrote his resignation, saying in part:

"I refuse to let lawyers, amusement promoters, stenographers and accountants advise me in matters of baseball. I suggested that you sell certain players, but your lawyers, amusement promoters, stenographers and accountants over-ruled my motion. So I want to resign forthwith."

I RAN across President McAleer and Vice-President John I. Taylor of the Red Sox in earnest confab. Both looked very serious. McAleer was talking, and John I. was nodding his head in sympathy. At times they looked up at the clear, bright skies and shook their heads sadly.

"Yes, sir, it's just our luck," McAleer was saying. "The fine weather is all coming now. In the Spring, when we open, it will be raining or snowing or sleeting, and the mud will be a foot deep."

Truly, the magnates have their worries.

PRESIDENT LYNCH of the National League tried to sign Hank O'Day when he was in Chicago last week, but the former umpire and former manager of the Reds held off, telling Lynch that he wanted further time to think it over. It is suspected that if O'Day consents to umpire again he will join the American League forces. President Johnson of the American League is very anxious to secure the services of O'Day, but he will not interfere with Lynch. If O'Day finally tells Lynch that he doesn't care to return to the National League, Johnson will then get busy.

ONE reason why O'Day is taking his time about it is that he still has a desire to invest in a minor league club and prove to everybody that he is not a failure as a manager. If he does secure a minor league club it is possible that he will prove a successful manager, but there are other things that it would be well for O'Day to consider. One of these things is money. Not all minor league clubs are successful financially. Many a bank roll has been lost monkeying with minor league clubs. At best the clubs do not make big money, and the chances are all in favor of coming out on the wrong side of the ledger. Besides, if O'Day should be successful as a minor league manager it would prove both the

PRIVATE SCHOOL ATHLETES LEAD AT CAMBRIDGE

The majority of the Harvard athletes come from private schools, according to statistics made public by the Harvard Crimson. A large number of these men, of course, attended a public school before entering one of the "prep" schools. The Crimson says:

"Of the 197 letters awarded in the last five years, beginning in 1907-08, in football, baseball, crew and track, sixty-nine per cent. went to men from private schools, twenty-seven per cent. to those from public schools and four per cent. to those entering from other colleges. The number of private school men holding letters is two and one-half times as great as the number of public school men.

"The list by schools in the five years under consideration is as follows: Private, 136; public, fifty-three, other colleges eight. The figures do not include letters awarded to managers or to players by a special vote of the athletic committee.

"The statement that public school men go in for studies, not for athletics, would hardly influence the decision for the public school men who have the ability to make one of our athletic teams and do not try for them because of studies are few and far between.

"A condensed list of the percentage statistics follows:

	Private Schools.	Public Schools.	Other Colleges.
Football	85	13	2
Baseball	51	47	2
Crew	58	42	..
Track	59	31	10

RUSSIAN WRESTLER TO COMPETE HERE

News of the success in this country of Zybszko, Lurich, Lemsky and other foreign wrestlers, and the present boom in the game in Boston, has reached the ears of Alexander Abeig, known in his home land of Russia as "The Lion." Abeig has written to Boston that he intends to come to this city as soon as he can arrange his affairs abroad, and while he does not expect to arrive in time for the present wrestling season, wants plenty of time in which to acclimate himself for the Fall campaign.

HARVARD-YALE PLAN CLASS CREW RACE

An innovation to boom the rowing relations in intercollegiate circles was given out in the form of an announcement last evening by Captain Charles Abeles of the Harvard crew. The victorious class crew in the interclass races at Harvard this Spring will be pitted against the winning class crew of the Yale competition on the Charles about the last of May.

TopGrip
—PATENT APPLIED FOR—COLLARS

The TopGrip is an original and patented device that holds the collar close together in front and prevents that unsightly spreading apart.
Simple and effective. Easy to put on and easy to take off.

With ample tie space.
Folgate....2¼ in.
Ask for it by name at
JORDAN MARSH CO.; KENNEDY'S; THE RAVAS SHOP, 6 Bromfield St.; SAMUELS, 69 Hanover St.; BARTLETT, 32 Hanover St.; KENNEY & SAVAGE, 2337 Washington St.

Sterling Collars
2 for 25¢

FELLOWS & CO., PRODUCERS.
The Oldest Collar House in Troy
Boston Office, 76 Chauncy Street

BASE HITS

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Manager Miller Huggins of the Cardinals, unwilling to meet the $7,500 salary demands of "Big Ed" Konetchy, his first sacker, today looked round for a chance to trade or sell him.

* * *

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—The Yale baseball schedule for this season is the longest in the college history. It calls for thirty-one games, opening March 21 and closing June 21.

* * *

PHILADELPHIA.—Mike Donlin, the singing outfielder, today signed his Philadelphia National League contract and at once announced that his club would be a contender for the pennant.

* * *

KEOKUK.—Monte Cross, formerly shortstop of the Philadelphia Athletics, has written to Merle F. Baker if this city applying for a position of manager of the Keokuk club in the Central Association. Several former big leaguers are after the Keokuk job.

* * *

CHICAGO.—Ed Walsh, the great White Sox twirler who pitched sixty-three games last season, has just told his manager that he intends beating that record this season. Walsh draws $7,000 salary.

BOSTON COLLEGE RELAY RUNNERS PERFORM WELL

The candidates for the Boston College High School track team had their relay trials at the Columbus avenue oval yesterday afternoon, and fully twenty-five of the fifty candidates out for practice took part in them. The time made by the boys was satisfactory to Coach Duffey.

Those who showed up to best advantage were: Captain Alfred Reilley, Simmons, Flanagan, McCarthy and Tom Burke, the Roxbury lad who excelled in the 1,000-yard run last season. The quartet that will represent the James street school in the open and dual meet will be selected from these boys.

Red Cross ✚ Cough Drops.
Nothing better for sore throats. 5c per box.

WINTER VACATIONS

Personally-Conducted Tours
THE IDEAL WAY TO TRAVEL.

WASHINGTON
January 31, February 21, March 14 and 21, April 11 and 25, and May 9
$26 from Boston
$22 for Tour of April 25; $18 for Tour of May 9

Seven-day trips from Boston and New England, including railroad transportation, state-room berth on Fall River Line steamer going and returning, all necessary meals en route, except dinner on steamer returning, and four and three-quarter days' hotel expenses in Washington.

FLORIDA
February 5 and March 5
$60 from New York

Tickets for February tours include railroad transportation, good going and returning only on Special Pullman Train between New York and Jacksonville; also Pullman accommodations and all meals on Special Train allowing two full weeks for independent travel in Florida. Tickets for March tour include railroad transportation, going on special Train and returning on regular trains within three months; also Pullman accommodations and meals going on Special Train.

PINEHURST
February 7
$32 from New York

Tickets include railroad transportation, good returning within eighteen days, Pullman berth and necessary meals going from New York and three days' board at Hotel Carolina, Pinehurst.

NEW ORLEANS MARDI GRAS
January 30
$100 from New York

An eight-day trip by Special Pullman Train from New York, including three days at New Orleans, for the Mardi Gras; a day at Asheville; a day at Chattanooga; and half a day at Birmingham, Ala., the Steel Center of the South. Tickets include necessary expenses.

For full information, apply to R. Macdonough, District Passenger Agent, 5 Bromfield Street, Boston, or Jas. P. Anderson, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, Pa.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

Enjoy Yourself

The Best Moving Picture Show on Earth

Book 3

Of Bud Fisher's

Mutt and Jeff Cartoons

For Seven Coupons

And Only 25c

It's a Scream—Sixty Pages of ROLLICKING FUN

Start Clipping Your Set Now!

BOSTON AMERICAN

MUTT and JEFF

Book No. 3 Coupon

AMERICAN PROMOTION DEPT., 5 Winthrop Sq.
P. O. ADDRESS, BOX 3047, BOSTON

Tuesday, January 21

A Set Consists of 7 Coupons of Consecutive Dates

When Called for, One Set and 25 Cents. By Mail 10 Cents Extra.

TRACK CHAMPIONS TO MEET IN BIG SPECIAL RACES

BOSTON AMERICAN SPORTING NEWS

B. A. A. TO PLAY IN SERIES FOR HOCKEY TITLE

Silk Hat Harry's Divorce Suit

Chicken Fanciers Are Not Wanted in Judge Rummy's Court

Copyright, 1913, by the National News Association

By Tad

B. A. A. SEVEN IN BIG SERIES FOR HOCKEY HONORS

Boston hockey enthusiasts will have a chance of witnessing a series of hockey games that will eventually decide the championship of the United States. The first game of this series will be played in New York on Saturday night, when the strong B. A. A. team journeys to Gotham to meet the St. Nicholas team.

The St. Nicks, tied for second position in the Amateur Hockey League championship, will have a pretty tough customer. Boston's most celebrated aggregation is represented by a number of Harvard graduates who have played together so long that they have effected a perfect combination. On the Arena they appear invincible.

Already the B. A. A. team has defeated McGill, Toronto, and the fast Ottawa team. These three teams compare favorably with the greatest amateurs of the country.

ANTLER CLUB TO BOOM EVERETT ATHLETICS

For the purpose of developing the athletic elements of Everett, a social and athletic club was organized by about fifty young men, to be known as the Antler Club, with club accommodations in the Woods Block, Everett square. Former well-known athletes already have joined, headed by William J. Brickley, Jr., the oldest brother of the famous Harvard athlete and himself star performer in many lines of sport from boxing to ping pong to the indoor games and from football to weight throwing in the out of door events.

AMATEUR BOXERS TO REST TILL MARCH 15

Manager Brown announces that there will be no more sparring tourneys at the B. A. A. until after the schoolboy meet. The B. A. A. track meet comes February 8 and the schoolboy meet March 1. The next sparring tournament will probably be held about March 15.

Diamond Safety Tread Tires Won't Slip — Won't Slide — Won't Skid —

YOU drive in safety and you drive with pleasure, the car is always under your control with Diamond Safety Tread Tires—

The cross and parallel bars have life and accident insurance built into them—and extra mileage that makes the safety cost you nothing. That's in your size to fit your style of rims.

Diamond Safety (Squiggee) Tread for Automobiles, Motorcycles and Bicycles.

At Your dealer's
The Diamond Store
857-871 Boylston Street

They Grip

Pennsylvania Is to Promote Big Relay Carnival in April

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 21.—The Penn relay games will come into this year, April 26 being the date appointed. The usual three races for the college championship of America will be scheduled, at one, two and four miles, with a silk banner to the winner and gold watches for the individual athletes.

There will be numerous school and college relay races outside of the championship class, and in addition the following scratch events, open only to college men, graduate or undergraduate, in which the first prize will be a gold watch: 100-yard dash, 120-yard hurdle, high jump, broad jump, shot-put, hammer-throw, discus, and pole vault.

These events are so high class that non considered capable of winning places will likely be asked to have their names sent in to Frank B. Ellis, the graduate manager of the meet.

DARTMOUTH SCHOOL MEET FOR FEB. 22

HANOVER, N. H., Jan. 21.—Since the completion of the new gymnasium at Dartmouth, the department of track athletics has held a series of indoor interclass meets. Because they proved so successful, and because the construction of the gymnasium permits of holding a meet, under good outdoor conditions, the athletic council has decided to invite the secondary schools of this section to take part in an interscholastic meet to be held February 22. The list of events is as follows: Sixty-yard dash, 300-yard, 600-yard, 1000-yard and one-mile runs; sixty-yard high hurdles; putting twelve-pound shot; running broad and running high jumps and pole vault. Special relay races will also be arranged.

TUFTS TRACK COACH CUTS RELAY SQUAD

Coach MacDonald of the Tufts College track squad announced yesterday afternoon that he had made the first cut in the relay squad. He has picked eleven of the thirty-five men for the relay team, although the others will be retained on the squad for the distances in which they are best adapted. Captain Atwater has been entered in the one-mile handicap race at the B. A. A. meet, Cosgrove, '14, will be entered in the dashes. Of the men retained for the relay team, four are seniors, Mansfield, Sterling, Flint and Whippen. The others are Prentiss, '14; Teele, '15, and the following freshmen: DeLaunet, McLellan, Heys, Holden and Gore.

TAD JONES FOR COACH AT EXETER

EXETER, N. H., Jan. 21.—It has been announced here that "Ted" Jones, the former Yale and Exeter athlete, had been engaged as football coach to succeed "Gus" Zeigler, who has handled the Exeter eleven the past two seasons. Jones is in business here and he at times had charge of the school eleven last season, doing good work with it.

CHECKER TOURNEY IS PLANNED FOR FEB. 22

The Annual Convention of Checker Players of New England will be held in the Amateur House on February 22. The usual match between Boston and all New England will on hold. This contest will bring together on each side upwards of 200 players.

LIMIT PLACED ON EVENTS.

It was decided at a meeting of the teachers' committee of the Boston high schools to confine the athletes to one track and one field event and a relay race at the Regimental school meet, to be held in the South Armory, Irvington street, March 15.

WHY NOT A PENWOOD

E&W

NOT TILL FEB. 1st, HOWEVER

STAR ATHLETES TO BATTLE IN SPECIAL RACES

By THOMAS J. HALPIN.

(Quarter-mile Champion of the United States and Canada).

Athletic followers throughout the eastern part of the country will have the greatest opportunity of all times for witnessing high class performances in track sports during the coming few weeks. More special scratch races for the different stars are scheduled to take place than ever before.

Beginning with the Suburban quarter mile championship, which is to be held in New York on January 25, the list of special races continues till the indoor National championships which are slated for March 9.

The Suburban quarter has assumed huge proportions in New York so that at the present time it has become the star attraction of the indoor season. This is the third year of the race and it bids fair to be the final one, as the trophy has already been won twice by Rosenberger, the great sprint champion of the Irish-American A. C., which club has entered Sheppard and Meyers in an effort to keep the trophy.

Closely following the success of this race comes the MacAleenan 1,000 yards special race at the Irish-American Club's annual games. This is a new race and is held for the first time this year. Already the experts are picking Al Kirian as the winner because there is not an athlete in the country who is stepping as fast over the 1,000-yard route as the Staten Islander.

It was thought at first that John Paul Jones would compete, but this rumor has been denied. Boston may be represented, but it is doubtful, as there are no athletes in shape to compete over this distance. Hedlund or Powers would furnish plenty of competition, but the local men will save themselves for the Hunter mile which is to be run at the B. A. A. games.

The Hunter mile is to this city what the Baxter mile is to New York. Kivlat has one leg on the trophy as has Oscar Hedlund, the former Brookline runner. Both will be starters again this year. The chances are about even for either athlete being returned a winner. Delaney is also an added starter and the prospects are very good for the Brown captain to finish in the lead.

66 HARVARD MEN IN ARMORY MEET

Sixty-six athletes of the Harvard varsity and freshman track teams have been entered in the Coast Artillery meet next Saturday evening. This is the largest entry from Coach "Pooch" Donovan's charges that has ever been made in a single athletic meet. There will not be a single event open to the public in which a number of the wearers of the Crimson will not compete.

BRADY TO CAPTAIN NEWTON ELEVEN

Charles Brady, who played right tackle, was yesterday elected captain of the Newton High School football team for next Fall. Brady was one of the strongest players of the Oranges and Black aggregation which finished in a three-cornered tie with Brookline High and Cambridge High and Latin for the Triangular League championship.

RICHARDS SELECTED ASSISTANT MANAGER

Thomas Kinsman Richards of the Class of 1915 has been elected second assistant manager of the Harvard varsity Fall football team. Next Fall Richards will rise automatically to the position of first assistant manager, George Faulkner Plimpton being the manager. Richards will be manager in his senior year.

E. B. SOCCER MEN RECEIVE LETTERS

The following members of the champion East Boston High School soccer team were yesterday awarded their letters: Joseph Carey (Captain), Joseph Cataldo, Peter Gross, Abraham Plashner, Davis Hoffman, Dan McBride, Henry Sheehan, Benjamin Santo, Benjamin Segsky, Joseph Battis, Norman Myers, Henry Smith, James Mc-

Schoolboy Teams In Relay Races at Big B. C. Games

Manager Heath of Boston College announces that entries for the open meet to be held on February 1 in the college "gym" close this week and from the present outlook the number of entrants will be the largest in years. The following high school teams will be in the relay races: High School of Commerce, Volkmann and Roxbury Latin in a triangular relay; Malden vs. Medford, or Boston Latin; Revere vs. Chelsea or Winthrop, and this may be made a triangular race as there is great rivalry between the three teams; Cathedral Y. M. C. A. vs. North Dorchester A. A.; Powder Point vs. English High pending; Boston College High School midgets with B. A. A. midgets or Brookline "Gym" midgets; Boston College High vs. St. John's Prep and Boston College vs. Tufts pending.

Pipe Dreams

By GEORGE E. PHAIR

DESERTED.

Still stands the forest primeval, the murmuring pines and the hemlocks,
Silent, deserted and lone, with never the sound of a footstep,
Never the thud of an ax nor the groans of a tottering pine tree.
Where are the lumberjacks gone who toiled in the dim-lighted woodland?
Far from the forest primeval, away from the pines and the hemlocks.
Fighting their way into fame with mitts for their ponderous hands hooks,
Posing as hopes of the race, they gather the kale of the public.

* * *

Frank Chance wants a new name for the Highlanders, despite the fact that they will be called several more or less appropriate names the first time they strike a losing streak.

* * *

In view of the location of their training camp, it would not be inappropriate to call Mr. Chance's athletes the Onions.

* * *

An Idaho legislator proposes to send fight promoters to jail, but why this unwonted cruelty toward the other prisoners?

* * *

Kid Broad threatens to burst into the game again, but we fear that he never will become a champion. He is tongue-tied.

* * *

Bob Perdue arises to remark that the Boston Pilgrims will finish in the first division, and thus far this sounds like real 1913 dope.

* * *

SPEAKING OF PHONOGRAPHS.

Sticks and stones
May break my bones,
But calling names is rank;
And get the groans
Of Thomas Jones
On size of a man a gate.

Speaking of the decline and fall of Larry Lajoie, the poor old originale batted only .308 last Summer.

* * *

Luther McCarty was welcomed back to his old home with a brass band. It is said that the band almost drowned out the voice of his manager.

* * *

"Nothing doing," quoth Sheriff Dunn, seating himself athwart the lid. Well Dunn, thou good and faithful servant.

* * *

Jess Westergaard has gone into the white hope game on the theory that he cannot possibly be any worse than some of the fourth-raters who are getting away with it.

* * *

SOME HERO.

He had a pair of swollen ears,
A broken nose, a ragged jaw,
Men greeted him with frenzied cheers
And children stood around in awe.

"Who is you lad?" I answered one—
"You here with the ballet head?"
"Why, that's the only champion
Who never trod the stage," he said.

Spike Kelly arises to remark that he is the welterweight champion of this here universe. He is, like Kelly is.

* * *

Mr. Kling neglected to retire from the game yesterday, but he is expected to make up for said neglect by doing it twice today.

HARVARD OARSMEN GET PRIZE CUPS

The Filley cup for the inter-dormitory rowing at Harvard was presented last night to members of the "All Stars" crew, winners in the series of races held last Fall. B. A. G. Fuller made the presentation at a smoker in Thayer Hall. In addition to the Filley cup, individual cups were awarded to C. C. Adair '16, R. C. Bates '16, F. B. Berry '14, G. G. Emmons '16, J. M. Graham '15, W. A. Kingsbury, '14, A. Waller '14,

WOLGAST NOW USING TACTICS OF BAT NELSON

By W. W. NAUGHTON.

W. W. NAUGHTON

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—Ad Wolgast has taken a leaf out of Bat Nelson's book.

It is not meant that Wolgast has torn a page out of "The Life, Battles and Career of Battling Nelson," but that he has followed the Dundee Dane's lead in a certain direction.

If Nelson is to be believed, he named a high price when asked to box Wolgast over at Richmond.

"I didn't want to fight and I thought they'd refuse to give what I demanded. They came to my terms and I had to meet Wolgast," the Battler explained. "It was the mistake of my life, for I wasn't fit for the ring."

Wolgast wanted $10,000 from Coffroth when asked to name his figure for a Washington's Birthday match with Tommy Murphy. It was more than the promoter could bear and negotiations were dropped by mutual consent.

"I got the figure high so I wouldn't have to fight," said Wolgast in confidence to a friend. "The real truth is I don't care about boxing anyone just now. The only thing that would interest me would be a chance to meet Ritchie."

Wolgast's ex-Ad apple as he felt. While he was still champion he was willing to box Frankie Burns for $8,500. He also agreed to meet Tommy Murphy for $7,500.

Now that he has lost his peacock feather he must know in his heart that he cannot command the same prices as formerly and the fact that he added $2,500 to the amount he was ready to accept for a bout with Murphy favors the belief that he merely wished to avoid the fight.

The opinion is held down around Los Angeles that Wolgast is nearly through with the boxing game. He went so far as to announce his intention of retiring but he was quickly sought out by Manager Tom Jones and prevailed upon to explain that he had not spoken seriously.

RING NOTES

CHICAGO—Luther McCarty will earn at least $250,000 on the kinge and in the ring within the next two years," says Bill McCarney, manager of the white heavyweight champion.

* * *

NEW YORK—Johnny Lore, the local lightweight, added to his long string of victories last night by defeating Leo Johnson in a fast ten round bout.

* * *

CHICAGO—Jack White has accepted an offer from Billy Gibson to meet Johnny Dundee in New York on January 30. It will be a ten-round bout at 128 pounds at 3 o'clock.

* * *

CHICAGO—Jesse Willard, who will meet Frank Bates in a ten-round bout at Fort Wayne, Ind., tomorrow, will complete his training today. The fighter and his trainers leave for the battleground late tonight.

* * *

CHICAGO—Ned Carpenter, the Burlington, Wis., heavyweight, and his manager, Bill Gawrell, left last night for Buffalo, N. Y., where Carpenter will box ten rounds with "One Round" Davis on January 28.

* * *

CHICAGO.—Johnny Billter, of Toledo, O., for years light-weight wrestling champion of Ohio, and a speedy soccer artist, the title, will meet Henry Wirth, of this city, present holder of the honors, tonight.

* * *

KANSAS CITY, — Luther McCarty, white champion, is seeking a match against Tommy Burns, former champion. The Burns bout is foremost in the minds of McCarty and his manager, McCarney.

To SO. STATION LIQUOR BARGAINS

Lewis Hunter 81 Rye, 85c
Manhattan or Martini Cocktails 75c
$1.00 other superior quality, per quart. 85c
Duff Gordon Sherry, $1.00 value, unequalled. Per bottle 85c

Sterne Bros. SO. STATION SUMMER STREET 171 Call, Write or Phone Or. 220

Nearest to Boston

Harvard Will Watch Baker in Order to Beat Princeton

Crippling on the eve of its big game tomorrow night with Princeton at the Boston Arena, the Harvard hockey team put in an hour's dashing practice last night in preparation for this important contest. The illness of Claflin, coverpoint, will assuge, has removed a very clever member of the team, but the other members of the squad were cautioned last night to forget this disappointment and to play hockey.

With the exception of the remarkable "Globe" Baker the Princeton team has not proved the wonder in the college hockey world this season that many hockey fans expected and if the Crimson seven can overcome the onslaughts of the peerless Baker their chances of capturing a victory tomorrow night are very bright.

Either Goodale, Brown or former Captain Wendell of the football team will play the coverpoint position for Harvard, with the chances favoring the former for first selection to start the game.

B. A. A. PUTS UP NEW CUP FOR SCHOOLBOYS

As the joint trophy offered by the Boston Athletic Association to the school winning the most points at its annual indoor schoolastic meeting has become the permanent property of Phillips Exeter Academy a new cup will go into competition this year. Exeter's star athletes, won the championship for the past three years, thereby securing possession of the old cup. The rules governing the event require that it must be won three times before a school can become owner.

UNICORN JUNIORS IN ARMORY MEET

Chairman George H. Billings of the Athletic Committee of the Boston Athletic Association announces that the B. A. A. juniors will meet the Roxbury Latin School juniors at the games of the Coast Artillery Corps to be held in the South Armory, Irvington street, Saturday night. Plans were completed for a race between the Unicorn midget team and the Roxbury Latin School midgets for the big B. A. A. games to be held in Mechanics Hall Saturday, February 8.

DALY MAY COACH AT NORTHWESTERN

Charles Daly, the former football star of Harvard and West Point, is mentioned in connection with a position as coach of the Northwestern University football team. Daly made a trip to the university, where he conferred with Harry Allen, head of the athletic committee.

Daly is one of the Eastern manager of an electrical concern in this city.

LINDSAY WINS MATCH.

In the first match of the members' senior squash racquet handicap tournament at the Boston Athletic Association K. L. Lindsay defeated D. B. Townsend in an exciting five-game contest. The score: 12-15, 15-13, 16-15, 18-16, 15-11.

WALDO BEATS PERCIVAL

In the tenth game of the 1 balkline amateur billiard tourney at the Elite Waldo defeated Percival 200 to 198. To night Albert will play Batchelder.

BANNON IS COACH.

DURHAM, N. H., Jan. 21.—State Representative James Bannon of Rochester has been engaged to act as coach of the New Hampshire College baseball team during the coming season.

YALE NINE AND HOLY CROSS TO PLAY IN SOUTH

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 21.—George Bruce Cotchyou, Jr., president of the Yale Baseball Association, has announced the schedule for the season. It calls for Yale to open its playing season March 21, a week earlier than ever before.

Yale will make an innovation of its Easter trip by playing two promising northern university clubs, Holy Cross and Pennsylvania, on the South.

The schedule:

March 21, Washington and Lee at Norfolk; 22d, Holy Cross at Norfolk; 24th, Pennsylvania at Washington; 25th, Georgetown at Washington; 26th, Georgetown at Washington; 28th, Virginia at South Orange Field Club at Yale field; April 2, New York University at Yale; 5th, Trinity at Yale; 9th, New York Nationals at Polo Grounds; 12th, Wesleyan at Yale; 16th, Fordham at Yale; 19th, Connecticut Aggies at Yale; 23d Colgate at Yale; 26th, Georgetown at Yale; 30th, Pennsylvania at Yale; May 3, Princeton at Yale; 7th, Brown at Providence; 10th, Princeton at Yale; 19th, Pennsylvania at Philadelphia; 14th, Dartmouth at Yale; 17th, Holy Cross at Worcester; 21st, Brown at Yale; 24th, Cornell at Ithaca; 27th, Williams at Yale; 28th, Cornell at Yale; June 4th, Harvard at Yale; 7th, Princeton at Yale; 11th, Harvard at Yale; 12th, Harvard at Yale; 14th, Cornell at Yale; 18th, Harvard at Cambridge; 21st, Harvard at New York (2 games).

HOLY CROSS HOLDS BASEBALL PRACTICE

WORCESTER, Jan. 21.—The first call for practice for candidates for the Holy Cross baseball team has been issued yesterday and the aspirants for battery positions were given a trial in the cage under Coach Dyer. The pitchers out are Robert Murray and Walter McManus of last year and the following new men: John O'Leary, John Milliken, Frank A. Curry, Bernard A. Murphy, Francis L. Garitska, Harold Daly, Stephen S. Dowd, John Christbohn. The following men reported for catching: Harold Carrol, John R. Murphy, John A. Creamer, Patrick Gorman, Ralph H. Carroll, Edward Costello, Thomas P. Long, John E. Hurley.

BOB UPTON WINNER IN POOL MATCH

Bob Upton of Salem, who has yet to lose a game in the New England pool championship tournament, defeated Ray Symonds of Lynn last evening at the White Bear Billiard Hall, by the score of 125 to 101. Charles Hindley of Waltham will play Arthur Weeds of Pawtucket tonight.

JOHN L. TO DISCUSS PORT OF BOSTON

John L. Sullivan, the old-time fighter and now a farmer in Abington, is to enter a new field. He is to talk to the business men in Abington on the subject how to commence in Abington the port of Boston. John L. will give his talk before the members of the Abington Board of Trade at their January meeting tomorrow night.

ELCHO

10 CENT CIGAR

The Elcho is the best 10c cigar in New England. Made of choice grown Havana. wrapped with Sumatra. Trimmed & Filagreed Mfg.

OLD CROW

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

RYE

ASK FOR AND SEE THAT YOU GET IT THERE IS ONLY ONE RYE

AND THAT ONE IS SOLD ONLY IN BOTTLES AS PUT UP BY US NEVER SOLD IN BULK. LOOK FOR THE WORD "RYE" IN RYE —REFUSE ALL OTHERS.

WE ARE THE LARGEST BOTTLERS OF OLD-FASHIONED SOUR MASH STRAIGHT PURE RYE WHISKEY

H. B. KIRK & CO., New York

NEWS OF ATTRACTIONS AT THE BOSTON THEATRES

CECILIA LOFTUS HEADLINER OF KEITH'S BILL

Cecilia Loftus, who has been seen in the music halls abroad, in Shakespeare and in grand opera, and who really likes vaudeville best, is the headliner at B. F. Keith's Theatre and is receiving her customary homage from Bostonians.

As the masterpiece of her mimicry she concluded with an imitation of Maude Adams in some of the latter's Grecian draperies, appearing upon the stage in flowing robes of white with bared feet and fillet, Her numbers were really all too excellent to make any comparison possible. Jane Cowl's big scene in "Within the Law," one of New York's successes, was perhaps the most serious of Miss Loftus' work. In a scene in the "Chorus Lady," Miss Loftus imitating to the most minute detail every word, every move, every facial expression of Rose Stahl. She also imitated Miss Elsie Janis in the latter's interpretation of how the divine Sarah would sing "Everybody's Doing It."

Eva Taylor & Co. in "After the Wedding" have a good little farce. James F. Kelly and Emma Pollock appear in "The Theatrical Agent." Dan Quinlan and Vic Richards in "The Quack Dentist" made fun for all.

Charles Cartmell and Laura Harris, clever and graceful dancers, got a big reception. Merle Fenton, the melody maid, sang and made five changes of costume.

The Three Gladdenbecks in gymnastic work. Lew Wells, an added starter, in monologue and saxophone solo and in eccentricous exhibition by the Wirth family, headed by Miss May Wirth, the seventeen-year-old Australian girl, rounded out the bill.

Gaiety Theatre.

The return of Billy W. Watson is always good news to burlesque patrons—at least, it looked that way at the Gaiety Theatre yesterday when Mr. Watson and his "Girls from Happyland" began their lively operations in fun and frolic. Mr. Watson, sometimes called the "Flying Dutchman," was very much in evidence during the proceedings. Of course, he was assisted to some extent by his girls from Happyland, who seemed to know just what makes good burlesque entertainment—and how to make it.

New Palace Theatre.

The patrons of the New Palace Theatre were given a treat yesterday when a new Italian picture was presented as feature film. It was "Anita," a story that began in America and ended in Italy, with romance, bloodshed and more than the usual amount of excitement to keep the spectators on their toes. There were many other attractive films and new songs on the bill.

PILES Quickly Cured

Instant Relief, Permanent Cure—Trial Package Mailed Free to All in Plain Wrapper.

We want every man and woman, suffering from the excruciating torture of piles to just send their name and address to us and get, by return mail, a free trial package of the most effective and positive cure ever known for this disease, Pyramid Pile Remedy.

The way to prove what this great remedy will do in your own case, is to just fill out free coupon and send to us and you will get, by return mail, a full sample of Pyramid Pile Remedy.

Then, after you have proven to yourself what it can do, you will go to the druggist and get a 50c box at once.

Don't undergo an operation. Operations are rarely a success and often lead to terrible complications. Pyramid Pile Remedy reduces all inflammation, makes congestion, irritation, itching, sores and ulcers disappear—and the piles simply melt.

For sale at all drug stores at 50 cents a box.

Free Package Coupon

Fill out the blank lines below with your name and address, cut out coupon and mail to the PYRAMID DRUG CO., 406 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Mich. A trial package of the great Pyramid Pile Remedy will then be sent you at once by mail FREE, in plain wrapper.

Name.....

Street.....

City.....State.....

Freida Hempel Makes Debut in Boston Opera

By FREDERICK JOHNS.

Freida Hempel, the celebrated German coloratura soprano, made her Boston debut last night in that fine old comic opera, "The Barber of Seville," John MacCormack, Fornari, Marcoux, Tavecchia and Leveroni made up a cast of unusual strength.

A lot has been written about Miss Hempel. Had she come untrumpeted we would probably be extremely enthusiastic about her, for she is unquestionably a great artist.

That she is the greatest living coloratura soprano, however, is altogether too high praise.

She is a plump and pleasing person, with bright eyes and blond hair. Her manner is vivacious and her confidence in herself is restful and contagious.

She is a fine singer of florid music. The fireworks that out Bassini served to manufacture, not only for the soprano, but for tenor and even baritone, come as easy to her as sliding down a collar door—easier, because I don't believe Freida could slide down a collar door.

Amiable Histrionically.

If we have any fault to find it is not with her art, but with the role she itself. Her middle register is exquisitely sweet and free from the cloddikes quality of Tetrazzini and other coloratura sopranos. Her lower tones are not beautiful. They are evidently produced with difficulty. Her high voice is ample and not particularly brilliant. The dazzling flute-like tone of Tetrazzini is not for her. Her high notes are soft and cooing, very pleasant but not exciting.

Histrionically she is very amiable. As Rosina she is up to all sorts of pretty tricks, and coos and purrs and does such as putting her thumb to her nose and wiggling her diamond bespangled fingers. That is a gesture that is not being done this year in good society.

Rossini's "Barber of Seville" is a hundred years old, but still going strong. The comedy got as many laughs last night as it probably did in Italy a century ago. It is highly probable that it was not as well sung and certainly not as well accompanied then as now. The melodies are still fresh and sparkling, and if the recitative is dry and the piano accompaniment to it funny, after our modern rich orchestration, it is still an enjoyable entertainment.

John MacCormack was in excellent voice last night, and sang the florid tenor music with much grace, although it takes a Honor or Constantino to get all that there is in it out. As an actor Mr. MacCormack seemed to have an unusual number of hands and feet.

Fornari Is Admirable.

Fornari is an admirable Figaro. His smooth baritone floats easily through the vocal breakers of the part. Tavecchia is the best of buffos.

Marcoux as Don Basilio sang extremely well, and in make-up looked just like an old black crow, which is the kind of bird that Basilio actually was.

In the music lesson scene Mme. Hempel introduced Adam's variations on a Mozart theme.

National Theatre Bill is Attractive.

There is a fine assortment of vaudeville at the National. "Leona," a fine impersonator of famous characters, has a pleasing voice, rendering classic music. And what a worker!

Then there is a fine crowd of juveniles, giving short sketches of prominent actors and actresses, such as Harold Warrold, George Cohan, Fay Templeton, Eva Tanguay and others. The Three Keltys Sisters also good; and "A Little Bit of Everything," by the versatile Jed and Ethel Dooley, wins, too.

Monahan the skater, Dean and Price, in their college sketch, and Graham, Copes & Kane, and others, all go to make up a good program for every afternoon and evening of this week.

Other features were Bixley and Lerner in "The Hebrew and the Opera Singer," with an operatic burlesque; Parro, who makes funny shadow pictures; Leona, the girl with the tremendous range in her voice; Winston and Wales, Monahan the skater and Cleo Esposito. The picture productions were especially good.

Premier Theatre.

Irish romance and tragedy was shown in the feature film at the Premier Theatre yesterday. It was "Colleen Bawn," a picture of scenic beauty and of vivid display and exquisite charm in its story. All the scenes were taken in Ireland, many of them on historic spots. The picture made a decided impression on yesterday's audience. There were many other features.

Waldron's Casino.

Al Reeves' "Big Beauty Show" furnished some lively burlesque at Waldron's Casino Theatre yesterday. The attraction will remain at the Casino for a week.

Howard Athenaeum.

"The Dandy Girls" furnished the burlesque show at the Old Howard yesterday. As an extra feature, Cora Livingston wrestled her way into favor.

Plays that Remain.

Ziegfeld's "Follies" continue at the Colonial.

"Milestones" remains at the Tremont Theatre.

"The Woman" began a new week at the Park last evening.

"The Garden of Allah" is now on its second week at the Boston.

"Disraeli" is nearing the end of its stay at the Plymouth

"BUNTY PULLS THE STRINGS" FULL OF JOY

By NICHOLAS YOUNG.

If the theatre could always be depended upon to yield such agreeable moments as were found in "Bunty Pulls the Strings" at the Majestic last evening, there would be little need of Drama Leagues and other unlikely bodies to keep the weary playgoer on his feet. "Bunty" was as fresh and delightful as a June morning, and as brisk as the January breezes we have been expecting for two weeks, but are still missing.

Getting down to the Scotch of it—and that is exactly what you do in "Bunty Pulls the Strings"—Graham Moffat's comedy brought the season's most delicious joy to Boston last evening. Its Scottish flavor was compelling—you had the sturdy Highlander on his own doorstep and at his best.

The pretty little homely theatre built in Tammas Biggar's household gave the audience something to smile at—and with. One could easily grow fond of Mr. Moffat's quiet characters, whose burred tongues, stern manners and keenly developed thrift kept you on an eager watch for the smiles that lurked in every corner of the play.

Wares Are Tempting.

Not in many months has a Boston theatre held more tempting wares toward the theatregoer than this "Bunty Pulls the Strings," which, while neither boisterous nor quick-paced, has already established itself as the most infectious of recent comedies. It is a comedy of manners—manners of simple Scottish folk of the early 60's.

It was more than a treat last evening to follow Bunty on her "string-pulling" conquest. You feel that perhaps she was almost too good, and certainly too smart, to be wasted on the slow-thinking Weedum, but you forgave Weedum's dull wit as the price of his wholesome contribution to the performance's amusing humor. Even Tammas Biggar, in spite of his severity, won a measure of your sympathy when it began to look as if Sandie Simpson, plain and angular, had him in a tight corner in that little matter of misusing her funds. Sandie didn't have a fighting chance, though. But Bunty was the genial Mrs. Fix-it of everybody's troubles, and out of her manoeuvres you got the best of your evening's fun.

The credit for a splendid first night performance must go to the company, which, we are told, came straight from Scotland—some days ago, to be sure, but straight from Scotland, nevertheless.

The Bunty of Miss Molly Pearson was sunshine itself. She was charming in all the delightful ways of a young woman attractive, and it was plain that her sense of humor was not displeasing to the author. Tammas we had Sanderson Moffatt, and, though he should be urged to look up a signature who can make hair that fits, it may be said that everything else he did with the role was true enough to be real.

An Episode of Life.

Ethelbert Hales gave Thomas Biggar the severity of temper that we have all read about in serious books of Scotch character—he also supplied a touch of human nature that made the character hold its own in every situation. Miss Vera Fowler's Susie Simpson was straight-laced and greedy, but she fitted nicely into the order of things. Amy Singleton, Margaret Nichol and Hamlin Dana made a good quoted generously by the performance.

After all, "Bunty Pulls the Strings" was merely an episode of life that held no dramatic moments, but which was full in wholesome humor, splendidly presented by a company of players evidently selected for their intelligence. "Bunty" will have no trouble in holding your interest when you decide to accept its invitation to meet its people face to face. And you will surely want to meet them.

Next Week's Bills.

Robert Mantell will come to the Shubert next week in a repertoire of Shakespeare's plays.

"The Drums of Oude" will be the important feature of the Keith bill next week.

PEACE HOVERS OVER OPERA IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—Chicago grand opera affairs resumed their usual trend today with the chorus singers' "strike" off and performances expected to go on now without further interruption.

TRIED and PROVEN!

O.D.C. X-Z-MA Remedy

—FOR—

SAFE, SURE, POSITIVE CURE FOR ECZEMA

And Kindred Skin Diseases.

$100.00 AWARDED FOR ANY DIAGNOSED CASE OF ECZEMA

THAT WE CANNOT CURE.

Price $1.00 Per Tube, Prepaid

SEND FOR IT TODAY.

O. D. C. COMPANY

Boston 32 WEST ST. Mass.

"Believe Me, Xantippe," at Castle Sq. Theatre

"Believe Me, Xantippe," the third annual Harvard prize play, produced by the John Craig Stock Company at the Castle Square Theatre last night, is a thirty-second degree laugh producer on cleancut comedy lines. This was strongly evidenced by the numerous curtain calls given the author and players.

John Frederick Ballard of Harvard, the author, has every reason to feel gratified over the reception given him and his prize-winning production. Equally praiseworthy was the staging of the play itself and the interpretation of its spirit of humor by the entire company.

"The plot of "Believe Me, Xantippe," hinges on a bet made by a young New Yorker that he can evade arrest for a year after committing a make-believe forgery. Following this "crime" he escapes to the Rocky Mountains, where he is captured by the pretty daughter of the county sheriff. Come then humorous situations galore, interspersed between his capture and the well-hidden clews.

John Craig takes the leading part of George MacFarland, alias MacClouis of New York City. He plays that part in such a perfectly natural manner that the well-balanced comedy rings true to life the whole play through.

Miss Mary Young as Dolly Hamman, the sheriff's daughter, also makes the most of a rather difficult part. Her acting in the latter half of the second act, when alone in a mountain cabin, she encounters the supposed criminal and captures him, single-handed, is unusually effective.

Donald Meek as Simp Calloway delighted the numerous admirers by portraying the part of a Western desperado as smoothly as though shooting up towns were his regular avocation.

Wilson Melrose as Arthur Dole, chief of a New York detective bureau, also contributed a goodly share of applause by his skilful impersonation. George Henry Trader as a New York lawyer, Walter Walker as Buck Kamman, a Colorado sheriff; Al Roberts as the jailer, George Munro as a valet, Mabel Colcord as Dolly's aunt, and Laurel Browne, Simp's friend, all contributed to the success of the play.

The dialogue and situations of the production are humorous, without descending to buffoonery, and there is nothing in the play that couldn't really have happened.

Grace Elliston in "The Lion and the Mouse."

A few years ago Boston theatregoers were delighted with Miss Grace Elliston's portrayal of Shirley in "The Lion and the Mouse." Last night many of them, some people saw Miss Elliston again. The same charm, the same force was there. She brought tears and laughter and her acting brought several curtain calls at the end of every scene.

Miss Elliston was supported by an admirable company and the performance was one of the most successful of the season. The plot tells the story of a brave girl who matches her wits against those of an unscrupulous financier, and wins.

As the financier, John Herbert Ryder, William C. Walsh was perfect as Hon. Elizzey Bagley, while Charles Abbe as Ronald Bagley and Henry Gordon as Alexander Scott appeared to good advantage.

Although appearing only in the first act, Hubert Druce as Mrs. Jessie Griffith and Emily Vachan as his wife, greatly strengthened the cast. Other members of the company who deserve great praise for their work are: Sydney Dudley as the Rev. Griffith Jones, Mrs. Jessie Griffith as Jane Deetle, Burke Symon, Raymond Greenleaf, Miss Bella Cairns, Miss Beatrice Loring and Miss Jessie Graham.

Orpheum Theatre.

The new show at the Orpheum Theatre was well received by crowded houses yesterday. The feature for the entire week was the Irish Fagers, direct from the Royalty Theatre, London, in a playlet of Irish life entitled "The Truth." George Armstrong, the happy chappy was another strong card. The bill for the last half of the week also promises to be pleasing.

Globe Theatre.

The management of the Globe Theatre may have doubled the attractiveness of a sixteen feature program last week before the first performances, but before the week was over all doubts were removed. The policy now seems a winning one. The program of this week will make many new friends for the house, for it is long and entertaining, and has a large number of novel features. Barnhold's Birds, with their "circle bird" was the feature of the new bill. Honors and Le Prince, eccentric comedy acrobats, were a big hit, and Dillon Brothers were forced into several encores. Silber and North pleased with their clever comedy playlet and Delmage entertained with his unicycle. Two Carlin Brothers, a trio of comedy sedians and instrumentalists made good, and the Pendleton Sisters and Horton, Regen and Juleson were included in the vaudeville list. The pictures, headed by the Globe Weekly, had a little more comedy than usual.

Scenic Temple.

New pictures and vaudeville made up the program at the Scenic Temple yesterday. Lena Howe's orchestra gave an incidental concert.

MRS. FISKE SCORES IN A SHELDON PLAY

Mrs. Fiske delighted an audience of Boston friends and admirers last night at the Hollis Street Theatre in "The High Road," which is regarded by many as Edward Sheldon's best play.

The play covers more than twenty-five years of a woman's life and mental development, and treats of many problems of current interest. Sex emancipation in its broadest sense is the dominating theme, but economic and political problems are also prominent.

The author designates his play as a pilgrimage in five parts. In part first is introduced Mary Page as the eighteen-year-old daughter of a narrow-minded, miserly and hard-hearted farmer. Into her life comes a rich young artist who awakens her inborn love for all that is beautiful. He persuades her to go away with him without thought of a wedding ring.

Part second finds Mary installed as the mistress of a sumptuously furnished apartment on Riverside Drive. Part third, two years later, finds Mary now the famous Miss Page, successful advocate of the rights of working women. The scene is the Governor's room in the State Capitol at Albany.

Part fourth shows Mary as the wife of Governor Barnes, now a candidate for the Presidency. But John Maddock threatens his defeat by refusing in the chain of sensational papers controlled by him the story of his wife's early love affair. The fifth part of the play shows the triumphs of Mary Page.

Mrs. Fiske has rarely in recent years given a more satisfying performance than that of Mary Page. It is a most exacting role in its requirements, but the actress was equal to every demand, impersonating the young girl with rare illusion of youth, and portraying with force and sincerity the woman of worldly experience and high sensibility. She received excellent support.

Grand Opera House

"The New Century" burlesquers, with Teddy Burns, moved into the Grand Opera House yesterday for a week's stay. It was spirited burlesque.

Bowdoin Square Theatre.

Big Jack, a boxing kangaroo, amused the audiences at the Bowdoin Square Theatre yesterday. There were several other features.

Hub Theatre.

There were several new vaudeville acts and pictures in the programme at the Hub Theatre yesterday. The bill will be changed on Thursday.

10,000 AT DANCE OF ELKS WITNESS 11 O'CLOCK RITES

Mechanics Hall was a scene of splendor when the 500 odd couples crowded the floor to take part in the annual ball of the Boston Lodge of Elks.

Patrick F. O'Keefe and his daughter, Anna, led the grand march. More than 10,000 people were present when, at the stroke of eleven, the toast was called for "the absent brothers." The orchestra was hushed and a single clear note signalled that the most impressive hour of Elkdom was near.

BREAKS a COLD, NEEDS NO HELP

Pape's Cold Compound cures colds and grippe in a few hours Tastes nice—Acts gently.

It is a positive fact that a dose of Pape's Cold Compound taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken, will end the Grippe and break up the most severe cold, relieve in the head, chest, back, stomach, and the entire body.

It promptly relieves the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, muscular soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Take this wonderful Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is nothing else in the world which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects, as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist can supply—accept no substitutes—contains no quinine. Belongs in every home. Tastes nice. Acts gently.

Welsbach LIGHTING SERVICE

BUY THE GAS MANTLE WITH THIS SHIELD OF QUALITY ON THE BOX

Look at the Box

when you buy a gas mantle. The box with this Shield of Quality holds the genuine Welsbach Mantle—the mantle that lasts longest, consumes least gas, and gives the brightest and most agreeable light.

FOR UPRIGHT AND INVERTED LAMPS

Best Quality, 35c. Others, 25c, 15c, 10c.

Sold by all Gas Companies and Reliable Dealers

WELSBACH COMPANY, Gloucester, N. J.

"She Stoops to Conquer" Given Fine Production

I love everything that's old; old friends, old times, old manners, old books, old wine.

—SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER.

Every now and then lovers of the best of the old comedies wonder how Kate Hardcastle and Tony Lumpkin are getting along these days. Playgoers that packed the Shubert Theatre not only decided that "Kate and Tony" are still in tiptop health—she as volatile and he as roystering as ever—but also had a chance to see Miss Annie Russell and her company give a splendid performance of Oliver Goldsmith's "She Stoops to Conquer."

Playgoers who love the old English plays, and particularly Goldsmith's mellow comedy, had a rare treat in seeing Miss Russell as Kate. It was one of those opportunities that Boston does not frequently on the stage door nowadays, for there hasn't been a Kate for ever so long. So that Miss Russell's work comes as refreshingly new. And it also classes her with the great Kate Hardcastles of the English-speaking stage.

It was the atmosphere of "Merrie England" that settled down over the audience. There was the good humor of the minxes in the old, hearty, bluff air of an old English country house—all the sparkling fun of the old days. And everybody feel that they were taking a "road to the yesterday" of the times of "Noll" Goldsmith and his chums in the days when playwrights in London a century and a half ago.

Miss Russell's acting and that of the rest of the cast was superb. They gave the original comedy a right touch of wholesomeness and sincerity. It was all so real that one could almost smell the hot "roast beef" in the English kitchen. No finer picture of good old English country life could have been presented. It has been years since "She Stoops" has been so well given.

Oswald Yorke took the part of Young Marlowe. George Giddens had the role of Squire Tony Lumpkin. The entire cast filled its task of adding to the success of the performance.

You surely want to see this good old comedy. There are four more chances—tonight, Friday night and Saturday matinee and Saturday night.

Loew's South End.

It is beginning to grow upon picture patrons that Loew's South End Theatre is different from most houses in the city—that it is larger and its programs are exclusive. For the present week, "The Mysteries of Paris" is offered as the Feature film and at yesterday's performances it was greeted with enthusiasm. This picture was one of those imported films that digs deep into a sensational subject and follows it through to the end. The underworld of Paris was shown in all its horrors, there were a dozen other interesting subjects on the program.

MARIA GAY WINS MONTREAL OVATION

MONTREAL, Jan. 21.—Maria Gay's Carmen was offered to the Montreal public at His Majesty's Theatre, when the Boston artist made her first appearance with the Montreal Opera Company. The Duke of Connaught and the Princess Patricia were present. Society turned out in full. The reception given Mme. Gay was one of the largest ever accorded an artist here.

"The House of Good Cheer"
SAVORY DINES
Rathskeller
Under NEW AMERICAN PLAN
MUSIC
12:30 to 2:30
6 to 12 P. M.
Open Until Midnight

Theatres.

At the Old Howard
DANDY
"Fine and Dandy"—When you pull this expression you mean to feeling pretty slippery and nothing else. Well, we're feeling pretty slippery now and that's just the impression we want to give you. The Dandy Burlesquers on the table. Cora Livingston and seven other girls. Let's all be there and see whether that she's the goods. Always something doing at the Old Howard.
CORA LIVINGSTON
The world's champion lady wrestler, will meet all comers in "Unknown" in special matches every afternoon and evening.
DANDY BURLESQUERS
With Sid Reed, Victoria Flour, Anna Vase, and others.

SHUBERT THIS WEEK ONLY
Eve's at 8:10. Wed. & Sat. Mats. at 2:10
ANNIE RUSSELL'S COMEDY CO. in "She Stoops to Conquer"
Tomorrow Night "The Rivals"
NEXT WEEK MANTELL
MON., King Lear; TUES., Hamlet; WED., Merchant of Venice; WED. Night, Richelieu; THURS., Othello; FRI., King Lear; SAT. Mat., Macbeth; SAT. Night, Richard III.

BOSTON OPERA HOUSE
TOMORROW, 8 to 11, JEWELS OF THE MADONNA. Soloists: Gay, Zenatello, Marcoux. Cond. Polacco.
FRI., 8 to 11.20, CARMEN, Gay, Fisher, Zenatello, Marcoux. Cond. Moranzoni.
SAT., 2 to 5.00, JEWELS OF THE MADONNA. Same cast as Friday Evening.
SAT., 8 to 10.45, RIGOLETTO. Sooner, De Cisneros, Lazaro, Bonelli, Scandiani, Marinelli, Conci, Moranzoni. Popular Prices.
Sunday Symphony Concerts, 3.15 to 5. Prices 25 to $1. Box Seats $1.50.
Jan. 26, Mme. Edmond Stojowski, soloist.
Downtown Office, Steinert's, 162 Boylston. Phone Oxford 2780. Tel. Orders.
Address Mail Orders to Box Office.

PARK 4th Week. Eves. 8.15. Mats. Wed. and Sat., 2.15.
BELASCO'S GREATEST SUCCESS
THE WOMAN

ST. JAMES THEATRE
Huntington & Mass. Ave. Tel. B. B. 262. Eves. 8. Mats. Wed. and Sat., 2.
Mme. Grace Elliston and Mr. James Cooper in the Great Drama
The Lion and the Mouse
Prices 15c, 25c, 50c, 75c. Branch ticket offices 149 and 207 Tremont St.
NEXT WEEK—THE THREE OF US

Castle Sq. Daily at 2.10 & 8.10 Tel. Tremont 9 or 10
Mr. John Craig Announces
THE HARVARD PRIZE PLAY
BELIEVE ME, XANTIPPE!
Prices 15c, 25c, 50c, 75c
Down-Town Ticket Office—15 Winter Street

SCENIC TEMPLE
Revised Ps. and Warms Air
Mats. 2:15 Eves. Con. 7 to 10:30
Admission 10c. All Seats Free

TREMONT THEATRE
Tonight at 8. Mat. Tomorrow
Last Week of ERLANGER Presents
MILESTONES
By Arnold Bennett and Edward Knoblauch.
Direction of Joseph Brooks.

NATIONAL NATIONAL SQ.
VAUDEVILLE Tremont, near Boylston St.
Biggest Show in Boston DOOLEY'S
Mats. 10c, 20c. Eves. 10c, 15c, 25c. LAWN PARTY

GAIETY BURLESQUE VAUDEVILLE
Week St., Near Boylston
BILLY W. WATSON

WALDRON'S CASINO
Matinee Str-ct
Near Tremont Row
AL REEVES BURLESQUERS

GRAND OPERA HOUSE New Century Burlesques.
Ladies' daily matinee 25c and 50 cents.

Theatres.

COLONIAL TONIGHT
Mats. Wed. & Sat.
LAST 2 WEEKS
ONLY MUSICAL SHOW IN TOWN
ZIEGFELD FOLLIES
Greatest Cast Ever Assembled.
ZIEGFELD ALL-STAR CHORUS

THRILLING MYSTERIES OF PARIS
LOEW'S SOUTH END
Washington and Castle Sts.
1800 Seats
LOEW'S
CONTINUOUS 1 P. M. to 11 P. M.
Balcony 5c
Orch. 10c

B.F.KEITH'S THEATRE
Positively Its Last Appearance in Years
CECILIA LOFTUS
The Inimitable Mimic.
May Wirth and the Wirth Family
Direct from Australia. Riding, Mirrors.
9—BIG VAUDEVILLE ACTS—9
Overture at 2 and 7:45.

HOLLIS THIS WEEK AND NEXT EVES. AT 8 MATS. AT 2 WED—SAT
MRS. FISKE IN THE HIGH ROAD

MAJESTIC TONIGHT
Graham Moffat's Quaint Comedy
BUNTY PULLS THE STRINGS
Tomorrow, Wed. Mat. Popular Prices. Best Orchestra Seats.... 1.00

BOSTON THE GARDEN OF ALLAH...
Evenings at 8
Mats. Wed. & Sat. at 2
PRICES: 25, 50, 75, 1.00, 1.50
Mail Orders Promptly Filled

PLYMOUTH THEATRE
Tel. Tremont 9 or 10
Eve. 8.15. Mats. Thurs and Sat. 2.15
Mr. GEORGE C. ARLISS in the Famous Success
"Disraeli"
Extra Mat. Wed., Jan. 29

GLOBE SIXTEEN BIG VAUDEVILLE ACTS
Afternoons 10-15
And Picture Feature
Evenings 10-15-25
Biggest Show in Town
10 to 10:45 P. M.

Tours and Travels.

NEW YORK $2.40
VIA RAIL AND BOAT
BAY STATE LINE
OUTSIDE STATEROOMS. $1.00 Extra
Connecting
GEORGIA and TENNESSEE
Daily, including Sunday—Improved Service
Ticket Office, 214 Washington St., Boston

To New York $2.50
Via Rail and Boat, Daily and Sunday
"THE ONLY INDEPENDENT LINE OPERATING BETWEEN NEW ENGLAND AND NEW YORK"
COLONIAL LINE 326 Wash. St. Phone B. H. 3000

FEEL FINE! LIVER RIGHT, STOMACH SWEET, HEADACHE GONE—"CASCARETS"

Cascarets make you feel bully; they immediately cleanse and sweeten the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your Stomach regulated, liver active, head clear, and you in a splendid condition for months. Don't forget the children.

10 Cents. Never gripe or sicken.

"CASCARETS WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP."

THE AMERICAN'S DAILY FICTION PAGE

SUNSHINE AND SHADOWS

A Thrilling Story of Life in a Great City

By Howell Poole

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Hannah Bale	Of Cherry Hill
Gommery Bale	A Pickpocket
Fudge	A Waif
Frank Wentworth	The Hero
Dick Gerson	His Chum
Dionysius Matherson	A Rich Man
Mrs. Matherson	Society Leader
Ruth	Frank's Sweetheart

PART I.

WHERE Nagh Water street runs from the Battery [illegible] of the New York [illegible] is [illegible] many [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

THE AMERICAN'S DAILY MAGAZINE PAGE

Getting Good Disposition by Modern Magic

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

O

The Transmutation

No Reason for Regret

"An Old Offender" By Nell Brinkley

Copyright, 1913, by American Journal Examiner

"And since my Lady Judge has taken up suffrage will she be 'La Belle Dame Sans Merci' to this 'Old Offender'?—and will the jury be as kind to him now that they are so very clever?"

H

So every little while he's up afore the judge on the charge of "CRUELTY."

He's an old offender, and since my lady judge has taken up suffrage and gone out into the world to broaden her mind will she be "La Belle Dame Sans Merci" to the "OLD OFFENDER"?

Can he play upon her heart with piteous, dewy eyes, and wet, red mouth, and a crystal tear a-shaking on his chin, as he has always upon the tender hearts of old-fashioned maids?

Will the jury be as kind to him, now that they are so very clever?

He certainly is always deep in crime, this little boy, this old man, this angel—but one's heart almost melts away like butter when he pleads his case!

NELL BRINKLEY.

Daysey Mayme and Her Folks

By FRANCES L. GARSIDE

A Means of Grace

THERE is always greater spiritual activity in the churches at the ending and beginning of a year.

As there are no calendars in heaven, it would seem that the preacher wants his calendar to show greater results before the year closes, or he begins a new one with many resolutions for greater activity.

In the season of experience meetings Mrs. Lysander John Appleton arose to give her experience.

As is customary she mentioned the heavy cross she bore. When a woman speaks in church of her heavy cross, it usually means her husband. But for once Lysander John escaped. Always a heavy cross, he was not the one that figured in this evening's spiritual parade of burdens.

"I have listened to the testimony of my sisters with great interest," she said, with a sob in her voice. "But I feel that my burden is greater than theirs."

As there is great rivalry in burdens on such an occasion the sisters listened eagerly.

"I enjoy bridge whist and I wish the sisters who have preceded me an unbiased opinion of a friend and I ignore an ace, king or queen, as lying on a par per at bridge who doesn't know a slam from a poker chip.

"I want to know if anybody else thinks the patience, their forbearance or their charity as great as a partner who trumps her partner's ace?

"The sisters who have preceded me have a cross like that.

Mrs. Lysander John paused in a breathless. "But I have borne that cross, I feel sent us some traveling through this vale of tears—for our good. I have seen" in front of me, though I was a partner in means of grace.

When I get a partner who backs or hands me his little interest as if I were a good hound, I hope my soul for an ordeal. I am not fed like to play. Then a lot of you don't see to it, to be merits in it, remember sisters, that the is good in all of us, and a scrape or put out.

"I play the game and I play not at my losses. I have plays every other session and lose few, but I am a sloppy and a better woman.

"Dear sisters, I recommend that you fortify your soul against the trials of this world by playing bridge with a woman who doesn't know one."

Cause of Rents

Greyhead: "It's astonishing that this earth was formed by volcanic action. Did you ever reflect that this very city was once in the grasp of raging seas?"

Jaggles: "Jerkin' Jesus! It says that's what created the present rents."

POSLAM IS THE RIGHT REMEDY FOR THE SKIN

Half Truth

By R. N. MILNES.

T

Little Bobbie's Pa

By WILLIAM F. KIRK

I WISH that gentle Pa or Ma or Sonny or some of them would keep from bringing fun home to the house. Just now I'm tired of Mayme. It is get books as I was a little boy & doant know any better, but sumtimes it seems like there's a too much sense baked in our home than I ever hear at recess at school.

Last nite for instans, there was a young lady calm up to the house say Ma, if she cud go to tea at a cafe. She kind of a new rout Pa always makes so much fun of. Those cafeine sed Pa develop their greenruses that cant crush them brunes them all the newspaper offices in the world. Let one of them studio pests go in & see a managing editor sed Pa, & he will find out so quick it will make his bed swing that he has nother get to go out & work. Then Ma sed she had to go out & get a new hat & Pa sed he cud save a lot of munny if she wud go bare-headed.

Thinking Deep Thoughts

My dear Sir, I to hear Pa talk that way about somebody people that goes to tea & talks there tea, but I guess Pa is right. I always the lady that calm to eat but she seemed kind of foolish to me. She was a awful sweet sight to look at, I cud see that Pa admired that

Do You Know That—

Nina French haunts on the German

In France last year the births exceeded the deaths by 35,000.

Safe Hints

A hot fluted with sour sources of sandpaper is a great help when it is a hot oven. When eggs stick to cups, macaroni to the baking dish, when vegetables or meat burn on the kettle; when flour and water dries on the table, or even when the coffee pot becomes discolored, instead of scraping, soaking, brushing or boiling, use a square of sandpaper, coarse or fine, as the case may require, and in few moments any persistent matter will be as successfully removed as by any other method and with a great saving of time and labor.

Lemons are cheaper and never place them near a fire while drying, as the heat will crack and contract them. If they are cut, mend them with a piece of this rubber on the inside with a little glue used for bicycle tires. When they begin to look old and rusty they may be restored to the original black by applying a little vaseline with a soft cloth with a flannel cloth. Always keep them in a cool, dry place, and wash, brushing in a cool, but lined with a cloth or wrapped in a piece of thin cotton.

Keep the wax [illegible] which

Pa Had No Chance

Pepsyring hands make it well nigh impossible for many persons to work on delicate fancy work. Persons so afflicted should bathe the hands in strong alum water before tasting up their work. The same treatment before putting on gloves will prevent their being spoiled by excessive perspiration.

Four Plexo Tubes FREE

If you will send us 12 cents to pay cost, pack'g & shipping, we will send you 4 of the finest and most scientific toilet articles ever compounded.

Plexo Greaseless Cream
Plexo Cleansing Cream
Plexo Evening White
Plexo Dental Cream

Address PLEXO, 14 Vesey St., New York

WOMAN COULD NOT WALK

She Was So Ill—Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Pentwater, Mich. "A year ago I was very weak and the doctor said I had a serious displacement. I had backache and bearing down pains so bad that I could not stand up, a chair or bed across the floor and I was in misery night all the time. I felt discouraged as I had better ever thing I could. Then I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and found I was getting better. I kept on taking it and am now well and strong." Mrs. [illegible]

What Another Woman says:

"I had such bearing-down pains I could not stand on my feet. I had lots of trouble and feeling that no one could help me. I had a terrible dull headache and was so nervous that I could not sleep and would make me feel worse and sleepy all the time, yet I could not sleep at night.

"I was advised to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after using a week I began to feel better. The backache was less and less. The feeling in my side went away. I continued to take the Compound and am entirely cured.

"I wish you to publish this if you wish." — Mrs. Anna Gauwitz, R.R. No. 4, Pentwater, Mich.

For 30 years the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been proved by the testimony of grateful women. If you don't you try it?

GETTING GRAY?

How to Restore Youthful Color of Your Hair.

There is a simple and easy way to restore the natural color of the hair. Anyone can use the Queen Gray Hair Restorer. A small preparation that gives any desired shade from the one package, leaving the hair soft and glossy and having a lasting color and is not sticky and does not rub off.

The Queen Gray Hair Restorer does its work so quickly and easily that it is used and sold by the best hair dressers. But one application is all that is necessary to restore your hair to its natural color and glossy beauty. Ask for it at Hudnut & Dutton and [illegible] department stores throughout the country.

ONE HUNDRED WAYS FOR WOMEN TO EARN MONEY AT HOME—A fifty-page booklet by Mabel Barclay Ury will be sent postpaid to any address upon receipt of ten cents in stamps to cover cost of mailing and handling. Address BOSTON AMERICAN PROMOTION DEPARTMENT, No. 8 Winthrop square, Boston.

WHOOPING COUGH

SPASMODIC CROUP BRONCHITIS ASTHMA CATARRH COUGHS COLDS

Vapo-Cresolene

ESTABLISHED 1879

A simple, safe and effective treatment for Bronchial troubles, and dreadful Whooping Cough. Cresolene stops the paroxysms of Whooping Cough at once. It is a boon to sufferers from Asthma. Cresolene relieves the spasmodic attacks, inspired with every breath, makes breathing easy, relieves the sore throat and stops the cough, assuring restful nights to the anxious mother and her little ones. Cresolene is in no sense a patent medicine. Send for descriptive booklet.

ALL DRUGGISTS.

Trial outfit by mail, 10c. in stamps. Antiseptic Vapor from the Cresolene. Sold by druggists.

VAPO-CRESOLENE CO. 62 Cortlandt St., N. Y.

Avoid Impure Milk

For infants and invalids

Get

HORLICK'S

It means the Original and Genuine

MALTED MILK

"Others are Imitations"

The Food-Drink for all Ages.

Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form. For infants, invalids and growing children. Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body. Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged.

More healthful than tea or coffee. Agrees with the weakest digestion. Keep it on your sideboard at home. A quick lunch prepared in a minute.

Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S.

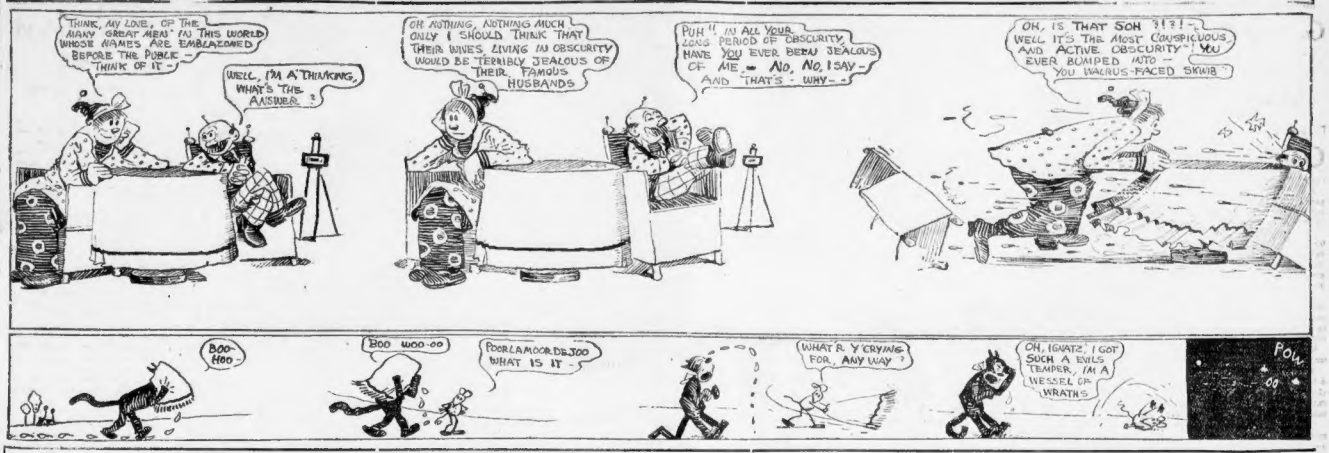
HORLICK'S Contains Pure Milk

The Dingbat Family

Wives of Great Men Oft Remind Us—

Copyright, 1913, by the National News Association

By Herriman

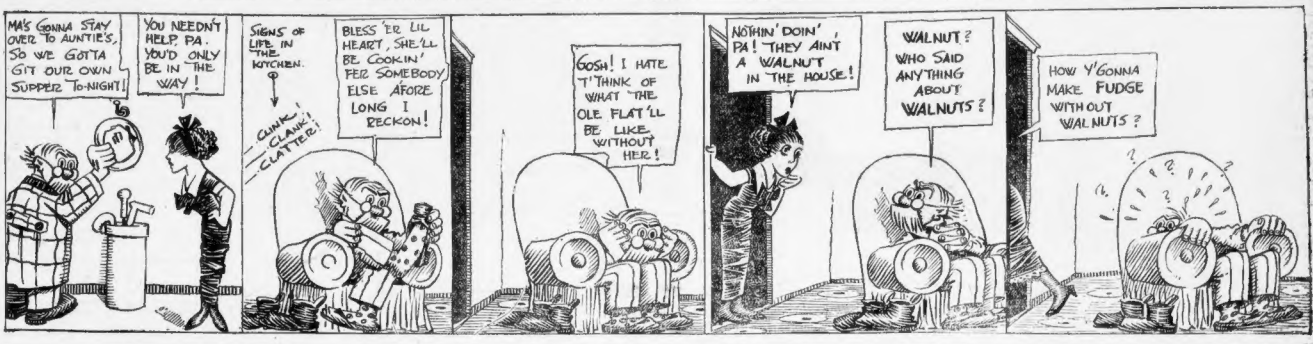


Polly and Her Pals

Sure, She'll Cook the Supper

Copyright, 1913, by the National News Association

By Cliff Sterrett



Sherlocko the Monk

The Episode of the Fiancee's Chafing Dish

Copyright, 1913, by the National News Association

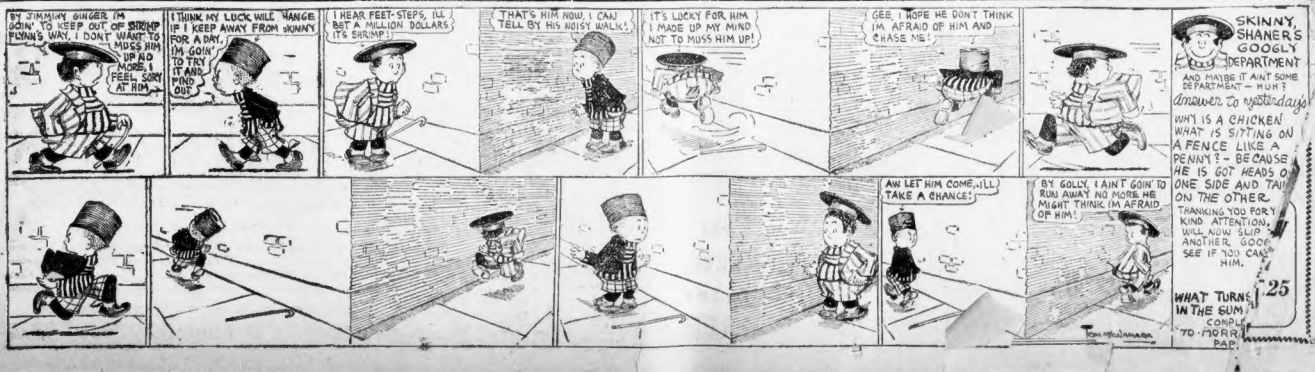
By Gus Mager

Us Boys

All Around the Block

Registered United States Patent Office

By Tom McNamara



Stock Prices; Financial News

Prices for securities were firmer when markets opened today, but there was not much demand for stocks anywhere. In the local market there was more confidence in trading, but coppers were lethargic. The London metal market had no spasm at the start, and that contributed to steadiness here.

Butte & Superior was comparatively active and made gains during the first hour, as did Granby, Calumet & Arizona and a few other leaders.

The tendency in New York was upward during that period, but trading was limited and gains mostly fractional.

There is not much buying of copper and a good deal of uncertainty exists as to prices for the months ahead.

In the New York cotton market, prices were 9 to 11 points higher at the opening, when trading was active, and there was heavy buying of March by traders representing cost interests. Shorts were evidently nervous. Futures and spot were steady in Liverpool.

Prices Open Higher in New York.

Leaders ranged higher when the New York market opened and the tone was steady as regards the list as a whole. This was in the face of limited demand for stocks. American Tobacco was again the early feature, advancing 4¼ points.

In the first few minutes Steel gained from ⅛ to ⅝, but rallied to follow the London lead, where it was very strong on purchasing for Berlin account. Among the other gains here were Western Union ⅝, Utah Copper ⅛, Steel pref. ¼, Union Pacific ¼, Texas and Pacific ⅛, Southern Pacific ⅛, Amalgamated ⅛, American Telephone and Telegraph ⅛, Canadian Pacific ⅛, C. & O. ⅛, St. Paul ¼, General Electric ¼, Great Northern pref. ¼ and Reading ⅛.

Lehigh Valley began unchanged, lost ¼ and then recovered. Inter-Metropolitan certificates were ⅝ off, R. & O. and Anaconda Copper were unchanged.

The curb was firm. So were Americans in London.

The New York Sub-Treasury gained $1,810,000 from the banks yesterday and since Friday has gained $3,381,000.

There is persistent circulation in Baltimore of the rumor that the New York Central is preparing to take over the Western Maryland, despite the denial of President Fitzgerald of the latter road that such an absorption is pending.

Copper Metal Steady in London.

The London copper metal market opened steady, with spot and futures unchanged.

It is reported in New York that there were sales yesterday by second hands of copper at the rate of 15¾ cents a pound cash. The transactions are understood to have been small. In fact, so far as have been ascertained, there were no big transactions at any price.

The 16½ rate appears unstable, as American Smelting interests are said to have quoted the metal in London at an equivalent of 16⅜ cents. Consumers are not convinced that the price has reached bedrock.

Stocks Slump in Germany.

It is cabled from Berlin by the financial correspondent of Reuter's Agency that Balkan and other news has caused the selling tendency of securities. He says: "The selling tendency has been promoted by American iron and copper news and the weakness in Wall Street.

"President-elect Wilson's utterances are also being watched with growing concern by our traders.

"Regarding the copper situation, however, Berlin's view is that the market has already well over discounted the statistical position.

"Reports from German, English and Austrian iron markets have recently been of such a nature as to magnify the unfavorable effect of American trade reports.

"The money situation is less satisfactory, less of gold by the Bank of England having blighted hopes of an early reduction in the official rates of the English bank and the Reichsbank."

Financial News in Brief.

Stockholders of the Westinghouse Air Brake Company, Ltd., of London, will get an extra dividend of 5 per cent. besides a regular semi-annual dividend of 10 per cent. for the first half of 1913.

In two years the unfilled tonnage of the United States Steel Corporation increased from 2,674,757 tons on January 1, 1911, to 7,935,164 on the first of this year. The increase was 5,257,407 tons, or 200 per cent.

The Pennsylvania road has ordered forty more freight locomotives of the largest type from the American Locomotive Company.

Money was loaned for a year in New York yesterday at 4½ per cent.

Dividends declared within about six months on its $30,000,000 stock by Standard Oil of Indiana total 20 per cent. This is the subsidiary which increased its capitalization $20,000,000 after being fined that much. It never paid the fine. It cut a melon of $20,000,000 for the benefit of stockholders instead. The melon was edited, but watered.

Imports totalled $1,817,062,240 in 1912, against $1,532,350,180 in the previous year; while 1912 exports totalled $2,339,965,975, compared with $2,092,740,000 in 1911. Last year, in fact, was a wonderful one for this country as regards foreign trade.

A London correspondent says President-elect Wilson has been described in the British capital as "an armchair socialist who may spoil a great deal in his efforts to improve the lot of mankind."

It is estimated that Panama Canal needs this year will call for an appropriation of about $28,000,000.

Arthur S. Leland & Co., bankers and brokers, have issued a Pocket Manual of Dividends for the year 1912, and another interesting financial publication is the Investor's Pocket Manual, published by Gay and Sturgis.

In December last Baltimore and Ohio's net operating revenue increased $220,776, compared with the last 1911 month. The increase for six months was $1,160,035. It is estimated that outside operations will show a deficit in net of $70,000 for December, compared with $55,737.88 for that month in 1911.

The Bethlehem Steel Corporation will issue between $2,000,000 and $7,000,000 of bonds per cent. basis in the near future for the financing of steamships that are to be used for carrying ore from the new Chilean properties to its plants.

BOSTON STOCKS.

Following is the range of prices to 11:15 for leading Boston stocks:

RAILROADS.

	High.	Low.	11:15
Boston Elevated	112¾	112¼	112¾

TELEPHONES.

American	133¾	133¼	133¾
Mass. Gas	76	76	76
New England	157	157	157

MISCELLANEOUS.

United Fruit	117	117	117

MINING STOCKS.

Arizona Commercial	3¼	3¼	3¼
Calumet & Arizona	65	64¾	65
Calumet & Hecla	684½	678	684
Mohawk	52	52	52
Nevada Con.	18	18	18
Shannon	11¾	11¾	11¾

UNLISTED SECURITIES.

Amalgamated	71⅞	71⅝	71⅞
Am. Zinc	27⅛	27⅛	27⅛
Boston Corbin	5½	5½	5½
Butte & Superior	34¾	32⅝	33⅜
East Butte	15	15	15
Hancock	20	20	20
Hedley	28	28	28
Lake Copper	20	20	20
Pond Creek	25	25	25
U. S. Smelting	40½	40⅝	40½
Tuolumne	3¼	3¼	3¼

BOSTON CURB.

Following is the range of prices to 11:15 for leading Curb stocks:

QUALIFIED LIST.

	High.	Low.	11:15
Bay State Gas	22c	22c	22c
Boston Ely	98c	96c	98c
Butte Central	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
Calumet	3	3	3
Davis Daly	1⅞	1 19-16	1⅞
First National	2¾	2¾	2¾
La Rose	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
Majestic	45c	45c	45c
Mexican Metals	1 15-16	1 15-16	1 15-16
Yukon Gold	5	5	5

UNQUALIFIED LIST.

Alaska Gold	14	13½	14
Lacaste	9c	8c	9c
Lion Hill	95c	93c	95c
Nev. Douglas	2⅞	2⅞	2⅞
Silver Leaf Cobalt	6c	5c	5c
Smoky Devil.	2⅞	2⅝	2⅞

FORBES GIVES DEFINITION OF 'BIG BUSINESS'

By B. C. FORBES.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—What is "Big Business?" Corporations. And who own the corporations? A handful of soulless millionaires? Not at all.

* * *

The American has gathered official figures showing that $10,000,000,000—ten billion—railroad and industrial stock is in the hands of one million stockholders. The average amount held is thus only one hundred shares. If we take ALL the capital stock of American corporations—say, 25 billions—and we use the actual returns of stockholders on a basis, we will arrive at an aggregate of some 2,500,000 stockholders.

* * *

Add to this the number of bond holders, say, 1,500,000, and we have a grand total of 4,000,000 security holders.

* * *

Regarding each security holder as the head of a household, and allowing only five to a family, we have 20,000,000 people directly interested in the securities of American corporations.

* * *

That means that one in every five of our whole population is interested in corporate securities.

* * *

Nor does the story end there. Every savings bank depositor draws his interest, not from the coffers of the banks—bank vaults do not produce interest—but from the profits of corporations. The savings banks of five Eastern States are carrying, it has been brought out, $1,000,000,000 railroad securities alone. The savings banks are thus part of "Big Business."

* * *

You doubtless are insured. Then you are part of "Big Business," for insurance companies invest billions upon billions in securities of corporations and must depend upon the income therefrom to meet death, accident and other claims. Perhaps each member of your family has had or is having the benefit of a university education. There also you are intertwined with "Big Business," for the universities likewise depend largely for income upon dividends on corporate stocks and interest on corporate bonds.

* * *

Maybe you have been brought from sickness to health through the skill and the nursing bestowed upon you in one of our great hospitals? If so, the chances are that you have been benefited by "Big Business," for hospitals have been generously endowed with securities or have invested large sums in them and now income from the profits of corporations. And so it is with other charitable and benevolent institutions.

* * *

Then, what of wage earners? How many men and women are in the employment of corporations? The United States Steel Corporation alone has over 200,000 employes—it has had 250,000 in really good times, if I remember correctly. The railroads have 1,700,000 on their pay rolls. In short, corporations are by far the greatest employers of labor in the country. If corporations are prospering the demand for labor is very keen and wages tend to rise; if corporations are suffering from depression the demand for labor is poor and wages tend to fall.

* * *

When, therefore, the Big Stick is flourished over the head of "Big Business," when corporations are attacked angrily and indiscriminately, when business men are berated and stigmatized as malefactors and robbers, when industry is thrown into a panicky state, the worst sufferers are not a few ultra-rich men whose bank accounts can stand the strain, but millions of investors in bonds and stocks, and many millions of workers, to say nothing of still more millions of bank depositors, holders of insurance policies, beneficiaries of hospitals and other benevolent institutions—in short, practically the whole population.

* * *

Without heat, without rancor, without prejudice, I would commend calm consideration of these facts and figures to those who are eager to "wreak big business" without counting the cost or giving even one thought as to whose heads the blows will fall with the greatest severity.

* * *

Let us have reforms, by all means; but let us approach them in a spirit of fairness and with a proper sense of the vast interests involved and in no spirit of revenge. If the business boat be rocked overviolently the "captains of industry" will not be the only ones thrown in the water. We are all in the same boat, even if some of us do not yet know it.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Following is the range of prices to 11:15 for leading New York stocks:

RAILROADS.

	High.	Low.	11:15
Atch., T. & S. F.	104¾	104¼	104¾
Brooklyn Rap Tr	89½	89¼	89½
Canadian Pac.	242¾	241¾	242¾
Chic., M. & St. P.	112¾	112¼	112¾
Erie	30½	29½	29½
Gt. Northern pf.	127¼	127¼	127¼
Int-Metropol.	17⅝	17	17⅛
Int. Met. pf.	59½	59	59½
Lehigh Val.	150¾	150¼	150¾
Northern Pac.	118¾	118⅛	118¾
Pennsylvania	122¾	122	122¾
Reading	163	162¾	162¾
Rock Island	21⅝	21¼	21¼
Rock Island pf.	38	37¾	38
Southern Pacific	104¾	104¼	104¾
Union Pacific	157⅝	157⅜	157⅝

INDUSTRIALS AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Amal. Copper	71⅞	71¾	71⅞
Am. Car & Fdy.	50¾	50½	50¾
Am. Sm. & R.	71⅝	71½	71⅝
Am. Sug. Ref.	115⅞	115⅝	115⅞
American Can	27½	27½	27½
Anaconda Copper	36⅝	36½	36⅝
Mex. Petroleum	71⅞	71¾	71⅞
Northern Ore	38	38	38
U. S. Rubber	65⅛	65¼	65⅛
U. S. Steel	62⅞	62⅝	62⅞
U. S. Steel pf.	109⅝	109¼	109½
Utah Copper	54⅛	54¼	54⅛
West. Un. Tel.	70¾	70⅝	71

WESTINGHOUSE
Electric & Manufacturing Company
New York, December 20, 1912.
A dividend of FOUR PER CENT. on the COMMON STOCK of this Company for the quarter ending December 31, 1912, will be paid January 20, 1913, to stockholders of record at the close of business, December 31, 1912.
T. W. SIMSON, Treasurer.

NATION-WIDE DEMAND FOR OIL LETTER FILES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Thousands of letters are being received by Senator Moses E. Clapp, chairman of the Senate Committee which has been investigating the famous Archbold correspondence, demanding that the Standard Oil letter files be produced for the inspection of the committee, as suggested editorially by the AMERICAN.

Not only has Senator Clapp's office been flooded with copies of the AMERICAN'S editorial signed with the names and addresses of the senders, but the majority of clippings are accompanied by letters which demand further action on the part of the investigators.

The communications are from all parts of the United States and in many instances the letters are written on stationery individual letters from persons who were inspired to write by that publication," said Senator Clapp today.

"I consider the letters such a genuine expression of public sentiment that I am not ashamed to send a personal reply to everybody who has written me.

"Public sentiment crystallized as it seems to be on the matter must be heeded as the only natural basis for the law of the country.

The next regular meeting of the Clapp Committee will be held Thursday. John D. Archbold has been invited to be here on that date and there is reason to believe that a formal demand will be made then for the additional secret records of correspondence of the same character as that exposed in the Hearst newspapers and magazines.

May Subpoena Archbold.

Senator Clapp declined to make known any part of his plans but the committee as a whole has practically it to become known that if Mr. Archbold does not answer the invitation to testify and a subpoena will be issued requiring his presence in Washington forthwith.

The substance of the editorial letters suggested by the AMERICAN and associated newspapers which has stirred the Clapp Committee to renewed action in the matter of Standard Oil letters, was as follows:

Why not require Mr. Archbold to produce for the inspection of your committee all of his letter press books since 1890? Then you can quickly and surely find out whether he wrote to other Senators and Congressmen letters like these to Foraker, Sibley and Penrose inclosing certificates of deposit.

TODAY'S LATE CABLE NEWS

King George and Queen Mary to Visit Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG—Announcement was made today that King George and Queen Mary of England will visit Russia in June. It is expected that the British royal couple will pay a round of visits in Europe, going to Paris, Rome and Berlin.

Try to Steal $400,000 Pearls.

LONDON—A determined attempt was made to steal $400,000 worth of pearls from the jewelry store of Mark Rubin, Scotland Yard believes it was the work of American thieves, who left behind the most elaborate set of electrical tools and appliances ever seen by the London police.

Sell Egyptian Antiquities.

LONDON—The first of a five-days' sale at Sotheby's of the Egyptian antiquities belonging to Robert De Rustafjaell realized $10,000. One of the best specimens, Pernebi bought for $310 a finely sculptured slab in white marble, with the upper part of a figure of Cleopatra.

Polar Novelty for Swiss.

GENEVA—A novelty of the coming Alpine season will be sleighs drawn by Siberian dogs on the Jungfrau and the Aletsch glacier. They will give visitors the idea of the appearance of ice and snow in Greenland.

Shackleton's Brother Arraigned.

LONDON.—F. R. Shackleton, a brother of Sir Ernest Shackleton, the famous Antarctic explorer, was arraigned in Bow street police court today charged with misappropriation of $5,000 from an estate.

Miss Beresford to Marry.

VIENNA—The engagement is announced of Miss Kathleen Beresford, eldest daughter of Lord Charles Beresford, to General Edmund Blaque Pacha, son of the well known Turkish diplomatist.

To Sell Nelson's Letter Book.

LONDON—Lord Nelson's official letter book from February to October, 1801, will be auctioned in London shortly. It covers the Baltic campaign.

Carter Buys a London House.

LONDON—John Ridgely Carter, recently American Minister to Roumania, has purchased the house at No. 3 Great Cumberland place, London.

Two Killed in Belgian Wreck.

BRUSSELS—Two persons were killed and 60 were injured in a railroad wreck near Louvain, twenty miles east of here, today.

23,000 Locked Out in Spain.

MADRID—A lockout affecting 23,000 men was declared today in the iron and building industries in Spain.

Princess Victoria Engaged.

POTSDAM—The engagement is announced of Princess Victoria Margarete, daughter of Prince Friedrich Leopold of Prussia, to Prince Henry of Reuss.

Another Rothschild to Wed.

PARIS—James de Rothschild is engaged to Dorothy, eighteen-year-old daughter of Eugene Pinto, a noted London financier.

Admiral von Hollmann Dead.

BERLIN.—Admiral von Hollmann, German minister of marine from 1890 to 1897, died today, aged seventy-three.

MOTOR COMMERCIAL VEHICLES SHOWN BY 65 MAKERS IN NEW YORK

By J. C. KERRISON.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—No less than sixty-five manufacturers of motor commercial vehicles are now making displays of their products at Part 2 of the Motor Show, which opened this last evening. Of this number twenty-five makers are displaying about 150 different models in Madison Square Garden and forty makers are exhibiting 125 machines in the Palace.

The commercial vehicle department seems to be as great a branch of the industry as the pleasure section, and whereas a few years ago these exhibits were rarities they have now become so commonplace as to attract little more than passing notice from the crowds of the big affairs.

The great increase in motor trucks during the past two years has been caused by the fact that practically all the many business men, who, realizing the increased efficiency of their delivery systems have been very quick to demand the latest in this line.

Many exhibits bring out many interesting features, one of which is the tendency to adopt the worm-drive, especially for light trucks. Today there are ten makes of trucks of one to two-ton capacity that are using the worm-drive, which was featured by the Pierce company some two years ago by the Pierce company.

The double-chain drive has always been considered the best, and in view of what it has accomplished it is safe to say that the worm-drive for the transmission of power is entirely eliminated.

Within two shows give a thorough idea of the greatness of the commercial vehicles. There has been a great increase in the number of makers who are in a field for electrics and that field is rapidly being developed in every city in the country and in that development Boston is particularly strong.

In addition a variety of trucks displayed is particularly interesting, embracing as it does everything from the 800-pound runabout wagon of the grocery boy on the five, eight and ten-ton truck of the brewery and big transportation companies.

The Alco truck, which made such an excellent reputation in driving from Philadelphia to New York and return, is on hand a full load, finds its replica in the five-ton Alco exhibited here. This truck is finished in battleship gray, and is a most striking feature of the big Alco exhibit, which includes chassis of the two, three-and-a-half and five-ton, with three complete trucks, one of each of the various models. The two-ton has a stake body, designed for the delivery of light and bulky loads, while the three-and-a-half-ton has the usual flat steel, self dumping body, operated on rollers. The body is removable. The five-ton truck is equipped with a steel body of the dump-body of special design.

The Packard motor car company is exhibiting a four-ton stripped chassis, a three-ton moving van and a five-ton contractor's truck, equipped with the Packard screw-power, hoist-dump mechanism. Included in the display also is a considerable assortment of parts of Packard trucks, shown separately so that the technically minded may judge of the design and construction of the individual units. Another feature is a large portfolio of photographs of Peerless trucks in actual service in different parts of the United States, and in a wide variety of businesses.

With a white chassis comprising all the models it manufactures the Garford Company is making a strong bid for favor. Another unique display in the Garden a full line of products, from a standard three-ton chassis to a six-ton platform truck, designed for the heaviest of transportation. The models shown are a tractor, a six-ton stripped chassis, a six-ton platform truck, designed for hauling heavy paper stock, a five-ton truck with a five-ton dump wagon, a three-ton stripped chassis and a three-ton chassis with furniture, mail wagon and delivery bodies.

The combination demountable dumping body chassis, shown for the first time, is the feature of the Locomobile exhibit in the Garden. With this body the delays due to loading and unloading are reduced to a minimum, for by means of the power attachment by which the body is operated it can be raised off the truck chassis on to a platform, or vice-versa, in less than a minute. In operation there will be two or more bodies for each chassis.

These bodies are placed on a platform, and in the morning when the truck is ready to start it is driven from the garage and backed up to the body that is loaded. While the truck is away another body is loaded and upon the truck's return it demounts the empty body on the platform and substitutes a loaded one.

Accessories Also Shown.

Manager Altman of the Eastern Motor Truck Company, distributors of the Kelley-Springfield trucks in New England, is greeting the New Englanders at the Garden display of this company, where it exhibits three chassis. There are two one-ton chassis, one with 120-inch wheelbase and the other with 144-inch wheelbase, and the third chassis is a three-ton truck. The Kelley Company also exhibits a number of parts and accessories.

Manager H. B. Johns of the General Motors Truck Company in Boston, is telling visitors to this company's display in the Garden that the special pressed steel express body fitted on a one-ton truck chassis is the feature of his exhibit. This body is built of hollow pressed steel parts which are electrically welded, making a unit of the frame work, consisting practically of one piece of steel. The panels are electrically welded and are riveted into place. The floor is also of steel, corrugated, so that it is exceptionally rigid and will not dent under hard usage.

J. W. Maguire, the Boston distributor of the Pierce-Arrow, at the last show here predicted that this year there would be a number of worm-driven trucks on exhibition. The prophecy has been more than made good, for the worm-drive certainly has come along during the past year. The Pierce-Arrow Company is exhibiting stripped chassis which has caused considerable comment because of its frame construction. Nickel steel is used, of channel section. The design gives the frame the quality of absorbing vibrations and jars due to road work. The motor, transmission and driving system thus have protection against jars and strains. Of course the worm-drive is the feature of this truck.

J. S. Hathaway of the Boston White Company, and his truck salesmen, are all here on the job at the White exhibit in the Garden. This company is displaying types ranging from the 1,500-pound model for light delivery certain to the five-ton truck. The White trucks are fitted with standard and special bodies, showing their power dumping devices, power winches and power derricks. In the heavy types the White company employs steel wheels.

Details of Cars.

The Grant Motor Truck Company is showing a new 1,500-pound Willys utility truck, produced after John N. Willys' policy in large numbers. The present Grannn models will be continued. Several changes have been made in the design of the new car, which will be noticeable even to the casual observer. The motor is of the conventional four-cast, four-cylinder type, the cylinders being cast singly and offset nine-sixteenths of an inch. The tail shaft runs in five bearings, giving extreme rigidity to the motor, which is to turn supported by three points. A centrifugal governor operating a butterfly valve in the gas-manifold is located and sealed to the magneto-gear, giving a maximum speed of eighteen miles an hour.

The Autocar company has an unusually large exhibit, the space extending the entire width of Madison Square Garden at the Fourth avenue end of the building. Eleven chassis, with nine different styles of bodies used on the 3,000-pound Autocars chassis are displayed. These include a standard furniture car, a standard stake car, a standard hearse car, a combination freight and passenger car, a standard single-curve, closed car, with front sliding doors, a standard six-post, open delivery car of wheel pocket type, a special open express car, a standard omnibus and a special open-body delivery car.

PLAN NEW NATIONAL BANK FOR BOSTON

A new national bank for Boston is being planned by prominent members of the Chamber of Commerce. George S. Smith, the former president, is believed to be interesting himself in the organization of a new bank. Secretary McKibben admitted a new bank was being considered.

TO MAKE DIVORCE IN NEVADA HARDER

CARSON CITY, Nev., Jan. 21.—The Legislature, if it carries out one of Governor Tasker L. Oddie's recommendations, will this year make divorces in the State more difficult. The plan is to require a year's instead of six months' residence before a divorce can be obtained.

RILEY DENIES HUDSON MADE "GRAFT" CHARGE

John J. Riley, who appeared last Friday before the legislative Committee on Cities in opposition to a bill or bills about increasing the salaries of the members of the Boston License Commissioners, declares that the hearing was incorrectly reported in some of the Boston newspapers.

Mr. Riley had said that licenses had been refused to certain Boston applicants unless they agreed to buy Boston beer. This was denied by former License Commissioner Hudson, who said: "I have blocked that man," pointing to Riley, "in certain schemes before, and although I am no longer a member of the board, I will do so again."

In several Boston newspapers, Mr. Hudson was quoted as saying, "In certain graft schemes before." Mr. Riley says that the correct version was "in certain schemes."

Mr. Riley admits that he had been engaged in certain plans or schemes which were perfectly legitimate, but objects to the word "graft" being interjected into the reported remarks of Mr. Hudson. He asks that publicity be given to this.

HOME RULE VICTORY WILL BE OBSERVED IN BOSTON TONIGHT

Loyal Irishmen in Boston will tonight royally celebrate the great Home Rule victory at the American House, where the United Irish League will gather at eight o'clock. Among the speakers will be Harry Phillips of London, now visiting here.

The Central Council of the Boston League will be represented by nearly all its delegates and the evening, it is planned, will be given over to a celebration of the great success in the House of Commons.

The organization for many years has upheld, financially and otherwise, the Irish party.

Upward of $12,000 of the $20,000 pledged from Massachusetts at the Philadelphia National convention of the organization last September has been forwarded to Ireland by the national treasurer, Thomas B. Fitzpatrick of Boston.

Special Notice.

Only One "BROMO QUININE," that is Laxative Bromo Quinine

Cures a Cold in One Day. Grip in Two Days

on box, 25c

E. W. Grove

$40,000 Contest Candidates

Here Is the New Subscription Vote Offer

A SPECIAL VOTE BONUS

Will Be Given on Each Subscription Turned in Between Thursday, January 16, and Saturday, Feb. 1.

AT 10 P. M.

Sub Term	Regular Value	Bonus Value	Total
6 Months	1500 votes	500	2000
12 Months	2500 votes	1500	5000
36 Months	7500 votes	3500	11000

New Vote List AND Automobile Winner

WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN NEXT

Sunday American

Another

"CLEAN-UP" of Every Available Copy of LAST - - - - - - - -

SUNDAY'S AMERICAN

At noon LAST SUNDAY Money Could Not Buy a Copy. Hundreds of late comers were again disappointed.

Today--Now

is none too early to give your newsdealer or newsboy an order for NEXT Sunday's American.

Simple Prescription Wonderful Kidney and Bladder Cure

The following simple prescription has become famous on account of its remarkable effects in cases of kidney and bladder ailments. Get six ounces of good pure gin and add to it one-half ounce of Parmint (Parmint and one-half ounce fluid extract Buchu. Take one to two teaspoonfuls of this mixture after each meal and at bed time. It quickly relieves backache, rheumatic pains in the joints and other well known symptoms which can hardly be mentioned here. The ingredients can be had at any good drug store and are easily mixed. Be sure to use good pure gin. Also make sure to use the genuine Murax Compound, which comes in a sealed wooden tube, as a substitute will not give the desired results.

The real serious forms of kidney disease can be avoided if the above treatment is taken in time. —Advertisement

DEATHS

Rates per Death Notice in this column 50 cents for each insertion. Leave notice at AMERICAN office, 304 Washington st., or at 89 Summer st., Or call Ad Taker, 5180 Main.

BLAKE—At his home, Newcastle, Wednesday, Jan. 19, Francis Blake, 62 yrs.
Funeral services at 2:15, on Wednesday, Jan. 22. Carriages will meet at Newcastle the train leaving the South station at 1:55 p. m. Burial private.

DAVISON—In Roxbury, Jan. 20, Robert H. Davison, 79 yrs., member of post 99, G. A. R. Franklin, Mass.
Funeral at 100 Bowers st., Roxbury, Jan. 22, at 3 o'clock p. m.

ELLMS—Suddenly, at Scituate, Jan. 20, Charles Otis Ellms, 62 yrs.
Funeral at Scituate cemetery chapel, Scituate, Wednesday, Jan. 22, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited without further notice.

HAYES—In Worcester, Jan. 20, Mary S. Hayes, widow of William Hayes, 82 yrs.
Services at Fiveot Hills chapel at 2 p. m., Wednesday. Relatives and friends invited to attend without further notice. Burial at Fiveot Hills.

KLAUS—In Dorchester, Jan. 19, Augustus Klaus, widow of Victor Klaus.
Funeral from the residence of her son, Frank Klaus, 20 Charles st., Dorchester, Wednesday morning, at 8:15 o'clock. Requiem high mass at the Polish Catholic Church, Dorchester av., near Andrews sq., at 9:30 a. m. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

KNOWLTON—In West Medway, Jan. 20, the Rev. Clinton Knowlton, 82 yrs.
Funeral Wednesday, Jan. 22, at 2:30 p. m., at the Second Congregational Church, Medway. Please omit flowers.

LEATHERBEE—In Jamaica Plain, Jan. 19, Sarah A., widow of Walter A. Leatherbee, in her 88th year.
Funeral, strictly private, at the family lot, Forest Hills.

ONGOOD—At the Home for Aged Couples, Roxbury, Jan. 20, Bernard Ongood, aged 74 yrs., 2 mos., 28 dys.
Funeral services at the home, 409 Walnut st., on Wednesday, Jan. 22, at 10:30 A. M. Relatives and friends invited. Burial at Zion's cemetery, Lancaster, Mass.

PERKINS—In Nahnatuk, Jan. 18, John B. Perkins, 69 yrs.
Services at his late residence, 367 Central st., Auburndale, on Wednesday, Jan. 22, at 1:30 p. m. Burial Lowell, Mass., private please.

SHATTUCK—In West Andover, Jan. 19, Ezra Swift Shattuck, in his 79th year.
Funeral services at West Parish Church, Andover, Wednesday, Jan. 22, at 2 p. m. Carriages for Andover leave North station at 12:30 p. m.

WHEELER—In Charlestown, Jan. 20, George C. Wheeler, 86 yrs.
Services at his late residence, 19 Chestnut st., Charlestown, Wednesday, Jan. 22, at 1 p. m. Burial private. Kindly omit flowers.

Lost and Found.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

BRACELET LOST—On Huntington av., Sunday, head of golf, blue garnet bracelet, with highly valued heirloom, prized because of age; finder please return to CARICH, 40 Huntington av., Winthrop, Mass.; phone Winthrop 1112.

LOST—Little Angora kitten, white blue eyes, female. Please return to DR. MARY E. JONES 8 James st., Box 3501, Boston; tel. Tremont 3501 and receive reward.

LOST—Between Dartmouth st. and Kenmore Friday night, on Dartmouth st. or near Copley Square Hill car, suitable reward if returned to 239 Beacon st., suite 4.

LOST—In Monmouth st. car or Dudley st. terminal, card case containing money; liberal reward. 7 181, Boston American.

LOST—Gold locket, monogram "Ov." Franklin park, Sunday afternoon. E. F. FOLEY, 67 Olney Bldg., Boston

LOST—Boston Postoffice, Jan. 20, black Waterman fountain pen. Address C 242, Boston American.

LOST—B. L. S., '05, class pin. B 402, Boston American.

Money to Loan.

Three advertisements are under the supervision of the State of Massachusetts.

QUICK LOANS at legal rates, no salary, piano, furniture, etc.; also mortgages and 2d mortgages; 1 hour; 28 years' business. Room 1, Gleason bldg., 370 Washington st., Brookline. Tel. Brookline 4000. HARRIS & HUNT, 29 Tremont st., 2d fl. Tel. 4 to 6.

MONEY to loan on furniture and pianos. 181 Tremont st., rm. 25. Lin. 34.

Special Announcements.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

PRIVATE licensed bureau; reasonable. MRS. H. HANMAN, 205 Wyoming av., Melrose, Mass. tel. 1208-W.

Tours, Travel and Transportation.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

CUNARD LINE

Boston, Queenstown, Liverpool
IVERNIA, Jan. 23, 10 P. M.
New York, Fishguard, Liverpool
MAURETANIA, Jan. 22
*CAMPANIA, Jan. 29
*Calls at Queenstown
126 State Street Tel. F. H. 4000

Information Wanted.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

WANTED—Address of BERTHA BENZ. Call R. B. 970.

Printing.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS, $1; 1,000 circulars, $1. R BRIEF PRESS, 81 Leverett st., Boston.

Business Personals.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

MARGE PAPER Co., Copley Square, Monday, Jan. 20, with cash, a wide variety of photos and decorations; also a picture frame. 262 Tremont st., Boston, or at 362 and 291 Tremont st., Old Court House, Nos. Perry, 10 Bowdoin sq., Boston.

MARRY or find friends; latest list 10c. HUB CORRESPONDENCE CLUB, Newtonville, Mass.

Adoption.

FOR ADOPTION—Fine American baby for of two months; to some one that will be a good mother; full surrender. 8 88, Boston American.

For Sale—Miscellaneous.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

Grocers, Markets, Restaurants.

ALL KINDS of refrigerators and store fixtures, good as new. 9 prom. WITHAM CO., Ballou av.

Desks, Showcases, Etc.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

SECOND-HAND and new desks, lowest prices. PEABODY, 378 Devonshire st., near Summer.

(Help) Ask for The Ad Taker

Main 5180

AMERICAN WANT ADS

Received before 11 a. m. go in all later big editions—get help same day.

Male Help Wanted.

10c a line of 7 words. 20c display.

Salesmen AT ONCE

EXPERIENCED ON SILKS, DRESS GOODS, LININGS, LINENS, FLANNELS, MEN'S FURNISHINGS AND CLOTHING.

GOOD PAY

Apply at Employment Bureau, Main Building; use 38 Avon Street entrance and direct elevators to fourth floor, rear.

Jordan Marsh Company

SHOE WORKERS WANTED.

OUTSIDE cutters, trimming cutters and cloth cutters wanted, about 35 hrs. per week; Boston; strike over; only by U. S. W., no other union involved; good pay for experienced help; reference to satisfactory parties. Apply to JOHN WAHD, 36 Bromfield st., room 16, between 9 and 4 p. m. and 4 and 6 p. m., with baggage, prepared to leave at once.

Exp. No. 5 Toe Operators Side Laster and Machine Pullers

ON women's shoes. Apply W. H. McELWAIN CO., 60 to 68 South Spring st., Boston.

PATTERN MAKER

WANTED—at once. Apply HUNT-SPILLER MFG. CORPORATION, 383 Dorchester av., South Boston.

LITHO PRESSMAN.

YOUNG man who has had some exp. on press-work. JOHN WORLEY CO., 42 Stanhope st.

BOY—Wanted, boy about eighteen, to drive horse and do chores on farm. W. M. MURRAY, 918 Pleasant st., East Milton.

CANDY MAKER—Candy and ice cream maker, or soda fountain man. Address C 242, Boston American.

CARPET LAYER—Wanted, at once, a first-class carpet layer and shade man; must have good references. Apply at once, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at THE FISHERMAN CO., North Attleboro, Mass.

COLLECTORS—And canvassers wanted. 2 Washington st., Roxbury.

DRAFTSMAN—Architectural draftsman wanted for work in Boston office, one who has had some experience in store construction and knows how to handle men; steady work for the right man. Apply at VERMONT MARBLE CO., 70 Thacher st., Boston.

IRON GRILLE—And wire worker wanted. Apply to JAMES A. GLASS, 160 High st.

OPERATORS—Wanted, operators on the No. 8 bolting machine. STOVER & CRANE MFG. CO., Head bldg., Lowell, Mass.

PIANO HELP—Piano action finishers and upright action wanted, steady work, first-class workmen, good pay. PIANO CO., 126 Columbus av.

PLUMBER—One with master's license, 261 Tremont st., West Somerville.

PRINTER—Compositor and pressman wanted; one able to operate linotype preferred. MRS. H. BANKS PRESS, 82 Broadway, Somerville.

SEWER—Motor sewer on beaded work. D. DAMON & ELLIS, 88 High st., Bo ton.

SOLICITOR for sign shop, hustler's opportunity, call 11 to 1. CRIPPEN, 66 Stanhope st.

STORAGE BATTERY—Keep garage busy; repair man; good pay; steady work for competent man. 179 Mass. av.

WIRE—And iron worker wanted. Apply to JAMES A. GLASS, 160 High st.

WOOD CHOPPERS—Wanted; 4 experienced cordwood choppers, 200 cords now available; $1.50 per cord; camp free; come with axes ready for work. GEORGE GOODNOW, South Sudbury, Mass.

Agents and Canvassers.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

AGENTS—Wanted, violin canvasser with previous experience to sell on line, steady employment for reliable man; no others need apply. Make appointment to W. C. PACKER, 37 Pratt st., Hartford, Ct.

AGENTS—Wanted; live hustlers to sell our unbreakable mirror; wanted in all counties; exclusive terms; sample 10 cents. UNITED M'F'G CO., Forsay Station, Boston.

Male Situations Wanted.

5c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

CHAUFFEUR—Experienced all around mechanic, either position on truck or with private family. 62 E, Boston American.

MASON—And all-round repair man wants steady position; factory, apartment house or hotel. Box 7, Dedham, Mass.

WATCHMAN—First-class American man, with highest references, day or night. WATCHMAN, 70 Cass st., Melrose, Mass.

Typewriters.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

$3 FOR 3 months rents a fine typewriter; rental applied on price; send for catalogue. L. J. PEARSON & SON, Typewriter Exchange, Boston.

RELIABLE TYPEWRITERS, $15 up; $5 cash, $5 monthly; rented, exchanged, sold. 256 Tremont st. TYPE OFFICE APPLIANCE CO., 256 Tremont st.

ALL MAKES, lowest prices, rented, rebuilt. AMERICAN WRITING MACHINE CO., 38 Bromfield st.

Painting and Paper Hanging.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

HANG and furnish paper for $1.75 per room, painting $1.25, whitewashing 35c, kalsomining $1.50 per room; outside painting work done at low rates; send postal. 6 Thorndike st., or Washington st., Roxbury.

Wines and Liquors.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

ABSOLUTELY STRAIGHT 2-stamp Ky. whiskey, $2.50 qt.; 30 qts. $1 per qt. TRIAL SNOW & SON, 59 No. Market st. Est. 100 years.

Kindling Charcoal.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

SAVE money; eliminate middlemen; no delivery charges; cash and carry. SOMERVILLE CHARCOAL CO., 41 Linwood st. Tel. Som 2350-R.

Wanted—Miscellaneous.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

WANTED—Will pay a reasonable amount for Winslow's skates if cheap. WELCH & CLARK, Pastime Skating Rink, Lawrence, Mass.

THE BOSTON AMERICAN
Published Daily and Sunday at 304 and 82 Summer Street, Boston, Mass.
BRANCH ADVERTISING OFFICES.
DISPLAY AND CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING FOR THIS PAPER RECEIVED AT 225 WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON; 1123 BROAD-WAY BLDG., NEW YORK CITY, OR 80-83 MARKET ST., CHICAGO.
NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING CO.
Entered as second class matter, June 4, 1907, at the postoffice at Boston, Mass.
Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice Department, Ottawa.
Terms: Daily and Sunday, One Cent; Sunday, Five Cents.
Terms: Postage included for the United States (outside of Boston), Canada and Mexico.
Daily only:
One year $3.00
Six months 1.50
One month ..... .25
Sunday only:
One year 2.50
Six months 1.25
Daily and Sunday:
One year 5.00
Six months 2.75
One month ..... .45
On foreign subscriptions add postage at rate of 1 cent per copy daily and 2 cents per copy Sunday.

Male Help—Miscellaneous.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

AUTO STUDENTS.

WE WILL TEACH you to become a competent chauffeur and get you a license; also repairing and other schools; we have competent instructors in all departments; call and see us or send for catalogue; we can do as we advertise; our terms are reasonable.

Eastern Auto School and Registry,
209 Washington st., Boston.

"THE" AUTO SCHOOL.

AUTO driving and repairing taught thoroughly at the most practical and most successful school in Boston; latest up-to-date methods; graduates in demand; special instruction on carburetors and magnetos; come in and see us or send for catalogue; terms reasonable; call evenings. CHAMPION-BONNET & GREIG, 1254 Columbus av.

AUTOMOBILE SCHOOL

LICENSE GUARANTEED.
AUTO driving and repairing taught by experts; road lessons a specialty, $1 each or 6 lessons for $5; 20 new models; private rooms and competent instructors; open car or evening; apply at once. M. B. HALL, 71 Chestnut st., near Charles st., Boston.

AUTOMOBILE SCHOOL.

AUTO driving lessons, $1 each or 6 for $5; the only school in Boston using 30 and 60 hp cars for road work; we secure more licenses and place more men in positions than any other school in New England; unlimited repair course, $15; license guaranteed or evening; evening CLASS, 37 Chestnut st., room 4.

Wages, Room, Board, Railroad Ticket

FURNISHED by some of the largest "Co-operative Propositions" while working here and learning, automobiling, barbering or engineering, also machinist, metal plating; no particulars. 814 Washington st., Boston. Open evenings.

200 Men Wanted This Week.

TO LEARN to drive and repair automobiles in our shop; practical instruction; day or evening; call or send stamp for booklet. NEW ENGLAND AUTO SCHOOL, 670 Commonwealth av., Boston.

A BOSTON FIRM would like to communicate with a gentleman of good references who can devote several hours a day to light work at home. Address P 95, Boston American.

BOY—To apply shorthand, bookkeeping, day, exc. $7 per week. SCHOOL, 703 Tremont, Dud. 3.

ENGINEERS, FIREMEN—A higher license means more pay; get one now; individual instruction; low cost; terms reasonable; call or send for booklet; prospects free. HAWLEY ENGINEERING SCHOOL, 3 Tremont st., Boston.

ENGINEERS AND FIREMEN instructed for license and permanent positions; day and evening school. James Orme, M. E., instructor. STATE STEAM ENGINEERING SCHOOL, 1 Beacon st., Boston; free catalogue, always open.

FOR SALE—Interest in old-established night man in theatre. THE METROPOLITAN AMUSEMENT CO., 684 Washington st., Boston.

IF YOU WANT to become a traveling salesman and earn $25 per week and expenses, write us; our 32-page booklet explains all. BUSINESS TRAINING INSTITUTE, Dept. A, Rochester, N. Y.

I MADE $50,000 in 3 years with a small mail order business; began with $2; send for free booklet; tells how. E. J. SHERIDAN, 1133 Broadway, N. Y.

LOCOMOTIVE FIREMEN and trainmen for railroads; $150 to $250 monthly; $90 to $240; ages 18 to 35; experience unnecessary; no strike; promotion; instructions; railroad surroundings; undergraduates, over 400 now set to positions; 3 months' home study; state age and name. RAILWAY Dept. C A., 227 Monroe st., Brooklyn, N. Y.

MEN and women wanted for railroad firemen and brakemen; over 400 now set to positions; $150 to $250 monthly; state age and name. RAILWAY Dept. C A., 227 Monroe st., Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE METROPOLITAN AMUSEMENT CO. wants:

MEN—Women; get government parcel post jobs; $70 week; write for list of openings. FRANKLIN INSTITUTE, Dept. 147 A, Rochester, N. Y.

MOTION picture theatre and stage; pianist; good salary. MOORE AMUSEMENT CO., 172 Tremont st.

MOVING PICTURE operating; handy; students placed. LESLIE'S, 180 Boylston st., 4th floor, room 4.

MOVING picture playing taught in 20 lessons; write for free books. Room 520 Herald Bldg.

SALESMAN—Experienced for any line to sell general trade in Massachusetts; $1000 weekly for proposition; also salesmen wanted. $1000 weekly for proposition. 1 Madison av., New York.

PAINT, Cleveland, Ohio, sayo.

SALESMEN—Wanted, several salesmen to go long nights in city. Address 38A Tremont st.

SALESMEN—Wanted, 2 salesmen to call on apartments preferred. 91 Kendall st., Roxbury, suite 7.

SALESWOMEN—Wanted, 2 saleswomen; good hours. MISS DUDLEY, 556 Tremont st., Boston, opp. Dover st. Tel. Oxford 1000.

NURSE—Wanted, for doctor's office, child or beyond. NURSE, 27 Mt. Pleasant st., Woburn, Mass.

NURSE—Wanted, for baby 3 months old; good home with housework. MRS. DINA B. JOHNSON, Lexington, Mass.

SEAMSTRESS—At hands of mending and plain sewing; steady work and salary paid for. 7 1 Tremont st., room 1, Boston.

STENOGRAPHER—Wanted, a young lady stenographer; reasonable salary. Address P 7, Boston American, stating experience.

WANTED—Lady to call on the day, or to take home MISS J. LEWIS, 18 Tremont st., Boston.

Clothing.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

The Wage Earners' Friend
Marks & Chester

105 Dudley St., Cor. Dudley Sq.

25 YEARS OF HONEST DEALING.
WE WILL LOAN YOU ANY AMOUNT OF LITTLE MONEY YOU CAN SPARE.
THE WAGE EARNERS' MARKS & CHESTER for a general business; legal; wants in New England; loans from $1 to $50 on personal property; diamonds and valuables from $1.50 upward; pianos, organs and valuables from $1.50 upward; loans on dress suits for sale or to let; the only store of its kind in Boston; private rooms for consultation.

KEEZER S.S.O COLUMBUS AV., near Dartmouth st. The evening clothes of an old city man in Boston that has for sale Harvard students' misfit dress suits, $25 and $30; also tuxedos, $15; for sale or to let; open evenings till 9; Saturday to 12 noon.

LARGEST STOCK slightly worn Full and Winter Overcoats, Tuxedos and Dress Suits in the city; prices reduced from 50 per cent; terms to suit. MME. DE BRONT, 247 Tremont st.

PIANOS and organs for sale or to let. WILLIAMS DRESS SUIT PARLORS, 38 Bowdoin st.

Detectives.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

American National Detective Agency

OLD SOUTH BLDG., 294 WASH. ST., ROOM 9.
IN OUR 20th year of detective work, we have a staff of men and women that is second to none; both sexes, covering every department and branch of the detective business; if you have any work in this line, call or write us; reliable and prompt. ANDREW LE CLAIR, General Manager.

G. A. DAVIS, investigations; family and business troubles handled. 527 Columbus av.; tel. Tre. 647.

Storage.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

MASSACHUSETTS STORAGE WAREHOUSE, Columbus av., trunks 25c; piano 75c up months; estimates free. Tel. Back Bay 1000.

HUB STORAGE WAREHOUSE CO., tel. Ox. 8, 849 Washington st.; 640 rooms, $1 month up.

Legal and Public Notices.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

THE BOARD OF STREET COMMISSIONERS will receive bids for the sprinkling of streets for the year 1913. Bids must be for not less than 500 gallons in tank undecorated, in the building in the rear of 15 Beach st. Bids will be received in the City of Boston for one year from date. P. J. O'CALLAGHAN, Commissioner of Streets. Jan. 21, 1913.

CITY OF BOSTON, IN BOARD OF STREET COMMISSIONERS, Jan. 21, 1913. Upon the foregoing petition, it is ordered, that a public hearing thereon be given by the Board to all parties interested that this Board will on Tuesday, the 4th day of February, at 11 o'clock A. M., consider the expediency of granting the prayer of the petitioners, and that notice of the time and thereto may appear and be heard. Said notice is to be given by publication of this order and petition in the City of Boston, in the Boston American, for seven days before the time of hearing. By order of JAMES J. O'CALLAGHAN, Secretary.

JUS. PEACE, notary, day and evening. OFFICE, 31 Bowdoin, 1021 Washington st., near Dover; tel. Oxford 1000.

JUS. PEACE and Notary Public, home evenings, 449 Shawmut st., near S. Sudbury st., Boston.

Dramatic.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

NEW YORK Producing Co. of Acting require pupils to complete cast for productions now rehearsing. CALL DUDLEY OPERA HOUSE, day or evening.

Sewing Machines.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

GREAT BARGAIN—Must sell my $90 Singer, good as new, $25. Apply 332 Somerville av., Somerville.

SEWING MACHINE, good as new, will sell for $5. 22 Warren st., near Dudley Terminal.

Talking Machines.

10c a line of 7 words. 20c display.

TALKING MACHINES and records, all makes bought, sold and exchanged. RICHARD S. 2 School st., up 1 flight.

Female Help Wanted.

10c a line of 7 words. 20c display.

Chandler & Co.
151 Tremont St.

REQUIRE several Saleswomen experienced in LACES, SUITS, GOWNS, FURS, WAISTS. Apply to MR. A. CROSSLEY.

GENERAL WORK—Girl to do general work in family of 3; 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. 225 Third st., Cambridge.

HOUSEKEEPER—Refined woman to lodging house; pleasant home; home nights if desired. 949 Columbus av.

HOUSEWORK—Girl wanted for general housework; don't worry without references. Call at 45 Holborn st., Roxbury.

STITCHERS—Wanted; on coats, aprons and wrappers; also one to learn; good wages and steady work. Apply at MECHANICS APRON & TOWEL SUPPLY CO., 8 Island st., Roxbury.

TAILORESS—Wanted; thoroughly exp. tailoress for ladies' tailoring garments. Address P 1, Boston American.

WAITRESS—Wanted, young lady for waitress; also a girl to learn. NEW ENGLAND UNIVERSAL FILM EXC., 220 Tremont st., Boston.

Female Help—Miscellaneous.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

A YOUNG lady would like to communicate with a woman of taste and refinement who can devote a few hours a day to light work at home. Address G 962, Boston American.

CHORUS GIRLS—Wanted, 30 girls for chorus with musical show, between 5 feet 3 and 5 feet 7 tall; also dancing. MR. CHARLES, 3 Boylston st.

GIRLS, girls, girls, good singing voices. THE METROPOLITAN AMUSEMENT CO., 684 Washington st., Boston.

LAUNDRY HELP—Exp. curl press girl. Apply CLEANER WING LAUNDRY CO., 59 Hudson st.

LAUNDRY HELP—Exp. feeders and calenders. Apply CLEANER WING LAUNDRY CO., 59 Hudson st.

MEN and women wanted for the stage, we teach you; $25 weekly guaranteed; write for booklet. 694 Washington st.

SCHOOL GIRLS—And girls will be taught millinery and dressmaking. McDOWELL'S, 38 Temple pl.

Employment Agencies.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

MISS KING'S, 689 Washington st., opposite Dover st. Tel. Oxford 1000. Reliable servants.

WOMAN wants work by day or hour. 1c. Hunt. 7 Vernon st.; tel. 1918-R. Roxbury.

Female Situations Wanted.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

CLEANING—Cleaning by day or hour, $2, anywhere, cander woman. MRS. RUTTER, 870 Albany st.

DAY WORK—Cleaning or laundry, wanted by a reliable woman. Tel. Camb. 2964-W.

DRESSMAKING—Wanted; plain sewing, alter and make over; by day, half a day, or will go out by the day. MISS LUCAS, 82 Village st.

HOUSEKEEPER—A position desired by capable, experienced housekeeper in widower's home; best of references; city or country. Address 463 Dudley st., Roxbury, Mass.

HOUSEKEEPER—A position wanted by widow, 39, with one girl, age 7, in refined family; good home more object than salary; best of references. MRS. W. 7 Tremont st., room 1.

HOUSEWORK—Wanted by Scotch woman, by the hour, by the week, or will go out by the day. MRS. S. 133 Hamilton st., Dorchester.

HOUSEWORK—By German woman; wages $3.50 week; no washing. Address M. BUTMOS, 23 Bowdoin st., Somerville.

KITCHEN WORK—Smart German girl wants work in kitchen; wages $3.50 week; no washing. Address M. BUTMOS, 23 Bowdoin st., Somerville.

NURSE—Wanted, by young woman, position as nurse to children; can furnish best of references. Address P 2, Boston American.

SEAMSTRESS—At hands of mending and plain sewing; steady work and salary paid for. 7 1 Tremont st., room 1, Boston.

WAITRESS—Wanted, by the day, or to take home. MISS J. LEWIS, 18 Tremont st., Boston.

Pianos and Musical Instruments.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE OF FINE PIANOS

If you have never attended one of our clearance sales, do so this season. The most remarkable Piano Bargains ever offered this public are given at these yearly clearances. Every instrument is sold with our full guarantee, and practically for a song. Dealers, dirtygoods and cheaters get the same prices at these sales as the most conservative families alike. Many makes on sale not mentioned, for business and private reasons in this announcement. Come early for best selections.

Frederick Piano $175

NEW AND GUARANTEED—$300 VALUES.
STEINWAY UPT. $175
SOHMER UPT. $95
WEBER UPT. $85
KNABE UPT. $95
HALLET & DAVIS UPT. $75
CHASE UPT. $135
HARDMAN UPT. $95
PEASE & NEWTON UPT. $85
HALLET & DAVIS UPT. $95
CABLE UPT. $95
STEINERT UPT. $95
FISCHER UPT. $95
CHICKERING UPT. $95
HUNT-MILLER UPT. $95
HALLET & DAVIS UPT. $95
McPHAIL UPT. $125
BEHNING UPT. $95

$5 DOWN $1 A WEEK

We will take in trade as part payment your old piano, and allow you to offer in exchange a piano.

PLAYER PIANOS FROM $150 TO $450

ROXBURY PIANO STORAGE SALESROOM CO.

BOSTON
2418 Washington St., Boston
AT DUDLEY TERMINAL

LOWELL PIANO BARGAINS

227 CENTRAL STREET

The Lowell Branch of above house will offer new and take exchanges of Pianos and Organs. Pianos and most of above instruments.

Roxbury Piano Storage SALESROOM CO.

OPEN MONDAY, THURSDAY AND SATURDAY EVENINGS UNTIL 10.

NOTICE—Remember the number—We are on the street floor—not the Elevated trains at Dudley st. Terminal—Our salesrooms are a few steps from Washington st., going towards Forest Hills from Dudley st. Terminal. Tel. Roxbury 2418—Do the rest.

CHAS. S. NORRIS KRANICH & BACH PIANO

Warerooms 181 Tremont St.

WE are showing 1913 styles, grands and uprights, in mahogany, walnut and ebony; ready for the purchaser of fine and durability; before you decide call and examine our instruments. CHAS. S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st.

Piano Bargains

HENRY F. MILLER, $150—$200; mahogany interior piano; guaranteed; $5 cash, $5 monthly. CHICKERING, $150; Colonial, like new; special bargain; $5 cash, $5 monthly. KNABE, $125; Harvard, $100; several good pianos, $75 to $100; terms, $5 cash, $5 monthly. Open evenings in store every evening, write us if you cannot call; we have a piano to suit you. CHAS. S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont st., next to Modern Theatre.

AUTOPIANO

BEST PLAYER PIANO MADE.
Acknowledged in every piano and musician to be the best Player in Boston. Will buy, sell or take in exchange all makes of pianos. Catalogue and full information on request. CHAS. A. PRATT PIANO CO., 181 Tremont st., exclusive representative.

ARE YOUR CHILDREN BEING EDUCATED IN MUSIC?

WE CAN help you. We have 40 pianos, all standard makes, for sale or to let, from $75 to $1,000. Hallet & Davis, Knabe, Weber, Vose & sons, Hallet & Davis, Fischer, McPhail, Steinert and others. Call and see us for the next week a choice of these fine pianos for sale or to let at $5 per month. Also a large line of new pieces at any time you wish.

CHAS. S. NORRIS, 181 Tremont St.

PIANO—Must be sold at once, Hallet & Davis piano, ebony and scroll, $125. $2 down, $4 monthly. Also other pianos for sale. 7 181 Tremont st., room 25.

GREAT BARGAIN—An obliged to sell my $150 upright mahogany piano, almost new, $125 takes it. Apply 1 Bay State road, Boston.

22 CORNETS, leading makes, which have been in exchange; will be sold cheap for cash or terms. WARD, 249 Columbus av.

PIANO MOVING, packing and supplies of all kinds; come and see us. ROSENS, 3 School st.

$1 DOWN, $1 A WEEK. New and second-hand pianos from $50 up. BROOKS, 211 Tremont st., up 1 flight.

Music.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

PIANOS TUNED, $1

WORK GUARANTEED—PROF. HAIS, pupil Huntington av., Boston; 25 years exp.; Chickering, Steinway, Knabe, Hallet & Davis; terms reasonable; long free; I will examine your piano free of charge. Phone 3254-W Brookline.

Pianos Tuned & Cleaned $1

WORK guaranteed. DROP, BERRY, 249 Dudley st., Dud. 3. Reference, Mrs. Eugene Foster, Emerson, McPhail, Chickering and Miller pianos; terms reasonable.

PAULEN School of Music, 218 Tremont st., violin, piano, voice, cornet. 71 Summer st., established 15 years; license 68.

PIANOS TUNED, $1. COMPANY tickets, discounted, old gold and silver bought, highest prices. KEEZER, 209 Columbus av.

Store and Office Fixtures for Sale.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

OFFICE Furnishing and Store Fixture EXCHANGE, 5 Adams st., Dorchester. We will advertise this week 1,000 real flat typewriter desks, $10 each; 500 flat top desks, $5 each; 1,000 office chairs, $1 each; 1,000 revolving office chairs, $3.50 per h.; upholstered, $5; 1,000 office tables, $2 each; 1,000 typewriter chairs, $1 each; 1,000 office furnishings, a price this week; cash or terms; we buy or exchange.

Furs.

15c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

FURS remodeled, repaired at lowest prices. R. F. LARKIN, 657 Washington st., rm 2.

Furnished Rooms to Let.

12½c a line of 7 words. 25c display.

NEW HOTEL ST. CLOUD,
587 TREMONT ST.,
QUIET, beautiful rooms, private baths, $1.50, $2; $3.50 per day; weekly $3 and $12; elec. lights; elevator and restaurant; lowest rates in the city; dinners 65c. Week-day table d'hote 50c. Just below Boylston.

HOTEL ECHO,
408 TREMONT ST., near entrance 21-25 Albion st. One window room, 75 rooms ready, each steam-heated, parlor, reading, writing rooms; 50c to $1 day; $2.50 weekly; families accommodated, 2 to 6 rooms, housekeeping. Tel. Tre. 21060.

VISITORS TO BOSTON
HOTEL WATERTON—Corner of Bowdoin st. and Beacon pl., 100 to $1.50 per day; weekly rates.

HOTEL NAVARRE—433 Columbus av.; for ladies; transient and permanent; 200 rms.; $1 up. Tourists accom.

100 FUR ROOMS, all rooms with housekeeping, $2 per week. BOSTON REGISTRY, 206 Columbus av., 3d fl. Tel. Back Bay 3344-J.

100 NICELY fur. rooms, best location, housekeeping and otherwise, $1 up. WILLIAMS, 669 Shawmut av.

BACK BAY—234 W. Newton st.; beautifully furn. front room; private family; suitable for two; also sunny room, c. h. w., open plumbing. Tel. Back Bay 2234-W.

BERKELEY ST., 62—Furnished square and sole rooms, home comfort, excellent table; $3 and $4; choice connection.

BERKELEY PARK, 7—42d Col. st.; newly furnished back parlor, well heated; also back w. room; $4 and $5 per week; also single room, $3; references; under new management, no privacy.

CARVER ST., 10—Desirable connecting housekeeping rooms; gas, running water; spare room, front.

CHARENDON ST.—96—Furnished suites, one room and bath, $6 a week; also single rooms, $2 and $3.

COLUMBUS AV., 553—Housekeeping room, suitable for both four, second floor front, $4.50; rear, $3.50.

COLUMBUS AV., 670—Newly furnished side room, $3.50 per week; also single room, $2.50.

COLUMBUS AV., 741—Handsomely furnished sunny room, $4; telephone 1312-J Tremont.

COLUMBUS AV., 847—Suite 10; front and side room; $4.50 per week.

CUMBERLAND ST., 31—Newly furnished sunny front room; $3 per week.

DARTMOUTH ST., 115—Clean, well fur. front room, $3.50 per week; also single room, $2.50.

DARTMOUTH ST., 19—Square rooms, $2 to $3.50 per week; housekeeping privileges, $4.50; tel.

DUDLEY ST., 209—Nicely heated fur. or unfur. rms.; reasonable.

DWIGHT ST., 54—Large front parlor, open grate, $4 per week; also single room.

EAST BROOKLINE ST., 39—Opp. park; front parlor, $4; also other rooms; housekeeping privileges, tel., use.

EAST BOSTON—36 Leodon st.; two rooms for housekeeping, $4 per week; also single room, $2.50.

EAST NEWTON ST., 49—Large bay, front, sunny, kitchenette, use h. w., tel. BERTHA DUDLEY.

GREENWICH PK., 15—New for housekeeping suite, completely furnished, $18 per month; also single rooms, $3 per week; gentlemen preferred.

HUNTINGTON AV., 144—Suite 4, new for housekeeping, use h. w., gentlemen preferred.

MASSACHUSETTS AV., 612—Furnished rooms to let by the day or week; payments accommodated; tel. Back Bay 2612-W.

MASS. AV., 474—Dining room and kitchen to let for housekeeping; use of phone.

MILFORD ST., 22—Sun. rm., running water, heat, elec. light, $2.50; $3.50 w.

MT. VERNON PL., 6—Near State House; large sunny front room, suitable for 2; $4 per week.

RIVERSIDE ST., 108—Near Charles, 2 side rooms, $3 and $4.

RIDGEWAY LANE, 57—Cor. Berne st. opp. Forest Hills; rooms, $2 to $4 per week; 50 cts. extra for meals.

ROXBURY—1 to 5 rooms, 2 steels furnished for housekeeping; running water, $3 to $4 per week.

ROXBURY—9 Millmont st.; rear, Dudley L.; 2 nice fur. rooms for H. K.; also single room; bath, rent low.

ROXBURY—7 Millmont st.; fur. room, mod.; $3.75 weekly, gas extra; family ref.

RUTLAND SQ., 8—Newly fur. front room; also single room; $3 up.

SHAWMUT AV., 452—Square room, furnished for housekeeping; also single room.

ST. CHARLES ST., 14—Fr. room, $2; 2 rear rooms for housekeeping, $3 and $4.

TREMONT ST., 612, 626—Elegant large front parlor, suitable for 2 gentlemen; $5 per week.

TREMONT ST., 826—Travelers to Boston, steam heated; $3 per week.

TREMONT ST., 858—Near W. Newton, newly furnished, steam heated, $3.50 per week.

TREMONT ST., 950 and 958—Sun. and side rooms, $3.50 per week; also single room.

WALTHAM ST.—Furnished front housekeeping room, $3 per week; also single room.

WASHINGTON ST., 1904—Fur. h. k. room, $3.50 per week; also single room, $2.50 per week.

WASHINGTON ST., 1207—Sunny, light house-keeping rooms, $3 per week; also single room.

WEST BROOKLINE ST., 21—Newly furnished front room, $3 per week.

WEST NEWTON ST., 36—Large sunny room, with kitchenette, $3.50 per week; also single room.

WEST NEWTON ST., 206—Steam h. k. parlor, $4; also single room, $2.50 per week; tel.

WEST NEWTON ST., 98—Large sq. room, with kitchenette, $3.50 per week; also single room.

WEST NEWTON ST., 69—Housekeeping, large room, kitchenette, $4; also single room.

WORCESTER ST., 168—2-rm. suite, fine for light housekeeping, heat, h. and c. water, gas range; $3.50.

WEST SPRINGFIELD ST., 207—1 back parlor and kitchenette; gas, range; $3.50.

WORCESTER ST., 1—2-rm. suite, fine for L. housekeeping; heat, h. and

EDITORIAL PAGE OF THE BOSTON AMERICAN BOSTON JANUARY 21, 1913

BOSTON AMERICAN

80 AND 82 SUMMER ST., BOSTON, JANUARY 21, 1913.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND, DAILY AND SUNDAY

To the Clapp Committee, Which Is Just Now NOT Investigating Standard Oil Bribery

This Is Friendly Advice, Although You May Not Think So. In View of the Public Impatience with High-Class Rascals, in View of the Personality of Your Own Committee, and in View of Protecting the Public Interest, It would Be Well for You to Begin Hurrying on the Investigation FOR WHICH YOUR COMMITTEE WAS CREATED.

Copyright, 1913, by American-Journal-Examiner

We beg to assure Mr. Clapp and the members of his committee SUPPOSED to investigate Standard Oil and bribery of the Senate—the body to which the committee belongs—that the public is not satisfied with the progress made by the committee thus far.

The Clapp Committee was organized to find out to what extent Standard Oil and other corporations have been paying money to Congressmen and other political parties FOR SELLING LEGISLATION OR PREVENTING LEGISLATION.

Mr. Clapp, you and every member of your committee know that. And now that you know positively that the accusations are true, now that you know that those letters from Archbold enclosing certificates of deposit to public officials were genuine, WHY DON'T YOU DISCLOSE HOW MANY PUBLIC MEN WERE ON THE STANDARD OIL PAY ROLL?

You have seen Mr. Lorimer driven out of your body for bribery. You have seen Foraker driven into private life, because he took Standard Oil fees. You know where Mr. Penrose and others of your honorable body stand in the public estimation.

Why don't you act for the people, and CONDUCT YOUR INVESTIGATION AS THOUGH YOU MEANT IT?

The public have not been very much interested in your proceedings.

If you had been appointed by the Standard Oil to investigate W. R. Hearst, and if possible punish him for letting the public know how Senators are subsidized, the public would understand your attitude.

Your eagerness in seeking for those that could tell something about how the Standard Oil letters were secured, and what was paid for them, has been more suggestive of the mental operations of John D. Archbold than of a committee appointed to represent the public.

You actually know now that the letters are genuine. You have subpoenaed various colored gentlemen to enlighten you and help you in your earnest labors, and have perhaps finished with the colored element. Don't you think it is time to carry forward the work for which you were appointed, and for which incidentally the public is paying?

There is no question in anybody's mind, and none in the mind of any member of your committee as to the genuineness of those letters that John D. Archbold wrote subsidizing Senators—your associates on the floor of the Senate.

You know that the letters were genuine, that the Archbold certificates of deposit were received and presumably cashed.

Why don't you uncover now the whole corporation pay roll?

You, Mr. Clapp, and others of your committee, have stated publicly that you have the authority to compel William Randolph Hearst to deliver to your body EVERY DOCUMENT IN HIS POSSESSION BEARING IN ANY WAY UPON THE INVESTIGATION WHICH YOU ARE CONDUCTING. MR. HEARST AND HIS NEWSPAPERS HAVE BEEN DELIGHTED TO GIVE YOU EVERY DOCUMENT THEY HAVE.

And the public is especially delighted to hear that YOU, MR. CLAPP, AND YOUR ASSOCIATES, HAVE THE AUTHORITY TO GET ALL DOCUMENTS BEARING ON YOUR INVESTIGATION.

That being the case, why don't you make the Standard Oil people bring before you all of their letter files?

Unless Mr. Archbold exercises somewhere in your committee the interesting influence that he has exercised on the floor of the Senate, you can bring Mr. Archbold and all of his papers before you—do THAT and you will really accomplish something.

Mr. Clapp and his fellow "investigators," who just now are NOT investigating Standard Oil corruption, are respectfully reminded that various Standard Oil secretaries have recently been fleeing to Canada.

And Mr. Clapp and his associates are asked to let the public know how long they propose to delay and dilly-dally, and whether the period is to be sufficiently protracted to enable ALL STANDARD OIL SECRETARIES AND OTHERS ALSO TO RUN AWAY AND DISPOSE OF THE INCRIMINATING EVIDENCE THEY POSSESS?

Mr. Clapp, you have the power to get Mr. Archbold's complete letter files. WHY DON'T YOU GET THEM? He does not control you, of course.

You have power to find out, if you care to find out, just how many other Senators besides those exposed by W. R. Hearst were getting cash from Mr. Archbold and other Standard Oil men.

Why don't you do this?

And don't you know, Mr. Clapp, and other honorable members of the committee, that in your membership there are individuals who cannot to be particularly anxious to prove that they are not influenced by anything except the desire to expose Standard Oil dishonesty?

Senator Oliver, for instance, rightly or wrongly, is looked upon by the public as merely a protege and representative of Penrose. Mr. Oliver ought to be anxious to demonstrate to the public the fact that the influence that the Standard Oil had with Penrose DOES NOT EXTEND TO HIM.

Senator Paynter, another member of the committee, ought to be willing to persuade the public that when he voted against the Gallinger bill he could have prevented Senators from taking fees from public service corporations, which he has now declared he was not any more friendly than he ought to be to.

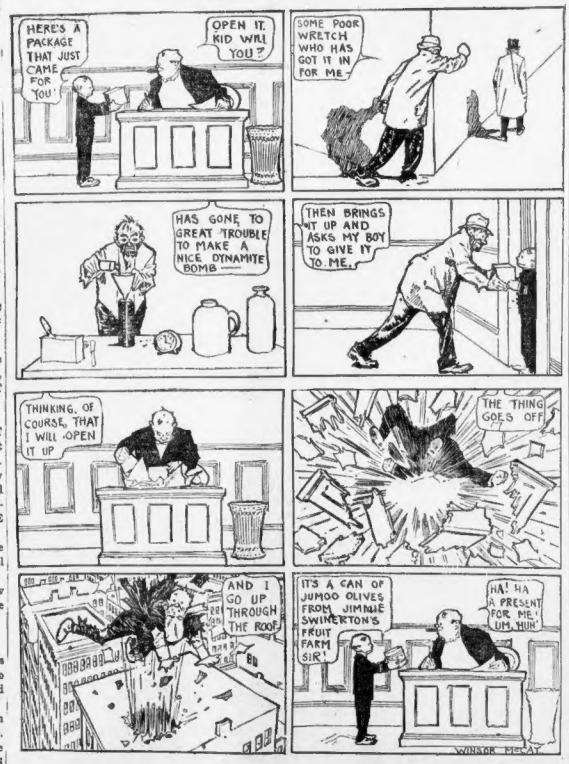
CONTINUED IN LAST TWO COLUMNS

The Bashful Performer

By TAD

Poor Mr. Nerves

By WINSOR M'CAY



HOW WOMAN'S FURS SPREAD DISEASE AND DEATH.—Startling discoveries by a woman scientist that infection from the animals themselves and from many disease germs which are collected by furs is invited by the woman who wears them. See Sunday's AMERICAN.

Where the Line Is Drawn Between Life and Death Is Something Not Fully Understood

By GARRETT P. SERVISS

A DISPATCH from Paris, printed not long ago, told of the wonderful feat of a professional swimmer who remained under water no less than five minutes and twenty-six seconds, in the meantime swimming thirty yards, though totally immersed all the time, and unable to take any fresh air into his lungs. If he had remained under water a few seconds longer, no doubt he would have been drowned. A drowned man, as far as we can see, and as far as he is personally concerned, is a dead man; and yet there is little question that, if this swimmer had thus perished, he could by modern methods have been revived and would thus apparently have been brought back from death to life. Many drowned persons have thus been restored after all consciousness had departed from them.

The explanation usually given is that in such cases it is not real death, but "suspended animation," with which we are dealing. The bodily machine has stopped, like an engine "stuck on the centre," and by clearing the obstructed passages, imparting artificial movement to the muscles of the chest and introducing air into the lungs, the machinery is set going again. The heart resumes its beating and the man recovers consciousness as the blood begins once more to flow through his arteries.

And yet the fact remains that, as far as we can determine, suspended animation, for the victim himself, is equivalent to death, and if it is allowed to pass into what we call real death there is nothing in his experience to indicate any further change. As a personality he suffered death when his consciousness departed. A kind of separate "life" remains for a time in the different organs and parts of the body, but it is not the thing which we, as conscious beings, know as life.

There are other ways in which "apparent death"—that is, death as far as the individual's consciousness is concerned—may be produced. It sometimes happens, for instance, in various forms of trance. In perfect sleep, unaccompanied by dreams, the consciousness is completely arrested. If the sleeper should or could remain in that state for a thousand or a million years, it would be all the same to him. Yet in sleep the appearance of death is not produced for those who look upon the sleeper. They see that he continues to breathe and that his heart goes on beating, while the circulation of the blood, though it may be changed or slowed down, is not arrested. Something occurs that cuts off the connections of the nervous system, or the brain, and consciousness departs.

When the man is profoundly asleep or in a state of suspended animation, as in drowning, are the parts of his body which still retain a kind of life separately conscious of that life? We have no reason to suppose that they are; but, on the other hand, we have no means of proving that they are not. If such consciousness exists, it has no apparent relation to the consciousness of the whole individual, which assures him that he is living. He has that consciousness only when his entire system is working together, and in such a way as to stimulate the activity of his brain.

Some very interesting experiments have been tried, recently, with suspended animation. At Moscow Professor Bakhmetieff has played boldly with the life of many animals and insects by freezing them.

Butterflies thus frozen, so that all their bodily fluids were turned to ice, and all their vital actions ceased, could be restored to life at any time, provided that the general bodily temperature was not reduced below minus ten degrees Centigrade. This was managed by varying the temperature of the air in which they were kept. Bats thus refrigerated were kept in a state of apparent death for weeks together and then completely restored to activity.

It is well known that lower forms of life, like bacteria, may be subjected to temperatures approaching that of liquid air and then, after a long interval, be brought back to active life. Some speculative minds have suggested that life may originally have been brought to the earth by spores and germs driven off from some other planet—perhaps even from planets circling round some distant star—and, after remaining in a state of "suspended animation" for thousands of years, amid the awful cold of open space, have been restored to activity upon encountering our planet. The celebrated Arrhenius has maintained that in this way "a mighty stream of life is kept circling in space from world to world."

Seeds that have been kept frozen for months in liquid air have been thawed out and planted, whereupon they germinated and grew into plants as if nothing extraordinary had happened to them.

Let us return for a moment to the phenomena of sleep. Hibernating animals, which pass the Winter under ground, apparently lack personal consciousness for months at a time. With some of them their "sleep" has been artificially prolonged for two years, without affecting their activity when they were brought back to consciousness.

The toad is an animal famous for its tenacity of life, and many stories have been printed of its alleged ability to pass hundreds of years inclosed in tree trunks, and even in rocks, without food or air. Naturalists and biologists are disposed to question these accounts, suggesting that some overlooked means of obtaining at least air must have existed. But it seems probable that the toad exceeds all other well-known animals in its power of dispensing with the ordinary means of sustaining life.

It is evident that the mystery of life is still very far from being cleared up, and many more elaborate investigations will have to be made before we really know much about it.

To the Clapp Committee, Which Is Just Now NOT Investigating Standard Oil Bribery

CONTINUED FROM FIRST TWO COLUMNS

with public service corporations, which happen to include the Standard Oil.

If Mr. Paynter doesn't want the public to believe that he looks with great grief upon any interruption of the system that enables Senators to make more money than the public pays them, if he doesn't want them to think too harshly of his action in voting against a very just bill to prevent Senators from taking large fees from railroads and other corporation managers, he will hasten to become a serious investigator.

Mr. Clapp and his committee are informed that the public are as far from understanding the attitude of that committee today as they would be far from understanding the conduct of a judge if, in a case of burglary, the judge should confine himself to cross-examining the detectives that caught the burglar, and ignore the burglar entirely.

We inform the committee that they have in their hands, at their mercy with power to convict, a rascally, criminal giver of bribes to public officials, and a criminal corporation that has been engaged in systematically buying legislation.

When you have an opportunity to catch bribe-givers, to expose the system of corruption that has existed on the floor of the Senate for the United States for years, Mr. Clapp, and others, you ought not to neglect that chance.

So, get to work at it.